This OPERATING AGREEMENT (the "Agreement") of Lambeth MHP, LLC, a North Carolina limited liability company (the "Company"), is entered into by and between the Company and BEDROCK MHC FUND II, LP, acting through its general partner, the sole member of the Company (the "Sole Member").

The Manager may unilaterally act on behalf of the Company with or without a meeting. All decisions concerning the business affairs of the Company shall be made by the Manager, and the affirmative consent (regardless of whether it is written, oral, or by course of conduct) of the Manager shall constitute the consent of all of the members of the Company for purposes of the LLC Law, the Articles and this Agreement. The failure of the Company to observe any formalities or requirements relating to the exercise of its powers or the management of its business or affairs under this Agreement or the LLC Law shall not be grounds for imparting personal liability on the Sole Member or the Manager for liabilities of the Company.

3.4 Management Rights. Subject to the LLC Law, the Articles and this Agreement, the Manager shall have authority to do every act consistent with applicable law. Additionally, except as otherwise expressly provided by the LLC Law, the debts, obligations and liabilities of the Company, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, shall be the debts, obligations and liabilities solely of the Company, and neither the Sole Member, the Manager nor any Officer or employee of the Company shall be obligated personally for any such debt, obligation or liability of the Company solely by reason of being a member, manager, officer or employee of the Company.

3.7 Indemnification. The Company shall indemnify the Sole Member and the Manager for all costs, losses, liabilities, and damages paid or accrued by the Sole Member and the Manager in connection with the business of the Company, all to the fullest extent provided or allowed by the laws of the State of North Carolina. The Manager may, in the sole discretion of the Manager, also cause the Company to indemnify any or all Officers, employees or agents of the Company for all costs, losses, liabilities and damages paid or accrued by the Officer, agent or employee in connection with the business of the Company to the fullest extent provided or allowed by the laws of the State of North Carolina.

"Controlling" and "Controlled" have correlative meanings. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a Person shall be deemed to Control any other Person in which it owns, directly or indirectly, a majority of the ownership interests.

3.9 Sole Member Transacting Business with the Company. The Sole Member may lend money to and transact other business with the Company, and the rights and obligations of the Sole Member in such transactions shall be the same as those of a person who is not a member. No transactions with the Company shall be voidable solely because the Sole Member has a direct or indirect interest in the transaction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for so long as any obligations of the Company secured by the Security Instrument (as defined below) remain outstanding, the Sole Member shall refrain from lending money to the Company and the Company shall refrain from accepting any loans from its members unless the Lender (as defined below) shall have provided its express written consent with respect thereto.

3.10 Books and Accounts.

The Company may make distributions at such times and in such amounts as determined by the Manager. No distribution shall be declared and paid unless, after the distribution is made, the assets of the Company are in excess of all liabilities of the Company.

ARTICLE VI
DISPOSITION OF SOLE MEMBERSHIP INTEREST AND ADMISSION OF ASSIGNEES AND ADDITIONAL MEMBERS

6.1 Disposition. The Sole Member's Membership Interest is transferable either voluntarily or by operation of law. The Sole Member, at the Sole Member's discretion, may transfer, gift, pledge or otherwise dispose of all or a portion of the Sole Member's Membership Interest. Upon the disposition of a portion of the Sole Member's Membership Interest, the transferee shall be admitted as a substitute member as to the transferred interest upon the completion of the transfer without further action, unless otherwise agreed. Immediately following the disposition of the Sole Member's entire Membership Interest (other than a temporary transfer or transfer as a pledge or security interest), the Sole Member shall cease to be a member of the Company and shall have no further rights or obligations under this Agreement, except that the Sole Member shall have the right to such information as may be necessary for the computation of the Sole Member's tax liability.

6.2 Admission of Additional Members. The Sole Member may, in the Sole Member's discretion, admit additional members and determine the capital contributions and the ownership interest of such additional members; provided, however, this Agreement shall be amended and restated to reflect the new and additional terms approved by the Sole Member as a condition to the admission of the additional member.

6.3 Limitations on Dispositions and Admissions of Additional Members. Notwithstanding the foregoing Sections of this Article VI, for so long as any obligations of the Company secured by the Security Instrument remain outstanding, the Sole Member shall refrain from transferring, gifting, pledging or otherwise disposing of its Membership Interest in the Company (including, without limitation, admitting an additional member) if such transfer, gift, pledge or disposition would violate the restrictions relating thereto set forth in the Loan Agreement (as defined below) unless the Lender shall have provided its express written consent with respect thereto.

ARTICLE VII
DISSOLUTION AND WINDING-UP

7.1 Dissolution. The Company shall be dissolved and its affairs wound up upon the consent of the Sole Member or at such time as the Company has no members (unless the Company is continued without dissolution as permitted under Section 57D-6-01 of the LLC Law). Notwithstanding any provision of the LLC Law to the contrary, and except as otherwise provided in the immediately preceding sentence, the Company shall continue and not dissolve as a result of the expulsion, bankruptcy, or dissolution of any member.

