ARTICLE III

MEMBERS; PROJECTED FUNDING AMOUNTS; CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS; UNITS CAPITAL ACCOUNTS; REVALUATIONS

3.01. Members; Projected Funding Amounts; Capital Contributions.

(a) The Members are listed on Exhibit A hereto, each of which has executed this Agreement as of the Effective Date and is hereby admitted to the Company as a Member. As of the Effective Date, each Member (other than MIP LLC) (i) is making a Capital Contribution in the amount set forth opposite such Member's name on Exhibit A, and (ii) is issued the number of Common Units set forth opposite such Member's name on Exhibit A. The address of each Member and MIP LLC is also set forth on Exhibit A.

(b) Exhibit A shall be revised from time to time by the Board of Managers to reflect the following, after the occurrence thereof: (i) any issuance, repurchase or Transfer of Units approved by the Board of Managers in accordance with this Agreement; (ii) any change to the Capital Contributions of a Member; (iii) the conversion of any Units, if applicable; or (iv) any change of address of a Member, except that Exhibit A will not be revised if any of the actions described in clauses (i)-(iii) above was taken in breach of the terms of this Agreement.

3.02. Units.

(a) Issuance and Creation of Units.

(i) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, the Company is authorized to issue Membership Interests designated as "Units," which shall constitute limited liability company interests under the Act. The Units initially shall consist of two (2) classes, Common Units and Class P Units, and shall have the rights, preferences, privileges, limitations, restrictions and/or obligations as set forth herein. The references to Units shall be deemed to include fractional Units.

(ii) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, the Board of Managers is authorized to create and issue new Units or other Securities, which may have rights, preferences, privileges, limitations, restrictions and/or obligations that are junior to, pari passu with or senior to any other class or series of Units or other Securities. To the fullest extent permitted by the Act, but subject to the terms of this Agreement, including Section 6.03, the Company may issue Units or other Securities from time to time in one or more classes, or one or more series of such classes, which classes or series (or the holders thereof) shall have, subject to the provisions of Applicable

Law, such rights, preferences, privileges, limitations, restrictions and/or obligations as shall be fixed by the Board of Managers, including with respect to:

(A) the allocation of items of profit or loss to each class or series;

(B) the right of each class or series to share in distributions;

(C) maintaining separate and distinct records for each class or series;

(D) allocating specific assets, liabilities, debts, obligations and expenses to each class or series;

(E) the rights of each class or series upon dissolution and liquidation of the Company;

(F) the price at which, and the terms and conditions upon which, each class or series may be redeemed by the Company, if any class or series is so redeemable;

(G) the rate at which, and the terms and conditions upon which, each class or series may be converted into or exercised or exchanged for another class or series of Units or other Securities if any class or series is so convertible, exercisable or exchangeable;

(H) the right of the owners of each class or series to information about the Company, including limitations of the rights in Section 18-305 of the Act; and

(I) the right of each class or series to vote on Company matters, including matters relating to the rights, preferences, privileges, limitations, restrictions and/or obligations of such class or series, if any such class or series (or any holders thereof) is granted any voting rights.

In creating a class or series of Units, the Board of Managers may grant rights, preferences and privileges solely with respect to that class or series, and not others, and may also impose limitations, restrictions and/or obligations with respect that class or series that are different from those with respect to any other class or series.

(b) Certificates for Units; UCC Opt-In. The Company is hereby authorized (but is not obligated, unless so determined by the Board of Managers) to issue certificates representing the ownership of Units in accordance with the Act. Pursuant to the Delaware Uniform Commercial Code Section 8-103(c), all Units shall be considered securities governed by Article 8 of the Delaware Uniform Commercial Code.

(c) MIP LLC.

(i) Parakeet MIP, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "MIP LLC"): (x) was organized as a limited liability company pursuant to the Act on or about

August 30, 2021; (y) is authorized to issue executives, key employees, consultants and independent contractors of the Company, or other Persons providing services to, or for the benefit of, the Company or its Subsidiaries or Affiliates, units of interest in MIP LLC (such units referred to as "MIP LLC Units," and each person receiving MIP LLC Units, a "Management Participant" and collectively, the "Management Participants"); and (z) will be governed by a limited liability company agreement (as in effect from time to time, the "MIP LLC Agreement"). which will set forth the entitlements of the holders of the MIP LLC Units.

(ii) The MIP LLC Units will entitle the holders thereof to receive distributions from the MIP LLC in the amounts set forth in the MIP LLC Agreement, but only to the extent provided therein and subject to such holder's Separate Agreement.

(iii) Simultaneously with each issuance by the MIP LLC of MIP LLC Units to Management Participants, the Company shall issue a corresponding number of Class P Units to the MIP LLC, which Class P Units shall entitle the MIP LLC to receive distributions from the Company of the amounts payable in respect of the corresponding MIP LLC Units in accordance with the MIP LLC Agreement. Simultaneously with the forfeiture, redemption and/or cancellation of any MIP LLC Unit in accordance with the terms of the MIP LLC Agreement or any Separate Agreement, or in accordance with Section 5.06 hereof, the Class P Unit corresponding to such forfeited, redeemed and/or cancelled MIP LLC Unit shall automatically, without further action, notice or deed, be forfeited, redeemed and/or cancelled. As of the Effective Date, MIP LLC has been issued the number of Class P Units set forth opposite its name on Exhibit A.

(iv) At such time that MIP LLC Units are issued to a new or existing Management Participant, the Board of Managers shall determine in good faith the Class P Distribution Threshold thereof; provided that such Class P Distribution Threshold shall be set at a level that allows the Class P Units to qualify as Profits Interests (as defined below). The Class P Distribution Threshold for MIP LLC Units issued on or about the Effective Date shall be equal to the aggregate Capital Contributions made on the Effective Date. MIP LLC Units shall be subject to vesting and certain other conditions and distribution limitations (including the applicable Class P Distribution Threshold), as determined by the Board of Managers upon the award of MIP LLC Units to a Management Participant, as set forth in the Separate Agreement applicable to such MIP LLC Units. Class P Units shall be subject to the same vesting and other conditions and distribution limitations as those to which their respective corresponding MIP LLC Units are subject so that a distribution to the MIP LLC in respect of such Class P Units shall not exceed the aggregate amount distributable by the MIP LLC to the Management Participants in connection with such distribution to the Members pursuant to Article V.

(v) The MIP LLC shall have no right to vote, consent to or approve of, any matters under this Agreement or Applicable Law.

(d) Profits Interests. It is the intention of the parties to this Agreement that the Class P Units qualify as "profits interests," as defined in Revenue Procedure 93-27, 1993-2 C.B. 343, as clarified by Revenue Procedure 2001-43, 2001-2 C.B. 191 ("Profits Interests"), and the Company and the Members shall comply with the provisions of Revenue Procedure 93-27 and Revenue Procedure 2001-43 relating to qualification of the Class P Units as "profits interests" eligible for the favorable tax treatment described in such Revenue Procedures. To that end, the Company and each Member agree that it is the intention of the Members that allocations and distributions to each holder of Class P Units be limited to the extent necessary so that such Class P Units qualify as profits interests, and this Agreement should be interpreted consistently therewith. The Members agree that, with respect to each Class P Unit, the Board of Managers shall take such action as it deems necessary to enable the Company to comply with the requirements of the "Safe Harbor" election within the meaning of the Proposed Revenue Procedure of Notice 2005-43, 2005-1 C.B. 1221, Proposed Regulations Section 1.83-3(l)(1) or Proposed Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(4)(xii) at such time as such proposed Procedure and Regulations are effective and to take such actions as may be required by pronouncements or Regulations issued by the Internal Revenue Service or Treasury Department after the Effective Date to enable each Class P Unit to continue to be treated as a "profits interest".

3.03. Power of Members; Voting Rights.

(a) Subject to the express provisions of this Agreement and except as required by any of the non-waivable provisions of the Act, the Members shall have no power to exercise any voting rights except for those specifically granted to such Members pursuant to the express terms of this Agreement (including the right to designate Managers to the Board of Managers pursuant to Section 6.01(a)), and shall have no independent power to bind the Company.

(b) In exercising any of their powers expressly set forth in this Agreement or in any non-waivable provisions of the Act, the Members shall act by the voting of their respective Units at meetings or by written consents and shall otherwise exercise the rights and comply with the obligations of Members as set forth herein. In exercising any of their powers expressly set forth in this Agreement, each Common Member shall have one vote per Common Unit held by such Common Member on the applicable voting date. The Class P Units shall be non-voting, and MIP LLC, solely in its capacity as such, shall have no voting rights (whatsoever) and no separate class voting rights.

3.04. Capital Calls; Additional Capital Contributions; Commitment Default.

(a) Capital Calls; Additional Capital Contributions. At any time and from time to time after the Effective Date, the Board of Managers may require (or request, in the case of Section 3.04(a)(iv)) the Common Members to make additional Capital Contributions pursuant to this Section 3.04 as follows, in each case by causing the Company to issue a written notice to each Common Member (each, a "Capital Call Notice") not less than ten (10) Business Days prior to the date on which such additional Capital Contribution is required or requested to be made:

(i) in respect of the first twenty million ($20,000,000) of aggregate Capital Contributions required pursuant to this Section 3.04(a), the Parakeet Member's share of each such Capital Contribution shall be funded at ten percent (10%) of each such required additional Capital Contribution;

(ii) in respect of the next twenty million ($20,000,000) of aggregate

Capital Contributions required pursuant to this Section 3.04(a), the Parakeet Member's share of each such Capital Contribution shall be funded at not less than five percent (5%), and not more than its current pro rata share (based on the relative Percentage Interests of the Common Members as of such additional Capital Contribution) of each such required additional Capital Contribution;

(iii) in respect of the next forty million ($40,000,000) of aggregate Capital Contributions required pursuant to this Section 3.04(a), the Parakeet Member's share of each such Capital Contribution shall be funded at not less than two and a half percent (2.5%), and not more than its current pro rata share (based on the relative Percentage Interests of the Common Members as of such additional Capital Contribution) of each such required additional Capital Contribution; and

(iv) in respect of subsequent Capital Contributions (in excess of eighty million ($80,000,000) up to two hundred million ($200,000,000)) requested pursuant to this Section 3.04(a), no Common Member will be obligated to make any additional Capital Contributions pursuant to this Section 3.04(a), but each such Common Member shall have the right to make their pro rata share (based on the relative Percentage Interests of the Common Members as of such additional Capital Contribution) of such Capital Contribution on or before the date set forth in the applicable Capital Call Notice.

The Parakeet Member's election pursuant to the foregoing clauses (ii) and (iii) of this Section 3.04(a) must made in writing at least ten (10) Business Days prior to the date on which such additional Capital Contribution is to be made and, in the event no such election is timely made, shall be deemed to be an election of five percent (5%) in the case of clause (ii), and two and a half percent (2.5%) in the case of clause (iii).

Each Common Member shall remit to the Company by wire transfer to an account designated by the Company the amount specified in such Capital Call Notice on or before the due date specified therein. Each Capital Call Notice shall specify the aggregate amount then being called for by the Company and the percentage range thereof which may be contributed by the Parakeet Member. In connection with each Capital Contribution made by a Member pursuant to this Section 3.04(a), upon receipt of such Capital Contribution from such Member, the Company shall issue to such Member such number of Common Units equal to the dollar amount (or fraction thereof) of such Capital Contribution until $200 million of Capital Contributions have been made by the Investor Members, or at such other valuation as determined by the Board of Managers from time to time; provided however, that at each issuance, all Common Units related to such issuance shall be issued at the same value.

(b) Default.

(i) The failure of a Common Member to make a Capital Contribution when due and required pursuant to Section 3.04(a)(i) through (a)(iii), will, unless in each case waived by the Board of Managers or cured within five (5) Business Days of such failure, be a "Commitment Default" and such Member may be designated by the Board of Managers as being in default (a "Defaulting Member"). For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Non-Defaulting Member" shall mean each Common Member that is not a Defaulting Member.

(ii) Upon any Commitment Default, the amount of such Commitment Default shall accrue interest on the outstanding unpaid balance thereof (the "Commitment Default Amount"), from and including the date of the Commitment Default until the date of payment to the Company of such amount, at a rate equal to the lesser of (x) twenty percent (20%) per annum and (y) the maximum rate permitted by Applicable Law. Additionally, the Board of Managers, in its sole and absolute discretion, may exercise one or more of the following remedies:

(A) cause all or any portion of any future distributions under ARTICLE V to the Defaulting Member to be credited first to interest accruing on such Commitment Default Amount, and second, against the Commitment Default Amount, or to repay any loans described in clause (B) below;

(B) accept one or more loans from one or more of the Non-Defaulting Members or third parties up to the Commitment Default Amount, which loans shall be payable upon demand, bear interest not to exceed the lesser of (x) twenty percent (20%) per annum and (y) the maximum rate permitted by Applicable Law, and have such other terms as may be determined by the Board of Managers in its sole and absolute discretion (with the Defaulting Member or its designees recused from such discussions, determination and corresponding vote);

(C) except in the case of the first Commitment Default by a Common Member, cause the Defaulting Member to sell its Common Units to the Non-Defaulting Member(s) at seventy-five percent (75%) of Fair Market Value; the proceeds of such sale(s) to be credited first to interest accruing on such Commitment Default Amount, second, against the Commitment Default Amount, or to repay any loans described in clause (B) above, and third to the Defaulting Member.

(iii) A Defaulting Member (directly and with respect to any of its and its Affiliates' designees on the Board of Managers) shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, forfeit any and all rights to vote its Units, give its consent, exercise any rights under Section 3.05(b), or make any decision (including decisions of the Board of Managers) required or permitted under this Agreement or the Act, and such Defaulting Member's Units shall not be included when calculating any requisite vote or approval thresholds. The Defaulting Member shall continue to share in the expenses and losses of the Company and remain obligated to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement and as required by the Board of Managers, unless the Board of Managers elects to reduce or terminate such Defaulting Member's obligations to the Company. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, if the Defaulting Member indefeasibly pays in full the Commitment Default Amount or repays any of the loans described in clause (B) above, together with all accrued and unpaid interest thereon, then upon such payment (if such payment is made or satisfied within ninety (90) days of the Commitment Default or upon the determination by the Board of Managers in its sole and absolute discretion (if such payment is made after ninety (90) days of the Commitment Default), such Member shall cease to be a Defaulting Member, and the restrictions placed on such Member as a Defaulting Member and the rights granted to the Non-Defaulting Members, in each case, pursuant to this Section 3.04(b), shall automatically terminate.

(iv) In addition to its other rights, the Board of Managers shall have the right to take any or all of the following actions in order to cover shortfalls arising from the Commitment Default of a Member: (i) require Non-Defaulting Members to make additional Capital Contributions in an aggregate amount equal to the shortfall created by such Commitment Default on such terms as the Board of Managers shall determine in its sole and absolute discretion (provided that under no circumstance shall a Member be required to fund any amount to the extent it exceeds such Member's remaining Projected Funding Amounts at such time); (ii) give the opportunity to all Non-Defaulting Members to fund such shortfall outside of their obligations on such terms as the Board of Managers shall determine in its sole and absolute discretion; (iii) obtain a loan from any Non-Defaulting Member, an affiliate of the Board of Managers or a third party; or (iv) admit one or more substitute Members. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Board of Managers shall have the power to amend this Agreement in order to implement the Capital Contributions made pursuant to this Section 3.04(b)(iv).

(v) The rights and remedies of the Board of Managers in this Section 3.04(b) are in addition to and not in limitation of any other rights available to the Board of Managers or the Company pursuant to this Agreement or at law or in equity. A Commitment Default by any Member in respect of any Capital Contribution shall not relieve any other Member of its obligation to make Capital Contributions. In no event shall the Board of Managers be liable to the Company or any Member for any exercise, or any omission to exercise, in whole or in part, any of the remedies described above with respect to any Commitment Default or with respect to any Member. The Members hereby agree not to seek to prevent exercise of any rights pursuant to this Section 3.04(b) by any proceeding at law or in equity.

(c) No Additional Capital Contributions. No Capital Contribution shall be made except pursuant to this Section 3.04 or as otherwise approved by the Board of Managers (subject to Section 3.05 hereof).

3.05. Additional Members; New Equity Offering.

(a) No Person shall be admitted to the Company as an additional Member without the approval of the Board of Managers, which consent may be granted or withheld in the sole and absolute discretion of the Board of Managers.

(b) If at any time or times the Board of Managers determines that it is necessary to raise additional funds through the issuance of additional Units or other Securities other than Exempted Securities Issuances (collectively, the "New Securities"), then each of the Common Members shall have the right, but not the obligation, to purchase, all or a portion of such Member's pro rata share (based on the relative Percentage Interests of the Common Members as of such additional raising of funds) of the New Securities, all on the terms and pursuant to the procedures approved by the Board of Managers for such New Security issuance from time to time. If the Common Members do not fund the entirety of such additional fund raise, then the Board of Managers may seek to raise such additional funds from third parties on such terms as are determined by the Board of Managers, provided, that, if the terms accepted by one or more third parties are more favorable in the aggregate than those offered to the Common Members, the Common Members shall once again have the right to purchase their pro rata portion under this Section 3.05(b) on such reasonable procedures determined by the Board of Managers, and provided further, that the Board of Managers will not increase the number of Class P Units above 1,000,000 without the consent of Austin Berk and Jonathan Wyss, so long as each of them holds Vested Management LLC Units (as defined in the MIP LLC Agreement).

3.06. Return of Capital Contributions; Special Rules.

Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, including Section 5.02, (i) no Member shall be entitled to the return of any part of its Capital Contribution or to be paid interest in respect of either its Capital Account balance or its Capital Contribution; (ii) no Member shall have any personal liability for the return of the Capital Contribution of any other Member; (iii) no Member shall have any priority over any other Member with respect to the return of any Capital Contribution (except to the extent that such Member's priority is due to ownership of different classes or types of Securities in relation to another Member); and (iv) MIP LLC shall not be entitled to assert any claim of mismanagement or any other claim with respect to the manner of the conduct of business of the Company against any Manager, any other Member or the Company.

3.07. Capital Accounts.

A Capital Account shall be established and maintained for each Member. The capital accounts of the Members, as updated from time to time, shall be set forth in the books and records of the Company. Capital Accounts shall be debited and credited in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) To each Member's Capital Account, there shall be credited such Member's Capital Contributions, such Member's distributive share of Profits, and any items in the nature of income or gain that are specially allocated pursuant to this Agreement, and the amount of any liabilities of the Company that are assumed by such Member, or that are secured by any assets of the Company distributed to such Member.

(b) To each Member's Capital Account, there shall be debited the amount of cash and the Gross Asset Value of any Company assets distributed to such Member pursuant to any provision of this Agreement, such Member's distributive share of Losses, and any items in the nature of expenses or losses that are specially allocated pursuant to this Agreement, and the amount of any liabilities of such Member assumed by the Company or that are secured by any property contributed by such Member to the Company.

(c) If ownership of any Membership Interest in the Company is assigned in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the assignee shall succeed to the Capital Account of the assignor to the extent it relates to the assigned Membership Interest.

(d) In determining the amount of any liability for purposes of Sections 3.07(a) and (b) above, there shall be taken into account Code Section 752(c) and any other applicable provisions of the Code and Regulations.

(e) To each Member's Capital Account, there shall be debited or credited, as the case may be, such adjustments as are necessary to reflect a revaluation of Company assets to reflect the Gross Asset Value of all Company assets, as required by Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(f) and Section 3.08.

The foregoing provisions and the other provisions of this Agreement relating to the maintenance of Capital Accounts are intended to comply with Code Section 704 and Regulations Section 1.704-1(b) and shall be interpreted and applied in a manner consistent with such Regulations. The Company shall make any adjustments that are necessary or appropriate to maintain equality between the Capital Accounts of the Members and the amount of Company capital reflected on the Company's balance sheet as computed for book purposes in accordance with Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(q).

3.08. Gross Asset Value.

The Gross Asset Value of any asset of the Company shall be equal to the asset's adjusted basis for federal income tax purposes, except as follows:

(a) The initial Gross Asset Value of any asset contributed by a Member to the Company shall be the gross Fair Market Value of such asset.

(b) The Gross Asset Values of all Company assets shall be adjusted to equal their respective gross Fair Market Values in connection with (and to be effective immediately prior to) the following events: (i) the acquisition of an additional Membership Interest in the Company by any new or existing Member in exchange for more than a de minimis Capital Contribution; (ii) the distribution by the Company to a Member of more than a de minimis amount of property (including cash) as consideration for an interest in the Company; (iii) the grant of an interest in the Company (other than a de minimis interest) as consideration for the provision of services to or for the benefit of the Company by an existing Member acting in the capacity of a Member or by a new Member acting in the capacity of a Member or in anticipation of being a Member; (iv) the liquidation of the Company within the meaning of Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(g); or (v) any other time, in the reasonable, good faith discretion of the Board of Managers, for which an adjustment would be necessary or appropriate to reflect the relative economic interests of the Members in the Company; provided, however, that an adjustment pursuant to clauses (i), (ii), or (iii) above shall be made only if such adjustment is necessary or appropriate to reflect the relative economic interests of the Members in the Company.

(c) The Gross Asset Value of any Company asset distributed to any Member shall be the gross Fair Market Value of such asset on the date of distribution.

(d) The Gross Asset Values of Company assets shall be increased (or decreased) to reflect any adjustments to the adjusted bases of such assets pursuant to Code Section 734(b) or Code Section 743(b), but only to the extent that such adjustments are taken into account in determining Capital Accounts pursuant to Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m) and Section 10.01 hereof; provided, however, that Gross Asset Values shall not be adjusted pursuant to this Subsection to the extent they were adjusted pursuant to Section 3.08(b) above in connection with a transaction that otherwise would result in an adjustment pursuant to this Subsection.

(e) If the Gross Asset Value of an asset has been determined or adjusted pursuant to this Section 3.08, such Gross Asset Value shall thereafter be adjusted by the Depreciation taken into account with respect to such asset for purposes of computing Profits and Losses.

ARTICLE IV

ALLOCATION OF PROFITS AND LOSSES

4.01. Profits and Losses.

After giving effect to the special allocations set forth in Section 10.01 and subject to the other provisions of Article X, Profits or Losses for any Accounting Period shall be allocated among the Members in such a manner that, as of the end of such Accounting Period, with respect to each Member, the sum of (i) the Capital Account of such Member, (ii) such Member's share of Company Minimum Gain and (iii) such Member's Member Nonrecourse Debt Minimum Gain shall, as nearly as possible, be equal to the net amount, positive or negative, that would be distributed to such Member or for which such Member would be liable to the Company under this Agreement, determined as if the Company were to, on the last day of the Accounting Period, (i) sell all of the assets of the Company for an amount equal to their respective Gross Asset Values, (ii) satisfy all debts in accordance with their terms (limited, with respect to each nonrecourse liability, to the Gross Asset Value of the assets securing such liability), and (iii) distribute the remaining proceeds of such sale in liquidation pursuant to Section 5.02(a), all of the foregoing computed after all actual distributions or Capital Contributions have been made for such Accounting Period.

ARTICLE V

DISTRIBUTIONS

5.01. General.

Subject to Applicable Law and the terms of any loan or credit agreement to which the Company or any Subsidiary thereof is a party, distributions shall be made to the Members at the times determined by the Board of Managers, except that Tax Distribution Amounts shall be distributed to the Members in accordance with and subject to Section 5.04.

5.02. Distributions.

(a) Distributions made to the Members pursuant to Section 5.01 shall be made in the amounts and in the priorities set forth below:

(i) first, until the Unreturned Contribution Amount for all then outstanding Common Units is reduced to zero, the amount then available for distribution to the Common Members in respect of their Common Units, pro rata based on their respective Percentage Interests in effect at the time at which the distribution is made;

(ii) second, to the Common Members in respect of their Common Units, pro rata based on their respective Percentage Interests in effect at the time at which the distribution is made, until the Investor Member has achieved, subject to Section 13.15, an Internal Rate of Return of nine percent (9%);

(iii) third, pari passu, with respect to the amount then available for distribution: (i) eighty percent (80%) to the Common Members in respect of their Common Units, pro rata based on their respective Percentage Interests in effect at the time at which the distribution is made; and (ii) twenty percent (20%) to MIP LLC in respect of its Class P Units, until the Investor Member has achieved both (x) an Internal Rate of Return of fourteen percent (14%) or greater and (y) a MOPIC of 1.5x or greater;

(iv) fourth, pari passu, with respect to the amount then available for distribution: (i) seventy five percent (75%) to the Common Members in respect of their Common Units, pro rata based on their respective Percentage Interests in effect at the time at which the distribution is made; and (ii) twenty five percent (25%) to MIP LLC in respect of its Class P Units, until the Investor Member has achieved both (x) an Internal Rate of Return of eighteen percent (18%) or greater and (y) a MOPIC of 1.7x or greater;

(v) fifth, pari passu, with respect to the amount then available for distribution: (i) seventy percent (70%) to the Common Members in respect of their Common Units, pro rata based on their respective Percentage Interests in effect at the time at which the distribution is made; and (ii) thirty percent (30%) to MIP LLC in respect of its Class P Units, until the Investor Member has achieved both (x) an Internal Rate of Return of twenty five percent (25%) or greater and (y) a MOPIC of 2.0x or greater; and

(vi) thereafter, pari passu, with respect to the amount then available for distribution: (i) sixty percent (60%) to the Common Members in respect of their Common Units, pro rata based on their respective Percentage Interests in effect at the time at which the distribution is made; and (ii) forty percent (40%) to MIP LLC in respect of its Class P Units.

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, no distributions shall be made in respect of a Class P Unit under Section 5.02(a) until there shall have been distributions under Section 5.02(a) subsequent to the issuance of such Class P Unit (or, if there has been a Crystallization Event, instead subsequent to such Crystallization Event) in an aggregate amount equal to the applicable Class P Distribution Threshold with respect to such Class P Unit (the "Distribution Threshold Condition"); and any and all distributions to MIP LLC shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the MIP LLC Agreement and the relevant Separate Agreements (including any "catch-up" feature in such Separate Agreements), with the relevant Separate Agreement controlling in the event of conflict between the three; provided that to the extent this Agreement expressly authorizes different treatment under a Separate Agreement then there shall be deemed to be no conflict between this Agreement and any such Separate Agreement so long as the Separate Agreement's terms are within the express grant of authority for additional or different terms in a Separate Agreement. In the event that any amount is not distributed in respect of any Class P Unit under Section 5.02(a) because the Distribution Threshold Condition with respect to such Class P Unit has not been satisfied, then the amount not so distributed shall be re-allocated ratably among, and distributed in respect of, the Class P Units for which the Distribution Threshold Condition has been satisfied.