7.2 Effect of Dissolution. Upon dissolution, the Company shall cease carrying on, as distinguished from the winding up of, the Company business, but the Company shall not be terminated in such event, but rather shall continue until the winding up of the affairs of the Company is completed and the articles of dissolution have been filed with the Secretary of State of the State of North Carolina.

7.3 Distribution of Assets on Dissolution. Upon the winding up of the Company, the Company's assets shall be distributed as follows:

(a) to creditors, including the Sole Member if the Sole Member is a creditor, to the extent permitted by law, in satisfaction of Company liabilities; and

(b) to the Sole Member.

Such distributions shall be in cash, property other than cash, or partly in both, as determined by the Sole Member.

7.4 Winding Up and Articles of Dissolution. The winding up of the Company shall be completed when all debts, liabilities, and obligations of the Company have been paid and discharged or reasonably adequate provision therefor has been made, and all of the remaining property and assets of the Company have been distributed to the Sole Member. Upon the completion of winding up of the Company, the Sole Member or other person designated by the Sole Member shall deliver articles of dissolution to the Secretary of State of the State of North Carolina for filing. The articles of dissolution shall set forth the information required by the LLC Law.

ARTICLE VIII
SPE PROVISIONS

8.1 Scope and Applicability of Article. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the SPE Provisions in this Article VIII shall be effective as of the date hereof and shall continue for so long as any obligations of the Company secured by the Security Instrument remain outstanding. In the event of any conflict between any other provisions of this Agreement and this Article VIII, this Article VIII shall govern and control.

8.2 Powers and Duties. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement and so long as any obligations of the Company secured by the Security Instrument remain outstanding and not discharged in full, without the consent of the Sole Member, the Manager shall not have any authority to:

(a) cause the Company to engage in any business or activity other than those set forth in Article II;

(b) borrow money or incur indebtedness on behalf of the Company other than normal trade accounts payable and lease obligations in the normal course of business (subject to the limitations contained in the Loan Agreement), or grant consensual liens on the Company's property; except that the Manager is hereby authorized to obtain financing for the Company (the "Loan") as evidenced by a Promissory Note entered by the Company and those certain affiliates of the Company entering into such Promissory Note as co-borrowers thereunder (such affiliates, the "Co-Borrowers") and made payable to Rialto Mortgage Finance, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (together with its successors and assigns, "Lender") and a Loan Agreement entered by the Company, the Co-Borrowers and Lender (the "Loan Agreement") and secured by the lien on the Property evidenced by a Deed of Trust, Security Agreement, Fixture Filing and Financing Statement filed in the official public records of Forsyth County, North Carolina for the benefit of Lender (the "Security Instrument"), and to obtain such other indebtedness expressly permitted therein or in the Loan Agreement;

(c) dissolve, wind-up or liquidate the Company;

(d) sell or lease, or otherwise dispose of, all or substantially all of the assets of the Company;

(e) file a voluntary petition or otherwise initiate proceedings to have the Company adjudicated bankrupt or insolvent, or consent to the institution of bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings against the Company, or file a petition seeking or consenting to reorganization or relief of the Company as debtor under any applicable federal or state law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, or other relief for debtors with respect to the Company; or seek or consent to the appointment of any trustee, receiver, conservator, assignee, sequestrator, custodian, liquidator (or other similar official) of the Company or of all or any substantial part of the properties and assets of the Company, or make any general assignment for the benefit of creditors of the Company, or admit in writing the inability of the Company to pay its debts

generally as they become due or declare or effect a moratorium on the Company debt or take any action in furtherance of any such action;

(f) amend, modify or alter this Article VIII; or

(g) cause the Company to merge, combine or consolidate with any other entity.

Notwithstanding the foregoing and so long as any obligation of the Company secured by the Security Instrument remains outstanding and not discharged in full, neither the Sole Member nor the Manager shall have any authority to take any action in clauses (a) through (d), (f) or (g) without (1) the prior written consent of the holder of the Security Instrument and (2) after any Securitization (as defined in the Loan Agreement) and if requested by the holder of the Security Instrument, confirmation from each of the Rating Agencies (as defined in the Loan Agreement) that such action will not result in the qualification, withdrawal or downgrade of any securities rating assigned in connection with the Loan.

8.3 Title to Company Property. All property owned by the Company shall be owned by the Company as an entity and, insofar as permitted by applicable law, the Sole Member shall not have any ownership interest in any Company property in its individual name or right, and each member's Membership Interest shall be personal property for all purposes.