5.03. Distributions Upon a Member Equity Sale.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, in any Sale of the Company, as a result of which the Members, rather than the Company, receive the proceeds of such Sale of the Company (each a "Member Equity Sale"), (a) subject to any holdback or reserve described in clause (b), the Members, as a group, hereby agree to apportion and, at the closing of any Member Equity Sale, pay over the proceeds among those Members participating in such Member Equity Sale so that the payments to each Member shall correspond to and be in accordance with the distribution provisions set forth in Section 5.02 as though the Company received the proceeds and distributed them in accordance with Section 5.02; and (b) Investor, or such other Person selected as the representative of the Members by the Board of Managers (the "Member Representative"), shall have the right to withhold and each of the Members agrees to contribute and pay over from its portion of the proceeds received or receivable by such Member, a portion of the proceeds payable in any such transaction equal to an amount necessary, as reasonably determined by the Board of Managers or Member Representative (as applicable), in good faith, to satisfy any post-transaction indemnification, purchase price adjustment or other similar escrow or holdback obligation, provided, however, that in no event shall a Member be obligated to make a contribution pursuant to the foregoing in excess of its pro rata portion of such proceeds. Any amount withheld pursuant to clause (b) shall be held in a separate account for the ratable benefit of the Members participating in the transaction giving rise to such proceeds, and may be used, as determined by the Board of Managers or Member Representative (as applicable), in good faith, to satisfy any such post-transaction obligation described in clause (b); provided, however, that in no event shall a Member be obligated to make a contribution pursuant to the foregoing in excess of its pro rata portion of such proceeds. The Company is hereby authorized to seek to include in any transaction documents governing such Member Equity Sale terms reflecting the provisions of this Section 5.03, including, if applicable, provisions providing that the Member Representative shall not have any liability with respect to amounts so withheld or paid, except for liability caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Member Representative.

5.04. Tax Distributions.

Unless otherwise determined by the Board of Managers, the Company shall, to the extent it has sufficient cash and at least five (5) days prior to the original due date for quarterly U.S. federal estimated tax payments, for each Fiscal Year, distribute to each Member the excess (such excess the "Tax Distribution Amount"), if any, of: (a) (i) the aggregate net taxable income (determined under U.S. federal income tax principles but regardless of whether such Member is subject to U.S. federal income taxes) of the Company allocable to such Member with respect to such Fiscal Year minus any taxable loss of the Company allocated to the Member pursuant to this Agreement in respect of any prior Fiscal Year and not previously taken into account under this Section 5.04 to the extent such loss would be available under the Code to offset income of the Member (or, as appropriate, the direct or indirect partners, members or shareholders of the Member) determined as if income and loss from the Company was the only income and loss of the Member (or, as appropriate, the direct or indirect partners, members or shareholders of the Member) in such Fiscal Year and all prior Fiscal Years, in each case determined under U.S. federal income tax principles, multiplied by (ii) the highest combined, marginal U.S. federal, state and local income tax rate to which an individual resident in New York City, New York is subject for such Fiscal Year (as adjusted, in the discretion of the Board of Managers, based on reasonable assumptions, to take into account Section 199A of the Code); over (b) the aggregate distributions previously made to such Member (x) under this Section 5.04 with respect to such Fiscal Year, or (y) otherwise pursuant this Article V during such Fiscal Year, as applicable. Distributions made to any Member under this Section 5.04 shall be treated as an advance against, and shall reduce, subsequent distributions to such Member under the other provisions of this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, neither gains realized by Members upon the sale or exchange of their interest in the Company nor guaranteed payments for services shall be treated as income allocable to a Member by the Company. Notwithstanding anything else contained herein, no such tax distribution shall be made, however, to the extent that such distributions are prohibited under Applicable Law or the terms of any note or loan or credit agreement to which the Company, or a Subsidiary thereof, is a party.

5.05. Withholding.

Each Member hereby authorizes the Company to withhold and to pay over any taxes payable by the Company as a result of such Member's participation in the Company. If and to the extent that the Company shall be required to withhold any such taxes, such Member shall be deemed for all purposes of this Agreement to have received a distribution from the Company equal to the amount withheld. To the extent that the aggregate amount withheld on behalf of a Member for any period exceeds the distribution to which such Member is entitled for such period, the amount of such excess shall be considered a demand loan from the Company to such Member with interest at 10% per annum accruing from the date of payment by the Company until discharged by such Member by repayment. Each Member hereby severally indemnifies and holds the Company and the Board of Managers harmless for such Member's respective portion of the financial burden of any amount of taxes imposed on the Company and any amount withheld from a payment to the Company, on account of a Member's participation in the Company (including interest and penalties) and, in furtherance thereof, each Member agrees (A) to pay such amount to the Company within fifteen (15) days following the Company's request for payment and (B) that any amounts otherwise distributable to such Member may be applied in satisfaction of such obligations, in each case, as determined by the Board of Managers in its sole reasonable discretion.

5.06. Class P Crystallization Event.

(a) If a Sale of the Company or a Liquidation Event has not been consummated or occurred prior to either or both of: (i) the fifth (5th) anniversary of the Effective Date and (ii) the tenth (10th) anniversary of the Effective Date, respectively, then in each case, the Parakeet Member may upon written notice to the Board of Managers given not more than three hundred sixty-five (365) days and not less than one hundred eighty (180) days prior to such applicable anniversary of the Effective Date (a "Crystallization Notice"), trigger an interim crystallization event with respect to the Class P Units in accordance with this Section 5.06 (a "Crystallization Event").

(b) Upon timely receipt of a Crystallization Notice properly given in accordance with Section 5.06(a), the Board of Managers will, at the Company's expense, select and engage a nationally recognized, independent appraisal firm, with experience valuing assets of a like type and kind as the Company and its Subsidiaries, which appraisal firm will determine the "Crystallization Appraised Value" as the fair market value of all of the Membership Interests of the Company, that would be paid in cash by a willing buyer to an unaffiliated willing seller, with neither acting under compulsion, in a sale of the Company and its Subsidiaries as an entire private (and not publicly traded) enterprise on and as of the last date of the calendar month immediately preceding the applicable anniversary of the fifth (5th) anniversary of the Effective Date or the tenth (10th) anniversary of the Effective Date, respectively, taking into account all factors as the determining party shall deem relevant to such valuation (such sale, a "Crystallization Sale Event").

(c) Upon the determination of the Crystallization Appraised Value, and after the occurrence of the fifth (5th) anniversary of the Effective Date or the tenth (10th) anniversary of the Effective Date, as the case may be (in each case, so long as of such anniversary the Company has still not conducted any Sale of the Company and no Liquidation Event has occurred), the Board of Managers shall reasonably and in good faith cause the calculation of the hypothetical aggregate amount that would be payable to MIP LLC in respect of its Class P Units if an applicable Crystallization Sale Event was consummated in which all of the Membership Interests of the Members were sold for cash at the Crystallization Appraised Value and the proceeds thereof were immediately distributed pursuant to Section 5.02 hereof (such hypothetical amount, the "Crystallization Distribution Amount"), provided, that, if the MIP LLC would not be entitled to receive any distribution in such hypothetical determination (i.e., the promote had no value at the Crystallization Appraised Value), then the Crystallization Distribution Amount shall be zero.

(d) If Crystallization Distribution Amount is greater than zero, then, each Management Participant may elect to receive their portion of the Crystallization Distribution Amount either in cash or Common Units. Each Management Participant (x) must elect to receive cash or Common Units, and such election shall apply to all of such Management Participant's MIP LLC Units then held, (y) must make such election within twenty (20) Business Days after receipt of notice of the determination of their applicable portion of the Crystallization Distribution Amount by written notice thereof to the Board of Managers, and (z) shall be deemed to have elected to proceed under clause (d)(i) below in the absence of any timely election to the contrary. A Management Participant's payment shall become due on such 20th Business Day (or the 21st Business Day in the case of a deemed election) (such due date, the "Crystallization Payment Date") and satisfied in accordance with the following:

(i) If such Management Participant elects to receive cash proceeds, the Company shall pay such proceeds to MIP LLC for further distribution to such Management Participant in accordance with the MIP LLC Agreement; provided that the Company's obligation to make such payment (and the MIP LLC's corresponding payment obligation) shall be suspended as, for so long as and to the extent the Board of Managers determines there is insufficient distributable cash available (giving effect to all factors as the Board of Managers deems relevant, including any reserves as are required by Applicable Law and such other reserves for subsequent computation adjustments and for contingencies, including contingent liabilities relating to pending or anticipated litigation or to Internal Revenue Service examinations) to make such payment; provided, further, that, the Board of Managers shall seek and obtain financing within ninety (90) days after the election in Section 5.05(d) above in order to fund such payments pursuant to Section 3.05(b); provided, further, that for U.S. federal income tax purposes, for the avoidance of doubt, the cash distribution in respect of the Class P Units shall be treated as a redemption event resulting in a book up of each Member's Capital Account based on the applicable Crystallization Appraised Value (and the cash distribution in respect of the MIP LLC Units shall be treated as a redemption event resulting in a book up of each Management Participant's capital account in MIP LLC based on the applicable Crystallization Appraised Value).

(ii) If such Management Participant elects to receive Common Units, then promptly following such election, such Management Participant shall receive (by distribution from the Company to the MIP LLC for further distribution in accordance with the MIP LLC Agreement) that number of Common Units (rounded to the nearest whole unit) equal to the quotient of (x) the cash proceed amount that would be payable to such Management Participate if it elected to receive cash proceeds in accordance with the immediately preceding clause (d)(i), divided by (y) the value of a single Common Unit determined by the Board of Managers reasonably and in good faith in accordance with the Crystallization Appraised Value, which shall be evidenced by amendment to Exhibit A to reflect the issuance of Common Units to each such Management Participant. An illustrative example of this issuance is set forth on Exhibit C, which example is solely for illustrative purposes only to aid in the interpretation of this provision. The operation of this provision will be based on the facts and circumstances that give rise to the particular issuance.

(iii) Upon a payment becoming due under this Section 5.06, the terms applicable to the Class P Units issued in corresponding number to such Management Participant's MIP LLC Units (however constituted, including any applicable Award Agreements or Separate Agreements) and the Management Participant's MIP LLC Units shall be amended and restated, effective on and after the occurrence of any applicable Crystallization Payment Date, to (x) restart any applicable vesting schedule as if such Class P Units and MIP LLC Units were newly issued as of the applicable Crystallization Payment Date, and (y) reset the Class P Distribution Threshold in respect of each such Class P Unit and MIP LLC Unit to equal the Crystallization Appraised Value.

(e) In connection with the foregoing, to the extent a Management Participant elects to receive Units and there is at least one Management Participant that elects to receive cash, then prior to any Management Participant receiving cash, the Management Participant(s) electing to receive Units will first receive their Units pursuant to clause (d)(ii).

ARTICLE VI

MANAGEMENT

6.01. Management.

(a) Subject to the express provisions of this Agreement, management and control of the Company shall be vested exclusively in a management board (the "Board of Managers") consisting initially of five (5) Managers. At any time and from time to time, the number of Managers comprising the full Board of Managers may be increased by approval of the Board of Managers or decreased with the approval of the Board of Managers, including at least one of the Parakeet Manager Designees. The Board of Managers shall initially be designated as follows:

(i) three (3) individuals designated as Managers in writing by Investor (the individuals designated as Managers by Investor from time to time, collectively, the "Jadian Manager Designees");

(ii) for so long as he is continuously employed by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, Austin Berk; and

(iii) subject to Section 13.07(b), if, as and when, and for so long as, he is continuously employed by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, Jonathan Wyss (together with Austin Berk and/or any designee provided in the proviso immediately following, as the case may be, the "Parakeet Manager Designee(s)");

provided, that, if both Austin Berk and Jonathan Wyss have been terminated by the Company without "Cause", then for so long as Austin Berk and Jonathan Wyss, collectively and directly or indirectly (including by or through their ownership interests in the Parakeet Member), own five percent (5%) or more of the total number of Common Units (on a fully-diluted basis) of the Company, they shall collectively be entitled to designate, in a writing signed by each of Austin Berk and Jonathan Wyss, one (1) individual to serve as a Manager; provided, further, if such designation is not either Austin Berk or Jonathan Wyss, that such other individual's designation as a Manager shall be subject in all cases to Investor's prior written approval in its reasonable discretion and, for the avoidance of doubt, it shall be a reasonable basis for Investor to withhold such approval if a proposed designee is, without limitation, a direct or indirect investor in any competitor of the Company, has been convicted of any felony, or lacks relevant experience. If either of John Wyss or Austin Berk is at any time not entitled to designate a Parakeet Manager Designee, then such vacancy shall be filled by the Investor.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, Investor shall have the right, at any time and from time to time, to designate one (1) natural person as a Manager to hold two (2) or more of the Jadian Manager Designee positions that it is entitled to designate, and such person shall have the number of votes equal to the number of positions so held. The initial Jadian Manager Designees shall be Jarret Cohen, Eddie Chabbott and Matthew Hennessy. The Investor hereby designates Jonathan Wyss to serve as a Parakeet Manager Designee on the Effective Date, who shall serve in accordance with and subject to the terms of this Agreement, including without limitation Section 13.07(b).

(b) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, the business and affairs of the Company shall be managed under the direction of the Board of Managers. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, the Board of Managers shall always retain the authority to manage the business and affairs of the Company and make management decisions notwithstanding any delegation of duties by the Board of Managers to an officer, employee or agent of the Company, including Jonathan Wyss, Austin Berk, Parakeet OpCo and/or Parakeet Member. In managing the business and affairs of the Company and in exercising its powers, the Board of Managers shall act through meetings and written consents pursuant to this Article VI. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, subject to the terms of this Agreement, the Board of Managers shall have the power and authority to take any and all acts that the Board of Managers considers necessary, appropriate or proper to further or promote the Company's purposes or other interests.

(c) Except as otherwise provided herein, and notwithstanding the last sentence of Section 18-402 of the Act, no single Manager may bind the Company, and the Board of Managers shall have the power to act only collectively in the manner specified herein.

(d) Except as otherwise expressly required in this Agreement or in the Act, whenever any action, including any approval, consent, authorization, determination, resolution, or decision is to be taken or given by the Board of Managers or the Company under this Agreement or under the Act at a duly called meeting of the Board of Managers at which a quorum is present, pursuant to Section 6.02(c), it shall be authorized by a simple majority of the total votes held by the Managers ("Majority Board Vote"). Each Manager shall have one (1) vote on all such matters, except that in the case of a Manager designated to hold two (2) or more positions, such Manager shall have the number of votes equal to the number of positions so held. In the event that any Manager is unable to attend any meeting of the Board of Managers, such Manager may give to any other Manager such non-attending Manager's proxy to exercise such non-attending Manager's voting rights for the matters specified in such writing at such meeting; provided, that such proxy is set forth in writing and signed by such non-attending Manager and is only effective for such meeting and any adjournment thereof.

(e) An individual shall serve as a Manager until the conclusion of his or her term of office and the designation of his or her successor, or, if earlier, upon either (i) his or her death, bankruptcy or a ruling by a court of competent jurisdiction that such individual is incompetent or (ii) in the case of Austin Berk and Jonathan Wyss, or any Manager designee thereof, any failure to continuously satisfy the conditions set forth in Section 6.01(a). A Manager may voluntarily withdraw from such position at any time upon no less than fifteen (15) calendar days' advance written notice to all of the Managers, and may be removed and replaced at any time (with or without cause) by the Person or Persons who designated such individual to be a Manager; provided, however, that if the Person or Persons who designated such individual to be a Manager shall cease to be a Member or Members or otherwise shall cease to have the right to designate such individual or be appointed or serve pursuant to this Section 6.01, including, in the case of Austin Berk and Jonathan Wyss, any failure to satisfy the conditions set forth in Section 6.01(a)), such individual may be removed as a Manager at any time (with or without cause) by the Board of Managers and any vacancy in the Board of Managers created by such removal shall be filled by the Board of Managers by a Majority Board Vote. Subject to the immediately preceding two sentences, any vacancy in the Board of Managers shall be filled solely in accordance with the provisions for selection of Managers set forth in Section 6.01(a) and this Section 6.01(e); provided, however, that any vacancy in the Board of Managers created as a result of an increase in the number Managers comprising the full Board of Managers shall be filled by the Board of Managers by Majority Board Vote.

(f) Each Manager may be (if and to the extent determined by the Board of Managers in writing in advance), reimbursed by the Company for any and all out-of-pocket costs and expenses reasonably incurred by the Managers in connection with such Manager's attendance at meetings of the Board of Managers and such other actions taken by such Manager in connection with his or her service as a Manager.

6.02. Action by Written Consent; Meetings.

(a) Any action permitted or required by the Act or this Agreement to be taken by the Board of Managers may be taken without a meeting if a written consent, setting forth the action taken, is signed by the Managers holding at least the minimum number of votes necessary to approve such action in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, provided that any Managers not signing a written consent shall be notified of any action to be taken by written consent, and furnished with all relevant written supporting materials related to such action that were furnished to the Managers who signed such consent, at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to such action becoming effective, provided further that in exigent circumstances, as determined by a majority of the Board of Managers, the foregoing notice and materials may instead be provided to such Managers reasonably promptly after an action becomes effective. Any action permitted or required by the Act or this Agreement to be taken by the Members may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action taken, is signed by at least the minimum number of Members necessary to authorize such action.

(b) Regular meetings of the Board of Managers shall be held not less frequently than four (4) times per Fiscal Year of the Company, without notice, on such days and at such times as shall be determined by the Board of Managers; provided, that the Board of Managers shall establish a regular meeting schedule at the beginning of each Fiscal Year. At all meetings of the Board of Managers, business shall be transacted in such order as shall from time to time be determined by the Board of Managers. Special meetings of the Board of Managers may be held for any purpose or purposes, unless otherwise prohibited by Applicable Law and may be called by any Manager. Notice of the time and place of, and the business proposed to be transacted at, the special meeting shall be given by whoever is calling the meeting, not less than twenty-four (24) hours nor more than ten (10) days prior to the meeting. Notice of any meeting of the Board of Managers may be given personally (including by telephone), by mail, facsimile, electronic mail, courier or other means at the address, electronic mail address, telephone number or facsimile number of each Manager shown in the Company's books and records. Notice shall be effective and deemed to have been delivered (i) if given personally, upon delivery, (ii) if given by electronic mail, upon electronic transmission, (iii) if given by facsimile, upon dispatch, (iv) if given by courier, upon the earlier of actual delivery and one (1) Business Day after deposit with a nationally recognized overnight courier specifying next day delivery, (v) if given by mail, three (3) Business Days after it is deposited in the mails (first class or airmail postage prepaid) or (vi) if given by other means, when delivered to the address of the Manager set forth in the books and records of the Company. All meetings of the Board of Managers shall be held at such place as shall be designated by the Board of Managers and stated in the notice of the meeting or in a duly executed waiver of the notice thereof. Attendance by a Manager at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting by such Manager, except where a Manager attends a meeting solely for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Participation at a meeting of the Board of Managers (or its subcommittees) may be by means of conference telephone or other similar communication equipment whereby all participants can hear each other. Participation in a meeting in this manner shall constitute presence in person at the meeting.

(c) Subject to this Section 6.02(c) and Section 7.10(a), the presence of a majority of the Managers, which must include at least one of Austin Berk or Jonathan Wyss for as long as they serve as Parakeet Manager Designees, in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business by the Board of Managers. If, however, a quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the Board of Managers, the Managers entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by proxy, shall have the power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present or represented. At each adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally notified. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if a quorum is not present or represented at any meeting of the Board of Managers called in accordance with this Agreement because at least one of Austin Berk or Jonathan Wyss failed to be present or represented by proxy at such meeting to the extent required by this Section 6.02(c), then, at the next meeting of the Board, provided that such subsequent meeting of the Board is at least forty-eight (48) hours after such first meeting, the presence or representation by proxy of at least one of Austin Berk or Jonathan Wyss at such subsequent meeting shall not be required for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum.

6.03. Reserved Powers of the Board of Managers.

Notwithstanding the delegation by the Board of Managers to Parakeet OpCo, the Parakeet Member or any employees (including pursuant to the Offer Letters), officers, agents, representatives, or independent contractors of the Company or any of the foregoing, of any powers, duties and responsibilities, and without limitation of any other voting, consent or approval rights of the Board of Managers, the following actions shall be reserved solely and exclusively to the Board of Managers, and management shall not have the power to initiate, commence, agree, commit, negotiate, or otherwise undertake any such actions, or to cause the Company or any Subsidiary to undertake the following actions (and where applicable in this Section 6.03, the term "Company" will be deemed to include "or any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates"), directly or indirectly, through any Subsidiary, Affiliate or otherwise:

(a) the conduct of business outside of the ordinary course of business, including the entry into any line of business other than the business described in clause (a) of Section 2.05;

(b) the entrance into any contract or transaction with any Affiliate or any Member, Manager, officer or employee of the Company or any Affiliate of any such Person, including the sale or purchase of any assets to or from any such Person, or a merger, consolidation, recapitalization, reclassification, or other fundamental transaction involving any such Person;

The Members acknowledge and agree that for so long as the Investor Members are Members of the Company, the Jadian I-B Member has been appointed by the Investor Members as their lead investor and as the exclusive representative of Investor with the sole power to exercise any of the rights granted to Investor under this Agreement, including, without limitation, the rights of Investor under the foregoing provisions of this Section 6.03 and under Section 6.01, Section 6.08, Section 7.08, Section 7.10 and Section 13.14. Accordingly, any action taken or vote or other writing executed by the Jadian I-B Member will be fully binding on behalf of all Investor Members for all purposes under this Agreement. 6.04. Annual Budget Process.

Not later than November 30th of each Fiscal Year, commencing with the Fiscal Year ending December 31, 2021, the Company's management shall prepare and submit to the Board of Managers for their approval, a proposed annual budget for the Company and its Subsidiaries, in reasonable detail, for the immediately succeeding Fiscal Year (the "Proposed Annual Budget"). Within thirty (30) days of receipt of the Proposed Annual Budget by the Board of Managers, the Board of Managers shall review the Proposed Annual Budget and either (x) approve the Proposed Annual Budget by the Board of Managers by Majority Vote (an "Affirmatively Approved Annual Budget"), or (y) request additional information with respect to the Proposed Annual Budget or a revised Proposed Annual Budget from the Company's management or propose changes to the Proposed Annual Budget. Promptly following receipt of any request for additional information or a revised Proposed Annual Budget by the Board of Managers pursuant to this Section 6.04, the Company's management shall provide the additional information or the revised Proposed Annual Budget requested by the Board of Managers and thereafter, the Board of Managers and the Company's officers shall cooperate with each other in good faith to finalize the Proposed Annual Budget for resubmission to and approval by the Board of Managers within thirty (30) days of receipt by the Board of Managers of such additional information. If the Proposed Annual Budget is not approved by the Board of Managers in accordance with this Section 6.04 by the first (1st) calendar day of any Fiscal Year ending on or after December 31, 2022, then the Approved Annual Budget for the immediately preceding Fiscal Year shall continue in full force and effect, as though it were the Approved Annual Budget for such current Fiscal Year, except each line item therein shall be increased by three (3%) percent over the amount reflected therein, until such time as a new annual budget for such Fiscal Year is approved by the Board of Managers in accordance with this Section 6.04. The Board of Managers shall cooperate and work together in good faith to resolve any differences in a Proposed Annual Budget and seek its prompt approval. Any modifications to any Approved Annual Budget shall require the approval of the Board of Managers by Majority Vote. For purposes of this Agreement, each Proposed Annual Budget for the Company and its Subsidiaries that is initially approved in accordance with this Section 6.04 and each such budget as modified solely in accordance with this Section 6.04 shall be referred to herein as the "Approved Annual Budget."

6.05. Certain Waivers of Fiduciary Duties.

(a) To the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law (including Section 18-1101 of the Act), notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or otherwise of Applicable Law, neither any Jadian Manager Designees nor the Investor Members (including Investor) (collectively, the "Covered Persons"), shall have any fiduciary duty to the Company, any Manager, or any Member by reason of this Agreement or in its capacity as a Covered Person, nor shall any Covered Persons have any fiduciary duty to any third party lenders, except that the Covered Persons shall be subject to the implied contractual covenant of good faith and fair dealing. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law (including Section 18-1101 of the Act) and except as provided in Section 6.05, no Covered Person shall be liable, including under any legal or equitable theory of fiduciary duty or other theory of liability, to the Company, any Manager or any Member. The provisions of this Agreement, to the extent that they restrict or eliminate the duties and liabilities of the Covered Persons otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the parties hereto to replace such other duties and liabilities of the Covered Persons.

(b) Each Manager and Member shall be fully protected in relying in good faith upon the records of the Company and upon such information, opinions, reports or statements presented to the Company by any Person as to matters which such Manager or Member reasonably believes are within such Person's professional or expert competence.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, Jonathan Wyss and Austin Berk, in the performance of their respective duties at the Company, Parakeet OpCo or otherwise at any Subsidiary of the Company, shall owe the Company and its Members, fiduciary duties of the type owed by the officers and directors of a corporation to such corporation and its stockholders under the laws of the State of Delaware.

6.06. Liability of Parties.

To the extent not inconsistent with Applicable Law, neither any Manager, any Member nor any Member Representative, nor any of their respective officers, directors, employees, partners, members, shareholders or Affiliates, nor any officer of the Company or any Subsidiary thereof shall be liable, responsible or accountable in damages or otherwise to the Company or to any Member for any action taken or for any failure to act on behalf of the Company in connection with the business or operations of the Company, if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the person's conduct was unlawful.