8.4 Separateness / Operations Matters. So long as any obligation of the Company secured by the Security Instrument remains outstanding and not discharged in full, the Company shall:

(a) maintain books and records and bank accounts separate from those of any other person;

(b) maintain its assets in such a manner that it is not costly or difficult to segregate, identify or ascertain such assets;

(c) observe all customary limited liability company organizational and operational formalities;

(d) hold itself out to creditors and the public as a legal entity separate and distinct from any other entity;

(e) prepare separate tax returns (to the extent the Company is required to file any tax returns) and financial statements, or if part of a consolidated group, then it will be shown as a separate member of such group;

(f) allocate and charge fairly and reasonably any common employee or overhead shared with affiliates;

(g) transact all business with affiliates on an arm's-length basis and pursuant to enforceable agreements;

(h) conduct business in its own name, and use separate stationery, invoices and checks;

(i) not commingle its assets or funds with those of any other person;

(j) except with respect to the Co-Borrowers in connection with the Loan, not assume, guarantee or pay the debts or obligations of any other person;

(k) pay its own liabilities out of its own funds;

(l) pay the salaries of its own employees and maintain a sufficient number of employees in light of its contemplated business operations;

(m) except with respect to the Co-Borrowers in connection with the Loan, not hold out its credit as being available to satisfy the obligations of others;

(n) not acquire obligations or securities of its partners, members or shareholders;

(o) except with respect to the Co-Borrowers in connection with the Loan, not pledge its assets for the benefit of any other entity or make any loans or advances to any entity;

(p) correct any known misunderstanding regarding its separate identity; and

(q) intend to remain solvent and maintain adequate capital in light of its contemplated business operations.

8.5 Effect of Bankruptcy, Death or Incompetency of a Member.

(a) The bankruptcy, death, dissolution, liquidation, termination or adjudication of incompetency of the Sole Member shall not cause the termination or dissolution of the Company and the business of the Company shall continue. Upon any such occurrence, the trustee, receiver, executor, administrator, committee, guardian or conservator of the Sole Member (an "assignee") shall have all the rights of the Sole Member for the purpose of settling or managing its estate or property, subject to satisfying conditions precedent to the admission of such assignee as a substitute member. The transfer by such trustee, receiver, executor, administrator, committee, guardian or conservator of any Membership Interest shall be subject to all of the restrictions, hereunder to which such transfer would have been subject if such transfer had been made by such bankrupt, deceased, dissolved, liquidated, terminated or incompetent Sole Member.

(b) The Sole Member waives any right it might have to agree in writing to dissolve the Company upon the bankruptcy of the Sole Member or any other member, or the occurrence of an event that causes the Sole Member or any other member to cease to be a member of the Company.

8.6 Subordination of Indemnities. All indemnification obligations of the Company are fully subordinated to the obligations of the Company to Lender in connection with the Loan and such indemnification obligations shall in no event constitute a claim against the Company if cash flow in excess of amounts necessary to pay obligations under the Loan is insufficient to pay such indemnification obligations.

8.7 Lender is Third Party Beneficiary. Lender is intended to be a third-party beneficiary of this Article VIII.

ARTICLE IX

WE ASSIGNED YOU AN EMPLOYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER

Thank you for applying for an Employer Identification Number (EIN). We assigned you EIN 35-2627441. This EIN will identify you, your business accounts, tax returns, and documents, even if you have no employees. Please keep this notice in your permanent records.

When filing tax documents, payments, and related correspondence, it is very important that you use your EIN and complete name and address exactly as shown above. Any variation may cause a delay in processing, result in incorrect information in your account, or even cause you to be assigned more than one EIN. If the information is not correct as shown above, please make the correction using the attached tear-off stub and return it to us.

A limited liability company (LLC) may file Form 8832, Entity Classification Election, and elect to be classified as an association taxable as a corporation. If the LLC is eligible to be treated as a corporation that meets certain tests and it will be electing S corporation status, it must timely file Form 2553, Election by a Small Business Corporation. The LLC will be treated as a corporation as of the effective date of the S corporation election and does not need to file Form 8832.

IMPORTANT REMINDERS:

* Keep a copy of this notice in your permanent records. This notice is issued only one time and IRS will not be able to generate a duplicate copy for you. You may give a copy of this document to anyone asking for proof of your EIN.
* Use this EIN and your name exactly as they appear at the top of this notice on all your federal tax forms.
* Refer to this EIN on your tax-related correspondence and documents.
* Provide future officers of your organization with a copy of this notice.

Your name control associated with this EIN is LAMB. You will need to provide this information, along with your EIN, if you file your returns electronically.

If you have questions about your EIN, you can contact us at the phone number or address listed at the top of this notice. If you write, please tear off the stub at the bottom of this notice and include it with your letter. Thank you for your cooperation.