6.07. Indemnification.

(a) To the extent not inconsistent with Applicable Law, the Company shall indemnify and hold harmless the Managers, the Members and the Member Representative and all of their respective Affiliates, officers, directors, managers, employees, partners, members, shareholders and agents, and all of the officers of the Company and its Subsidiaries and designees on the board of managers (or similar governing body) of any Subsidiary of the Company (each, an "Indemnitee"), from any loss, liability, damage or expense (including, but not limited to, any judgment, award or settlement and reasonable attorneys' costs, expenses and fees, costs and expenses of investigation, and other costs or expenses incurred in connection with the defense of any actual or threatened action, proceeding or claim) arising out of (i) any acts or omissions or alleged acts or omissions in connection with an Indemnitee's activities or the activities of any of an Indemnitee's respective employees or agents on behalf of the Company or any Subsidiary thereof or while serving in any capacity for any other Person at the direction of the Company or any

Subsidiary thereof, or in connection with the business or operations of the Company or any Subsidiary thereof, and (ii) any liability imposed upon any Indemnitee under any statute, rule or regulation (including, but not limited to, any statute, rule or regulation relating to environmental matters) applicable to the Company or any Subsidiary thereof or any other Person for whom they are serving in any capacity at the direction of the Company or any Subsidiary thereof, or their respective officers, directors or employees; provided that the Board of Managers has determined that the acts or omissions or the alleged acts or omissions upon which the action or threatened action, proceeding or claim is based were undertaken in good faith and in the best interests of the Company. Reasonable expenses incurred by any such Indemnitee in connection with the matters referred to above may be paid or reimbursed by the Company in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding, regardless of whether the Company, a Member, or an Affiliate of the Company or Member, has asserted claims against the Indemnitee, upon receipt by the Company of (x) a written affirmation by the Indemnitee of his or its good faith belief that he or it met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification by the Company, and (y) a written undertaking by or on behalf of the Indemnitee to promptly repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction (not subject to further appeal) that he or it has not met that standard of conduct. The foregoing indemnification rights will be in addition to and not in lieu of any other contractual rights to indemnification granted to any Person by the Company or any Subsidiary thereof.

(b) The Company hereby acknowledges that any Indemnitee employed by or acting on behalf of the Investor Members (including Investor) may have certain rights to indemnification, advancement of expenses and/or insurance provided by the Investor Members and certain of its Affiliates (collectively, the "Fund Indemnitors"). The Company hereby agrees (i) that it is the indemnitor of first resort (i.e., its obligations to Indemnitee are primary and any obligation of the Fund Indemnitors to advance expenses or to provide indemnification for the same expenses or liabilities incurred by Indemnitee are secondary), (ii) that it shall be required to advance the full amount of reasonable expenses incurred by Indemnitee and shall be liable for the full amount of all such reasonable expenses, judgments, penalties, fines and amounts paid in settlement to the extent legally permitted and as required by the terms of this Agreement (or any other agreement between the Company and the Indemnitee), subject to the Company's receipt of the written affirmation and written undertaking by the Indemnitee required by clauses (x) and (y) of Section 6.06(a), without regard to any rights Indemnitee may have against the Fund Indemnitors, and (iii) that it irrevocably waives, relinquishes and releases the Fund Indemnitors from any and all claims against the Fund Indemnitors for contribution, subrogation or any other recovery of any kind in respect thereof. The Company further agrees that no advancement or payment by the Fund Indemnitors on behalf of Indemnitee with respect to any claim for which Indemnitee has sought indemnification from the Company shall affect the foregoing and the Fund Indemnitors shall have a right of contribution and/or be subrogated to the extent of such advancement or payment to all of the rights of recovery of Indemnitee against the Company.

6.08. Confidentiality; Non-Competition; Non-Solicitation; No Hire.

Except as otherwise provided in this Section 6.08, as an inducement for each of the Members to enter into this Agreement and in order to protect and preserve the legitimate business interests of each of the Members and the goodwill to be developed by and acquired by the Company in its business, each of the Members, Austin Berk and Jonathan Wyss agree to the provisions of this Section 6.08. For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of this Section 6.08 shall apply to each of Austin Berk and Jonathan Wyss in their individual capacity, and all references to "Member" in this Section 6.08 shall be deemed to apply to them as indirect owners of the Parakeet Member.

(a) Confidentiality. From the Effective Date until the earliest to occur of (x) the dissolution of this Company pursuant to Section 9.01(a), and (y) three (3) years after a Member (other than an Exempt Entity) ceases to own its Membership Interest (except due to a dissolution pursuant to Section 9.01(a))(the "Restricted Period"), each Member (other than an Exempt Entity) (including, for the duration of the Restricted Period, any Person who has ceased to own any Membership Interest (except due to a dissolution pursuant to Section 9.01(a)) shall not, and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause its Affiliates and Representatives (as defined below) not to, except as explicitly permitted under any other written agreement duly signed by both the Company and such Member and as permitted below, (i) use for any purpose, (ii) disclose to any Person, or (iii) keep or make copies of documents, tapes, discs or programs containing, any Confidential Information concerning the business of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (except to the extent required to comply with Applicable Law or court order or Governmental Authority); provided, however, that nothing herein shall prohibit such Member from using or disclosing any such Confidential Information which: (x) at the time of its use or disclosure is, through no fault of such Member in violation hereof, part of the public domain by publication or otherwise; (y) was not acquired, directly or indirectly, subject to any confidentiality obligation to the Company or its Affiliates; provided, that with respect to each Member (other than an Exempt Entity), the exception in this clause (y) shall not apply to any Confidential Information to the extent such Confidential Information is used in the business of or directly held by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries; or (z) is required or requested to be disclosed by such Member pursuant to Applicable Law or court order or Governmental Authority, in which case, such Member gives written notice to the Company or the applicable Member, prior to any such disclosure to the extent permitted by Applicable Law. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, each Member (other than an Exempt Entity) shall be entitled to disclose Confidential Information to such Member's advisors, agents, employees, officers, directors, accountants, attorneys and other representatives (collectively, "Representatives") or its existing or prospective Affiliates, Subsidiaries, partners, members, stockholders, or limited and general partners, in each case, so long as such Persons agree to keep such Confidential Information confidential in accordance with the terms of this Section 6.07(a), such Member is liable for any and all breaches of such agreement by each of such Persons, and such disclosure is not to an entity that competes with the Company. For the avoidance of doubt, except to the extent expressly set forth herein, nothing contained in this Section 6.07(a) shall prohibit any Member from using or disclosing its own Confidential Information for any purpose at any time. For purposes hereof, "Confidential Information" shall, with respect to the designated Person, mean and include, without limitation, all intellectual property, trade secrets, reports, financial information, business plans, customers and/or suppliers lists and customer and/or supplier information, and all other information concerning such Person's business and marketing methods used in connection with its business, not previously disclosed to the public directly by such designated Person, whether or not marked or delineated as confidential or the equivalent.

(b) Non-Competition. During the Exclusivity Period, each Member (other than an Exempt Entity and except as may be set forth in the Offer Letters, which shall govern and supersede in the event of any conflict with this Section 6.07(b)) shall not, and shall cause each of its Affiliates not to, directly or indirectly, engage in any Competitive Activity, other than as a Manager or Member of the Company acting in such capacity for the sole, exclusive and direct benefit of the Company and its Subsidiaries as contemplated by this Agreement. The term "Competitive Activities" as used herein shall mean (A) engaging in the business described in clause (a) of Section 2.05 or any other business which is conducted by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries after the Effective Date; or (B) serving as a shareholder, officer, director, member, manager, trustee or partner of, or consulting with, advising or assisting in any way, whether or not for consideration, any corporation, partnership, firm, proprietorship or other business organization which is then or is then reasonably expected to become a competitor of the Company and its Subsidiaries with respect to the business described in clause (A). The term "Competitive Activities" shall not include (together with all Affiliates) the ownership of securities of entities which are listed on a national securities exchange or traded in the national over-the-counter market in an amount which shall not exceed five percent (5%) of the outstanding shares of any such entity and (ii) Existing Activities.

(c) Non-Solicitation; No-Hire. Each of the members, For a period of twenty-four (24) months after a Member's employment with the Company is terminated, such Member (other than an Exempt Entity and except as may be set forth in the Offer Letters, which shall govern and supersede in the event of any conflict with this Section 6.08(c)) shall not, and shall cause his, her or its Affiliates not to, directly or indirectly: (i) employ, engage, contract for or solicit the services in any capacity of any Person that is or was (at any time within the twelve (12) months prior to the attempted hiring), employed by or providing services as an employee, agent, independent contractor or consultant to, including, without limitation, any coach, instructor or facilitator, the Company or any of its Subsidiaries; or (ii) for such Member's own account or on behalf of any other Person, solicit, divert, take away or attempt to take away, any of the customers, clients, vendors, suppliers or other business partners of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or in any way interfere with, disrupt or attempt to disrupt any of the then-existing relationships between, the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and any of their respective customers, clients, vendors, suppliers or other business partners.

(d) Scope; Interpretation. The Members acknowledge that the Company conducts business throughout the United States and agree that the geographic scope of Sections 6.07(b) and (c) shall extend to each state and to each geographic area outside of the United States in which the Company conducts business and in each other state and geographic area outside of the United States in which the Company plans to conduct business within twelve (12) months of the date of determination, and each of Sections 6.07(b) and (c) shall be deemed a separate covenant in each such state. In the event a court of competent jurisdiction determines that the provisions of Sections 6.07(b) and (c) and this Section 6.07(d) are excessively broad as to duration, geographical scope or activity, it is expressly agreed that this Section 6.07 shall be construed so that the remaining provisions shall not be affected, but shall remain in full force and effect, and any such overbroad provisions shall be deemed, without further action on the part of any person, to be modified, amended and/or limited, but only to the extent necessary to render the same valid and enforceable in such jurisdiction.

(e) Equitable Relief for Violations. The parties agree that the provisions and restrictions contained in this Section 6.07 are necessary to protect the legitimate continuing interests of the Company and its Subsidiaries, and that any violation or breach of these provisions will result in irreparable injury to the Company and its Subsidiaries, as applicable, for which monetary damages or any other remedy at law would be inadequate and that, in addition to any relief at law which may be available to the Company and its Subsidiaries for such violation or breach and regardless of any other provision contained in this Agreement, the Company and its Subsidiaries shall be entitled to temporary and permanent injunctive relief (without the necessity of having to prove actual damages therefrom or post a bond therefore) and such other equitable relief as a court may grant.

6.09. Corporate Opportunities.

Each of the parties hereto expressly acknowledges and agrees that notwithstanding any duty hereunder or that may otherwise exist at law or in equity, to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law, each of the Exempt Entities has the right to, and shall have no duty (contractual, fiduciary or otherwise) not to, directly or indirectly engage in any business, business activity or line of business, including those that are the same or similar to those of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or may be deemed to be competing with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries by virtue of any equity ownership in the Company or service on the Board of Managers; and in the event that any Exempt Entity acquires knowledge of a potential transaction or matter that may be a corporate opportunity (as that term is commonly used under Delaware law) for any of the Company and/or one or more of its Subsidiaries, on the one hand, and such Exempt Entity, on the other hand, such Exempt Entity shall have no duty (contractual, fiduciary or otherwise) to communicate or present such corporate opportunity to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, as the case may be, by virtue of any equity ownership in the Company or service on the Board of Managers, and may pursue such corporate opportunity independent of the Company and the other Members, in which case, neither the Company nor any other Members shall have any interest therein.

ARTICLE VII

RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFERS

7.01. Restrictions on Transfers.

Except as otherwise permitted by this Agreement, no Member shall, directly or indirectly, Transfer any Membership Interests or rights under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the Board of Managers, which consent may be granted or withheld in the absolute and unreviewable discretion of the Board of Managers. In addition, except as otherwise permitted by this Agreement, any Member that is not a natural person shall not cause or permit any interest, direct or indirect, in itself to be Transferred without the prior written consent of the Board of Managers, which consent may be granted or withheld in the absolute and unreviewable discretion of the Board of Managers.

7.02. Permitted Transfers.

Subject to compliance with this Section 7.02 and Section 7.03, a Member (other than MIP LLC) shall be free at any time to Transfer (each, a "Permitted Transfer"), without having to obtain the consent required under Section 7.01 all or any portion of such Member's Membership Interest to (each, a "Permitted Transferee"):

(a) in the case of a Member that is a natural person, any one or more of an existing Member's Family Members; provided, however, that such Family Member may not subsequently Transfer such Membership Interests to any Affiliate of such Family Member except as provided in this Section 7.02;

(b) in the case of a Member that is not a natural person, a wholly owned Subsidiary of such Member;

(c) in the case of each of the Investor Members, any Person;

(d) a Third Party Purchaser in accordance with the provisions set forth in Section 7.08; or

(e) the Company in accordance with the provisions set forth in Section 5.06.

Any trust, estate or personal representative that has received a Membership Interest from a Member may Transfer the Membership Interest to a beneficiary of such trust or estate; provided, that, the beneficiary is a Family Member of the Member who transferred the Membership Interest to the trust, estate or personal representative. A Member that is a natural person also may Transfer his Membership Interest to such Member's estate or heirs upon his death or involuntarily by operation of law. For purposes of this Article VII, a Member's "Family Members" shall mean the Member's spouse, ancestors, issue (including adopted children and their issue) and trusts, estates, custodianships or other estate planning structures (x) for the primary benefit of one or more of the Member himself or any spouse, ancestors, or issue (including adopted children and their issue) or (y) created by such Member for bona fide estate planning or similar purposes.

7.03. Conditions to Transfer.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary (other than Section 7.08), no Transfer shall be permitted (including any Permitted Transfers under Section 7.02) unless the following additional conditions precedent are satisfied (or waived by the Board of Managers):

(a) the transferor (except in the case of death or an involuntary Transfer by operation of law) and transferee shall execute and deliver to the Company such documents and instruments of conveyance as may be necessary or appropriate in the opinion of counsel to the Company or determined by the Board of Managers to effect such Transfer and to confirm the agreement of the transferee to be bound by the provisions of this Agreement (including this Article VII and Section 13.09);

(b) the transferor (except in the case of death or an involuntary Transfer by operation of law) shall furnish to the Company an opinion of counsel that the proposed transfer will not cause the Company to be treated other than as a partnership for U.S. tax purposes, including but not limited pursuant to the "publicly traded partnership" rules under Code Section 7704 and the Regulations promulgated thereunder;

(c) the Board of Managers shall have received such information in connection with the Transfer as the Board of Managers reasonably determines appropriate to conclude that the Transfer will not result in a withholding obligation on the Company under Section 1446(f) of the Code; and

(d) the transferor (except in the case of death or an involuntary Transfer by operation of law) shall provide an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Company to the effect that such Transfer will not violate any applicable securities laws regulating the transfer of securities or any of the provisions of any agreement to which the Company is a party.

7.04. Rights of Non-Admitted Transferee.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, a transferee of a Membership Interest who is not admitted as a Member pursuant to Section 7.05 shall be entitled to allocations and distributions attributable to the Membership Interest Transferred to the same extent as if the transferee were a Member, but shall have no right to participate in the management of the Company, to designate a Manager or to vote or give a consent on any matter calling for the approval or consent of the Members (and any requisite percentage or majority shall be computed as if the Transferred Membership Interest did not exist), shall have no right to any information or accounting of the affairs of the Company, shall not be entitled to inspect the books or records of the Company, shall be subject to the drag-along rights, and shall not have any preemptive rights or other rights of a Member under the Act or this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 7.04 shall in no event legitimize or otherwise validate any Transfer of Membership Interests made in violation of this Agreement.

7.05. Admission of Transferee as Member.

Subject to the other provisions of this Article VII, a transferee of a Membership Interest may be admitted to the Company as a Member only upon satisfaction of all of the following conditions:

(a) the Board of Managers shall consent to such admission, which consent may be granted or withheld in the absolute and unreviewable discretion of the Board of Managers;

(b) the Membership Interest with respect to which the transferee is admitted was acquired by means of a Transfer permitted under Section 7.01 or 7.02;

(c) the transferee becomes a party to this Agreement as a Member and executes such documents and instruments as the Company reasonably may request as necessary or appropriate to confirm such transferee as a Member in the Company and such transferee's agreement to be bound by the terms and conditions hereof; and

(d) the transferee furnishes copies of all instruments effecting the Transfer, opinions of counsel and such other certificates, instruments and documents as the Board of Managers may require.

7.06. Effect of Disposition.

Following any Transfer of a Member's entire Membership Interest, the Member shall have no further rights as a Member of the Company other than with respect to rights and claims arising prior to such time, except to the extent such rights were expressly included in such Transfer. In addition, following any Transfer permitted under this Article VII, including a Permitted Transfer, the Member shall have no further rights as a Member of the Company with respect to that portion Transferred. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, upon a Transfer to a transferee that has been admitted as a Member in accordance with this Agreement, except to the extent otherwise provided in the instruments of Transfer which were approved by the Board of Managers, such transferee shall be entitled to all rights of the Transferring Member then outstanding under this Agreement with respect to the Units or other Securities Transferred, including participation rights and all other rights and this Agreement will be read with the required changes to effect the intent of this provision.

7.07. Prohibited Transfers.

Any purported Transfer that is not permitted under this Article VII shall be null and void and of no effect whatsoever. In the case of a Transfer or attempted Transfer that is not such a permitted Transfer, the parties engaging or attempting to engage in such Transfer shall be liable to indemnify and hold harmless the Company and the other Members from all cost, liability, and damage that any of such indemnified persons may incur (including incremental tax liability and attorneys' fees and expenses) as a result of such Transfer or attempted Transfer and efforts to enforce the indemnity granted hereby.

7.08. Drag-Along Rights.

(a) If at any time and from time to time after the Effective Date, Investor proposes any transaction with any third party purchaser or purchasers (collectively, the "Third Party Purchaser") involving the sale of Units by any of the Investor Members (a "Drag-Along Sale"), then, provided that such Drag-along Sale is (x) approved by the Board of Managers and (y) is conducted in compliance with Section 7.09, to the extent applicable, Investor may require each of the other Members, subject to Section 7.08(b) (each, a "Drag-Along Seller" and collectively, the "Drag-Along Sellers") to participate in such Drag-Along Sale in accordance with and subject to this Section 7.08. In order for Investor to exercise the drag-along right pursuant to this Section 7.08, Investor shall give notice (the "Drag-Along Sale Notice") to all of the Drag-Along Sellers specifying (i) the identity of the prospective Third Party Purchaser, (ii) the consideration to be received by the Drag-Along Sellers and any other material terms and conditions of the proposed Drag-Along Sale, (iii) the date of anticipated closing of the Drag-Along Sale, and (iv) the action or actions requested or required, as and to the extent known, by Investor or the Third Party Purchaser in the proposed Drag-Along Sale of each Drag-Along Seller (without limiting those that may be requested or required in the future) in order to complete or facilitate such proposed Drag-Along Sale.

(b) At the request of Investor, each Drag-Along Seller shall sell to the prospective Third Party Purchaser, simultaneously with the sale by each other Drag-Along Seller, on the same terms and conditions, the same percentage of their respective Units as the percentage of the Units then held by each other Drag-Along Seller being sold by each other Drag-Along Seller, subject this Section 7.08 and any rollover requirement imposed by any Third Party Purchaser (which shall be the same form of security as the Investor). In the event that the Securities to be Transferred pursuant to the Drag-Along Sale Notice include Units of different classes or series, the consideration received by the Initiating Drag-Along Parties and the Drag-Along Sellers in such Drag-Along Sale in respect of such different classes or series of Units shall be allocated among them in accordance with Section 5.02.

(c) Upon the request of Investor, each of the Drag-Along Sellers shall (i) execute and deliver a definitive purchase and sale agreement (which may include a full general release of claims and covenants not to sue by such Drag-Along Seller in favor of the Company, each other Member and each Manager and their respective Affiliates, non-competition, non-solicit and other customary restrictive covenants with durations of not more than two (2) years following the closing of such Drag-Along Sale, as well as such indemnification obligations as Investor shall determine), in substantially the same form and substance as the definitive agreement executed and delivered by the applicable Investor Member(s); and (ii) take such other action or actions requested or required by Investor or the Third Party Purchaser in the proposed Drag-Along Sale of such Drag-Along Seller in order to complete or facilitate such proposed Drag-Along Sale (including the waiver of any related appraisal or dissenters' rights, if any) and otherwise cooperate with Investor and the Third Party Purchaser. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (1) any indemnification obligation of any Drag-Along Seller in connection with the Drag-Along Sale shall be several and not joint, shall be limited to the gross proceeds received by that Drag-Along Seller in the sale (except in connection with claims relating to fraud or willful misconduct on the part of such Drag-Along Seller), and shall be subject to the same caps, baskets, deductibles, exclusions, reductions, adjustments and other limitations on liability applicable to the applicable Investor Member(s) and (2) such Drag-Along Seller shall be obligated to enter into any post-transaction non-competition and non-solicitation agreement as required by the Initiating Drag-Along Parties or Third Party Purchaser, regardless of whether the applicable Investor Member(s) is or are required to enter into such agreements.

(d) At the closing of the proposed Drag-Along Sale, each Drag-Along Seller shall deliver, against receipt of the consideration payable in such transaction, such instruments of transfer acceptable to Investor. For the avoidance of doubt, each Member acknowledges and agrees to the right of the Company to hold back any portion of the proceeds in connection with a transaction pursuant to this Section 7.08 (including any proceeds reallocated pursuant to Section 7.08(b)) in order to satisfy any post-transaction indemnification, purchase price adjustment or other similar escrow or holdback obligation, so long as such amounts are allocated pro rata among all Drag-Along Sellers, based on their entitlement to the proceeds received therefrom under Sections 5.02 and 5.03.

(e) No Drag-Along Seller shall have any right to and shall not, without the prior written approval of Investor, communicate directly or indirectly with the Third Party Purchaser with respect to the terms of the Drag-Along Sale, or negotiate any terms of the Drag-Along Sale with the Third Party Purchaser in the Drag-Along Sale. If any Drag-Along Seller shall fail to execute and deliver the definitive agreement based on the terms set forth in this Section 7.08, Investor shall have a power of attorney (which may be relied upon by the Third Party Purchaser in any such sale) and for that purpose such Drag-Along Seller, without any further action or deed, shall be deemed to have appointed, and does hereby so appoint, Investor as such Drag-Along Seller's agent and attorney-in-fact, with full power of substitution, for the purpose of executing and delivering the definitive agreement and all other agreements, documents, instruments and certificates in connection therewith, referenced in Section 7.08(b), in the name and on behalf of such Drag-Along Seller and performing all such action as may be necessary or appropriate to consummate the sale of the Drag-Along Seller's interest pursuant to that agreement.

(f) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 7.08 to the contrary, in the event that all or a portion of the consideration payable to the Drag-Along Sellers in such Drag-Along Sale consists of securities and the sale of such securities to the Drag-Along Sellers would require either a registration under the Securities Act or the preparation of a disclosure document pursuant to Regulation D under the Securities Act (or any successor regulation) or a similar provision of any state securities law, then, at the option of Investor, any one or more of the Drag-Along Sellers may receive, in lieu of such securities, the Fair Market Value of some or all of such securities in cash.

(g) In the event that a definitive agreement with respect to the Drag-Along Sale contemplated by a Drag-Along Sale Notice has not been executed by the parties thereto within one hundred eighty (180) days after the delivery of the Drag-Along Sale Notice for such Drag-Along Sale (subject to reasonable extension to the extent necessary to obtain required governmental or other approvals, as determined by Investor), then such Drag-Along Sale Notice shall be null and void, each Drag-Along Seller shall be released from its obligations under such Drag-Along Sale Notice and it shall be necessary for a separate Drag-Along Sale Notice to be furnished by Investor, and the other terms and provisions of this Section 7.08 separately complied with, in order to consummate a Drag-Along Sale pursuant to this Section 7.08.

(h) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, the Transfers contemplated by this Section 7.08 shall not be restricted by the provisions of Section 7.01 or Section 7.02.

(i) In connection with the completion of the Drag-Along Sale, all transaction expenses reasonably incurred by the Company, any Drag-Along Seller or the Investor Members shall be borne by the Company.

(j) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, if the applicable Investor Member(s) is or are entitled to receive rollover equity as all or part of the consideration in connection with a Drag-Along Sale and the Drag-Along Sellers are only entitled to receive cash as consideration in connection with such Drag-Along Sale, then unless, in the case of each Drag-Along Seller, such Drag-Along Seller (or its members or equity owners) is employed by the Company or an subsidiary at the time of such Drag-Along Sale, the form of consideration in such Drag-Along Sale offered to the applicable Investor Member(s) and the Drag-Along Sellers shall nonetheless be deemed to be the same, and any issuance of such rollover equity to the applicable Investor Member(s) shall not, in and of itself, cause such Drag-Along Sale to be on different terms and conditions.

(k) This Section 7.08 shall automatically terminate with respect to all Members immediately after the consummation of an Initial Public Offering of the Company and compliance with this Section 7.08.

7.09. Right of First Offer.

(a) Prior to the third anniversary of the Effective Date, the Board of Managers of the Company shall not authorize any Sale of the Company (except that the 50% threshold in clause (i) of the definition thereof shall be 75% for purposes of this Section 7.09) except (i) to the extent approved by at least one of the Parakeet Manager Designees or (ii) in accordance with this Section 7.09. In furtherance of the foregoing, if at any time or times the Company proposes to conduct any Sale of the Company prior to the third anniversary of the Effective Date, which Sale of the Company has not been approved by at least one of the Parakeet Manager Designees, the Board of Managers shall first deliver written notice of the same (the "ROFO Notice") to the Parakeet Member. Upon receipt of a ROFO Notice, the Parakeet Member will have the right, but not the obligation, to deliver to the Board of Managers within thirty (30) days of receipt of such ROFO Notice the Parakeet Member's proposal to acquire one hundred percent (100%) of the Membership Interests of the Company which the Parakeet Member does not already own (other than the Class P Units) (such Membership Interests, the "Subject Interests"), subject to and in accordance with this Section 7.09 (the "ROFO Proposal"). The ROFO Proposal shall constitute the Parakeet Member's irrevocable offer to acquire the Subject Interests for the amount in cash set forth in the ROFO Notice. The Board of Managers (with Austin Berk and Jonathan Wyss, or any Manager designee thereof, recusing themselves from any discussions with respect to the ROFO Proposal) may accept or reject the ROFO Proposal in its sole and absolute discretion for a period of sixty (60) days after receipt thereof.

(b) To the extent the Board of Managers accepts the ROFO Proposal in accordance with Section 7.09(a), the Parakeet Member shall within thirty (30) days of such acceptance (i) fund a cash deposit of three (3%) percent of the purchase price set forth in the ROFO Proposal, and (ii) execute and deliver a definitive membership interest purchase agreement in form and substance acceptable to the Board of Managers (with Austin Berk and Jonathan Wyss, or any Manager designee thereof, recusing themselves from any discussions with respect thereto), which definitive membership interest purchase agreement shall (x) include only Fundamental Representations for a transfer of the Subject Interests on an "as is" basis without any indemnity, escrow or holdback, or post-closing liabilities of the seller(s), or any non-competition, non-solicitation or similar restrictive covenants, and (y) provide for closing and funding of the remaining portion of the purchase price set forth in the ROFO Proposal within sixty (60) days after its execution and delivery.

(c) If the Board of Managers has not accepted the ROFO Proposal, the Board of Managers may commence and consummate any Sale of the Company; provided, that, the Board of Managers shall not approve any such Sale of the Company within one hundred and eighty (180) days of receipt of the ROFO Proposal for a purchase price which is less than ninety-five (95%) of the amount set forth in the ROFO Proposal, unless (i) such Sale of the Company is approved by at least one of the Parakeet Manager Designees; or (ii) both of the Parakeet Manager Designees decline to match the proposed purchase price of the Sale of the Company within five (5) days after notice thereof.

(d) In the event that a closing of the sale pursuant to Section 7.09 has not occurred within one hundred and eighty (180) days of receipt of a ROFO Proposal from the Parakeet Member, the Company shall be required to reinitiate the procedures set forth in this Section 7.09.

7.10. Tag-Along Rights

(a) If any Investor Member proposes to make a Transfer, directly or indirectly, in excess of ten percent (10%) of the outstanding aggregate Common Units to one or more Persons (other than any Affiliates, general or limited partners, co-investors, managed accounts or clients of the Investor Member or any Affiliates of the foregoing) (the "Tag Purchaser"), in one or more series of related transactions which is or are approved by the Board of Managers, other than a transaction in which Investor shall have exercised rights pursuant to Section 7.08, then each other Member (other than MIP LLC, so long as such Tag Purchaser is bound by the terms of this LLC Agreement) (each, a "Tagging Member") shall have tag-along rights with respect to such Tagging Member's interests in the Company, as set forth herein (the "Tag-Along Rights"). "Tag Along Percentage" means a fraction expressed as a percentage (x) the numerator of which is the aggregate interests in the Company being collectively sold by the applicable Investor Member(s) in such applicable transaction(s); and (y) the denominator of which is the total interests in the Company collectively held by Investor Member at the time of such applicable transaction(s).

(b) If circumstances occur which give rise to the Tag-Along Rights, the Board of Managers shall provide written notice to each of the other Members (other than MIP LLC) not less than thirty (30) days prior to the closing of the proposed Transfer. A Tagging Member may exercise the Tag-Along Rights by giving written notice to the Board of Managers and Investor at least ten (10) days prior to the closing of the proposed Transfer, and such written notice shall state the portion of his, her, or its interests in the Company that such Member wishes to sell, up to the Tag Along Percentage of such Member's interests in the Company. If the Tag Purchaser decline(s) to purchase all of the interests in the Company of the applicable Investor Member(s) and each Tagging Member, the applicable interests in the Company to be sold by the applicable Investor Member(s) and each Tagging Member shall be reduced on a proportionate basis. Each Tagging Member shall be obligated to sell the applicable portion of his, her, or its interests in the Company identified in such Tagging Member's written acceptance (as may be reduced pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence) for the consideration and upon substantially similar terms by which the applicable Member Investor(s) is or are selling to the Tag Purchaser, such obligation to be conditioned upon and contemporaneous with completion of the transaction of purchase and sale with such Member Investor(s).

(c) As a condition to exercising the Tag-Along Rights, each of the Tagging Members exercising Tag-Along Rights shall (x) execute and deliver a definitive purchase and sale agreement (which may include a full general release of claims and covenants not to sue by such Tagging Member in favor of the Company, each other Member and the Manager and their respective Affiliates, non-competition, non-solicit and other restrictive covenants, as well as such indemnification obligations as Investor shall determine), in substantially the same form and substance as the definitive agreement executed and delivered by the applicable Investor Member(s) (except that such Investor Member(s) need not accept any such non-competition, non-solicit or other restrictive covenants); and (y) take such other action or actions requested or required by Investor or the Tag Purchaser in the proposed Transfer in order to complete or facilitate such proposed Transfer (including the waiver of any related appraisal or dissenters' rights, if any) and otherwise cooperate with Investor and the Tag Purchaser.

(a) If the employment or other active service of any Specified Employee is terminated for any or no reason (or is deemed terminated pursuant to Section 13.07(b)), then the Company shall have the right, but not the obligation (the "Redemption Right"), exercisable from time to time for three hundred sixty-five days (365) days after such termination (the "Applicable Redemption Exercise Period"), to purchase all or any portion of Units held by (x) the Specified Employee and (y) the Specified Employee Member (but only to the extent of Units in which the Specified Employee directly or indirectly has a beneficial ownership interest or has a pecuniary interest), on the date of such termination at the Redemption Price thereof; provided that in the event that the Specified Employee materially breaches any post-termination restrictive covenants under this Agreement or any Separate Agreement, including, but not limited to, any non-competition or non-solicitation provisions, whether or not the Applicable Redemption Exercise Period shall have expired, and the Company discovers such breach, the Applicable Redemption Exercise Period shall commence anew from the date of the Company's discovery of such breach. For the avoidance of doubt, the determination of whether to exercise the Redemption Right shall be made by the Board of Managers, and if the Specified Employee is a Manager, then such member and any other members appointed by such Specified Employee shall be excluded for purposes of determining a quorum and a majority, and may be excluded by the Board of Managers from any meetings at which such determination is discussed. Following the Board of Manager's determination (in its sole and absolute discretion) to exercise the Redemption Right with respect to a terminated Specified Employee, the Company shall give written notice (the "Redemption Notice") to the Specified Employee and the Specified Employee Member setting forth the Board of Manager's determination, the number and class of the Units to be redeemed by the Company (the "Redemption Units"), the Redemption Price of the Redemption Units and the date of the Redemption Closing.

(b) The closing (the "Redemption Closing") of the redemption of the Redemption Units pursuant to this Section 7.11 shall take place, at 10:00 a.m. (New York time) on the date set forth in the Redemption Notice, which, unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the Specified Employee and the Company, shall be no earlier than the fifteenth (15th) calendar day after the delivery of the Redemption Notice (and if no such date is specified, then the first (1st) Business Day after the end of the Applicable Redemption Exercise Period), remotely via the exchange of documents and signatures and the delivery of the Redemption Price for the Redemption Units in accordance with and subject to this Section 7.11. At each Redemption Closing, (i) the Specified Employee (and the Specified Employee Member, as the case may be) and the Company shall execute and deliver an assignment agreement, in such form and substance acceptable to the Company, which shall contain, among other things, Fundamental Representations and full release and indemnification of the Company and its Representatives and Affiliates, by the Specified Employee and the Specified Employee Member, as the case may be (the "Assignment Agreement"); and (ii) the Redemption Units shall be Transferred by the Specified Employee and the Specified Employee Member, as the case may be, to the Company free and clear of any and all Encumbrances (other than Encumbrances under this Agreement and federal and state securities laws) against the Specified Employee's and the Specified Employee Member's, as the case may be, receipt of the Redemption Price for the Redemption Units (A) in cash payable by delivery of a wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated in writing by the Specified Employee or Specified Employee Member, as the case may be, (B) by the cancellation of any indebtedness owed by the Specified Employee or the Specified Employee Member, as the case may be, to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates, as applicable, (C) by issuance of a Junior Subordinated Note delivered to an address designated in writing by the Specified Employee or Specified Employee Member, as the case may be, or (D) any combination of the foregoing, as determined in the sole and absolute discretion of the Board of Managers, in each case, in the amount equal to the Redemption Price for the Redemption Units, provided, that the failure to deliver the Redemption Price because an account or address has not been provided prior to the Redemption Closing shall not prevent the consummation of the Redemption Closing. Without limiting the foregoing, the Specified Employee and the Specified Employee Member shall take any actions necessary to, ensure that the Redemption Units are transferred to the Company free and clear of any and all Encumbrances (other than Encumbrances under this Agreement and federal and state securities laws) and that the Fundamental Representations are true and correct in all respects. As of the Redemption Closing, any and all of the Specified Employee's (and the Specified Employee Member's) rights with respect to the Redemption Units shall immediately cease and terminate and the Specified Employee (and the Specified Employee Member) shall have no further rights as a Member of the Company with respect to any of the Redemption Units.

(c) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, if a Specified Employee (or the Specified Employee Member) fails, for any reason, to tender the instruments or information required for the purchase and sale of the Redemption Units at the time and place specified in the Redemption Notice (or as otherwise agreed to in writing by the Specified Employee and the Company in accordance with Section 1.01(b)), the Specified Employee (and the Specified Employee Member, as the case may be) shall be deemed to have, automatically and irrevocably, assigned all of his, her or its right, title and interest in and to such Redemption Units to the Company, the Specified Employee (and the Specified Employee Member, as the case may be) shall cease to have any rights with respect to such Redemption Units except only to receive the Redemption Price therefor in accordance with Section 1.01(b)), such Redemption Units shall be deemed cancelled on the Company's books and shall no longer be outstanding, and the Company may deliver the Redemption Price (other than as described in clause (B) of Section 1.01(b)) after receipt of an address or bank account information from the Specified Employee or the Specified Employee Member, as the case may be. Without limiting the foregoing, each Specified Employee and Specified Employee Member hereby appoints as such Specified Employee's and Specified Employee Member's true and lawful attorney-in-fact, with full power of substitution, and authorizes each Person designated by the Board of Managers to take such actions as the Company may deem necessary or appropriate to effect the purchase and sale of the Redemption Units pursuant to this Section 7.11 on the date of the Redemption Closing, including, without limitation, executing the Assignment Agreement if the Specified Employee or the Specified Employee Member does not execute and delivery to the Company the Assignment Agreement on such date.

ARTICLE VIII

WITHDRAWAL

8.01. Restrictions on Withdrawal.

No Member shall withdraw from the Company as a Member or terminate its Membership Interest without the approval of the Board of Managers.

ARTICLE IX

DISSOLUTION, LIQUIDATION, AND TERMINATION

9.01. Dissolution.

Subject to any other terms of this Agreement, the Company shall be dissolved automatically and its affairs shall be wound up on the first to occur of the following:

(a) at any time upon consent of all the Common Members;

(b) at any time upon the consent of the Board of Managers, provided that all members of the Board of Managers shall receive prior written notice; or

(c) ninety (90) days after the date on which the Company no longer has at least one (1) Member, unless a new Member is admitted to the Company during such ninety (90) day period.

9.02. Liquidation.

(a) Upon a dissolution of the Company requiring the winding-up of its affairs, the Board of Managers (or, in its absence, the Members (other than MIP LLC) and all references to the Board of Managers in this Article IX shall mean the Members (other than MIP LLC)) shall wind up its affairs. The assets of the Company shall be sold within a reasonable period of time to the extent necessary to pay or to provide for the payment of all debts and liabilities of the Company, and may be sold to the extent deemed practicable and prudent by the Board of Managers. The Board of Managers shall designate one or more Members (other than MIP LLC) to control the dissolution process, including the sale of the assets and distributions to the Members in accordance with this Article IX.

(b) The net assets of the Company remaining after satisfaction of all such debts and liabilities and the creation of any reserves under Section 9.02(e), shall be distributed to the Members in accordance with the distribution provisions of Section 5.02. Any property distributed in kind in the liquidation shall be valued at Fair Market Value.

(c) The allocations and distributions provided for in this Agreement are intended to result in the Capital Account balance of each Member immediately prior to the distribution of the Company's assets pursuant to this Section 9.02 being equal to the amount that would be distributable pursuant to Section 5.02. Notwithstanding anything contained in Article IV to the contrary, the Board of Managers is authorized to make reasonable, appropriate adjustments to the allocation of items of income, gain, loss, and deduction as necessary to cause the balance of each Member's Capital Account immediately prior to the distribution of the Company's assets pursuant to this Section 9.02 to equal or to be as nearly equal as practicable to the amount that would be distributable to each Member pursuant to Section 5.02.

(d) Distributions to Members pursuant to this Article IX shall be made by the end of the taxable year of the liquidation, or, if later, ninety (90) days after the date of such liquidation in accordance with Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(g).

(e) The Board of Managers may withhold from distribution under this Section 9.02 such reserves as are required by Applicable Law and such other reserves for subsequent computation adjustments and for contingencies, including contingent liabilities relating to pending or anticipated litigation or to Internal Revenue Service examinations. Any amount withheld as a reserve shall reduce the amount payable under this Section 9.02 and shall be held in a segregated interest-bearing account (which may be commingled with similar accounts). The unused portion of any reserve shall be distributed with interest thereon pursuant to this Section 9.02 after the Board of Managers shall have determined that the need therefor shall have ceased.

(f) If a Member has a deficit balance in its Capital Account after giving effect to all contributions, distributions, and allocations for all taxable years, including the year in which the liquidation occurs, the Member shall have no obligation to make any contribution to the capital of the Company with respect to such deficit, and such deficit shall not be considered a debt owed by such Member to the Company or to any other Person, for any purpose whatsoever.

ARTICLE X

ALLOCATION RULES

10.01. Special Allocations.

(a) Minimum Gain Chargeback. Notwithstanding any other provision of Article IV or this Article X, except to the extent that Regulations Section 1.704-2(f) (or any other applicable authority) provides an exception to the operation of the minimum gain chargeback requirement of the Regulations, if there is a net decrease in Company Minimum Gain during any Accounting Period, each Member shall be specially allocated items of income and gain for such Accounting Period in an amount equal to such Member's share of the net decrease in the Company's Minimum Gain (within the meaning of Regulations Section 1.704-2(g)(2)), determined in accordance with Regulations Section 1.704-2(g). In the event that the minimum gain chargeback requirement imposed by this Subsection and Regulations Section 1.704-2(f) exceeds the Company's income and gains for the Accounting Period, the excess shall be treated as a minimum gain chargeback requirement, and shall be specially allocated under this Subsection, in the immediately succeeding Accounting Periods until fully charged back. Allocations pursuant to this Section 10.01(a) shall be made in proportion to the respective amounts required to be allocated to each Member pursuant hereto. The items to be allocated shall be determined in accordance with Regulations Sections l.704-2(f)(6) and 1.704-2(j). This Section 10.01(a) is intended to comply with the minimum gain chargeback requirement in the Regulations and shall be interpreted consistently therewith.

(b) Member Nonrecourse Debt Minimum Gain Chargeback. Notwithstanding any other provision of Article IV or this Article X, except to the extent that Regulations Section 1.704-2(i)(4) (or any other applicable authority) provides an exception to the operation of the partner nonrecourse debt minimum gain chargeback requirement of the Regulations, if there is a net decrease in Member Nonrecourse Debt Minimum Gain attributable to a Member Nonrecourse Debt during any Accounting Period, each Member who has a share of the Member Nonrecourse Debt Minimum Gain attributable to such Member Nonrecourse Debt, determined in accordance with Regulations Section 1.704-2(i)(5), as of the beginning of that Accounting Period, shall be specially allocated items of income and gain for such Accounting Period (and, if necessary, succeeding Accounting Periods) in an amount equal to such Member's share of the net decrease in Member Nonrecourse Debt Minimum Gain. A Member's share of the net decrease in Member Nonrecourse Debt Minimum Gain shall be determined in a manner consistent with the provisions of Regulations Sections 1.704-2(j)(2) and 1.704-2(i)(4). Allocations pursuant to this Subsection shall be made in proportion to the respective amounts required to be allocated to each Member pursuant to this Subsection and Regulations Section 1.704-2(i)(4). The items to be so allocated shall be determined in accordance with Regulations Sections 1.704-2(i)(4) and (j)(2). This Section 10.01(b) is intended to comply with the partner nonrecourse debt minimum gain chargeback requirement in the Regulations and shall be interpreted consistently therewith.

(c) Qualified Income Offset. If any Member unexpectedly receives any adjustments, allocations, or distributions described in Regulations Sections 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), (5), and (6), items of income and gain (consisting of a pro rata portion of each item of income, including gross income and gain) shall be specially allocated to that Member in an amount and manner sufficient to eliminate any Adjusted Capital Account Deficit created by such adjustments, allocations, or distributions as quickly as possible; provided, however, that an allocation pursuant to this Subsection shall be made only if and to the extent that such Member would have an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit after all other allocations provided for in this Article X (including, for avoidance of doubt, allocations pursuant to Section 10.01(d) below) have been tentatively made as if this Subsection were not a part of this Agreement.

(d) Gross Income Allocation. If any Member has a deficit Capital Account at the end of any Accounting Period that is in excess of the sum of the amount such Member is obligated to restore, or the amount such Member is deemed obligated to restore pursuant to the next to last sentences of Regulations Section 1.704-2(g)(l) and Section 1.704-2(i)(5), the Member shall be specially allocated items of income and gain in the amount of such excess as quickly as possible; provided, however, that an allocation pursuant to this Subsection shall be made only if and to the extent that such Member would have a deficit Capital Account in excess of such sum after all other allocations provided for in this Article have been tentatively made as if this Subsection and the qualified income offset provision set forth in the preceding Subsection were not a part of this Agreement.

(e) Code Section 754 Adjustments. To the extent an adjustment to the adjusted tax basis of any asset of the Company pursuant to Code Section 734(b) or Code Section 743(b) is required, pursuant to Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m)(2) or (4), to be taken into account in determining Capital Accounts as a result of a distribution to a Member in complete liquidation of its interest in the Company, the amount of such adjustment to the Capital Accounts of the Members shall be treated as an item of gain (if the adjustment increases the basis of the asset) or loss (if the adjustment decreases such basis), and such gain or loss shall be specially allocated to the Members in accordance with their interests in the Company in the event Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m)(2) applies, or to the Member to whom such distribution was made in the event Regulations Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m)(4) applies.

(f) Nonrecourse Deductions. Nonrecourse Deductions for any Accounting Period shall be specially allocated to the Members in the same manner that Profits and Losses are allocated under Article IV for the applicable Accounting Period.

(g) Member Nonrecourse Deductions. Any Member Nonrecourse Deductions for any Accounting Period shall be specially allocated to the Member who bears the economic risk of loss with respect to the Member Nonrecourse Debt to which such Member Nonrecourse Deductions are attributable in accordance with Regulations Section 1.704-2(i).

(h) Corrective Allocations. The allocations set forth in the preceding Subsections of this Section 10.01 (the "Regulatory Allocations") are intended to comply with certain requirements of the Regulations. It is the intent of the Members that, to the extent possible, all Regulatory Allocations shall be offset either with other Regulatory Allocations or with special allocations of other items of income, gain, loss, or deduction pursuant to this Section 10.01(h). Therefore, notwithstanding any other provision of Article IV or this Article X (other than the Regulatory Allocations), the Board of Managers shall make such offsetting special allocations of income, gain, loss, or deduction in whatever manner it determines to be appropriate so that, after such offsetting allocations are made, each Member's Capital Account balance is, to the extent possible, equal to the Capital Account balance such Member would have had if the Regulatory Allocations were not part of this Agreement and all items were allocated pursuant to Article IV. In making any allocation under this Section 10.01(h), the Board of Managers shall take into account future Regulatory Allocations under Sections 10.01(a) and (b) that, although not yet made, are likely to offset other Regulatory Allocations previously made under Sections 10.01(f) and 10.01(g).

10.02. Code Section 704(c).

(a) In accordance with Code Section 704(c) and the Regulations thereunder, income, gain, loss, and deduction with respect to any property contributed (or deemed contributed for federal income tax purposes) to the capital of the Company, solely for tax purposes shall be allocated among the Members so as to take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of such property to the Company for federal income tax purposes and its initial Gross Asset Value. If the Gross Asset Value of any asset of the Company is revalued pursuant to Section 3.08(b), subsequent allocations of income, gain, loss and deduction with respect to such asset shall take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of such asset for federal income tax purposes and its Gross Asset Value in the same manner as under Code Section 704(c) and the Regulations thereunder.

(b) Any elections or other decisions relating to allocations made under this Section 10.02 shall be made in any manner that reasonably reflects the purpose and intention of this Agreement. Allocations pursuant to this Section 10.02 are solely for income tax purposes and shall not affect or in any way be taken into account in computing, any Person's share of Profits, Losses, or other items or distributions pursuant to any provision of this Agreement.

(c) The provisions of this Section 10.02 are intended to comply with Code Section 704(c) and the Regulations promulgated thereunder. The Board of Managers shall make any modifications to this Agreement as may be required to comply with Code Section 704(c) and the Regulations thereunder.

10.03. Other Allocation Rules.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, items of taxable income, gain, loss, deduction, and credit shall be allocated among the Members for income tax purposes in a manner consistent with the allocations made for "book purposes" under Article IV and this Article X. Taxable income or loss for any Accounting Period that is not allocated pursuant to the preceding sentence and that is not otherwise allocated pursuant to Article IV or this Article X shall be allocated among the Members for tax purposes in the same proportion that Profit or Loss has been allocated for that Accounting Period under Article IV.

(b) For purposes of determining the Profits, Losses, or any other items allocable to any Accounting Period, Profits, Losses, and any such other items shall be determined on a daily, monthly, or other basis, as determined by the Board of Managers using any permissible method under Code Section 706 and the Regulations thereunder.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, all items of income, gain, loss, deduction, and any other allocations not otherwise provided for shall be divided among the Members in the same proportions as they share Profits or Losses, as the case may be, for the applicable Accounting Period.

(d) Notwithstanding the other provisions of Article IV or this Article X, the Board of Managers is authorized to make any adjustment in the allocation of Profits or Losses provided for in such Articles if the Board of Managers considers in good faith that the adjustment is necessary and equitable to correct errors in allocations caused by errors in unaudited financial information or to correct inequities that may arise under this Agreement, including those that may result from there being multiple Accounting Periods during a single Fiscal Year or during the term of this Agreement rather than a single Accounting Period.

(e) Solely for purposes of determining each Member's share of "excess nonrecourse liabilities" of the Company, as such term is defined in Regulations Section 1.752-3(a)(3), each Member's interest in profits for any Accounting Period shall be, for each Member, such Member's Percentage Interest.

(f) To the extent permitted by Regulations Section 1.704-2(h)(3), the Company shall endeavor to treat distributions as having been made from the proceeds of a Nonrecourse Liability or a Member Nonrecourse Debt only to the extent that such distributions would cause or increase an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit for any Member.

ARTICLE XI

BOOKS AND RECORDS, ACCOUNTING, TAX ELECTIONS AND TAX MATTERS

11.01. Maintenance of Records; Information Rights.

The Company shall maintain true and correct books and records, in which shall be entered all transactions of the Company, and shall maintain all other records necessary, convenient, or incidental to recording the Company's business and affairs, which shall be sufficient to record the allocation of Profits and Losses and distributions as provided for herein. All decisions as to accounting principles, accounting methods, and other accounting matters shall be made by the Board of Managers. Except to the extent expressly set forth in this Agreement, in accordance with Section 18-305(g) of the Act and to the extent permitted by the Act, no Member shall be entitled to inspect to the books and records of the Company or shall be entitled to any other information with respect to the Company. For so long as they remain officers of the Company and are entitled to designate members of the Board of Managers, each of Austin Berk and Jonathan Wyss shall be entitled to inspect the books and records of the Company, upon reasonable notice to the Company and at a time and place reasonably agreed upon with the Company.

11.02. Schedule K-1 Delivery.

The Company shall furnish to each Member for so long as such Member is a Member, copies of the Schedule K-1 of the federal return and any similar schedule to the state return for each tax year of the Company, reasonably promptly after such copies for such tax year are available.

11.03. Tax Elections; Determinations Not Provided for in Agreement.

Subject to Section 6.03, the Board of Managers shall be empowered to make or revoke any elections now or hereafter required or permitted to be made by the Code or any state or local tax law, and to decide in a fair and equitable manner any accounting procedures and other matters arising with respect to the Company or under this Agreement that are not expressly provided for in this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, absent the unanimous consent of all Members (excluding, for such purpose, MIP LLC) to the contrary, the Company and all Members shall take any steps that may be necessary to elect partnership status for purposes of the Code and any applicable state or local tax law. No provision of this Agreement shall be construed to sanction or approve any action inconsistent with the preceding sentence. The Company shall not, and the Board of Managers shall not permit the Company to, take or approve any of the following actions without the consent of the Parakeet Member (not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), other than any decision to take bonus depreciation under Code Section 168(k), (i) making any change in the classification of the Company for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (ii) changing any material tax election (unless required by Applicable Law), or (iii) settling any material audit or other tax claim, in each case, that would materially and adversely affect the Parakeet Member in a manner disproportionate from any Investor Member.

11.04. Partnership Audit Rules.

(a) Investor, or such other person designated by the Board of Managers in writing from time to time, will be the "partnership representative" of the Company within the meaning of Section 6223 of the Code (the "Partnership Representative"). With respect to any period in which any non-individual is the Partnership Representative, the Board of Managers shall cause the Company to appoint an individual eligible to be a "designated individual" under the Partnership Audit Rules (the "Designated Individual") through whom the Partnership Representative will act for all purposes of the Partnership Audit Rules. The Board of Managers is hereby authorized to take any actions necessary under the Partnership Audit Rules or other guidance to designate the Partnership Representative and appoint the Designated Individual with respect to each taxable year of the Company (and the Partnership Representative and the Designated Individual are authorized to take any actions specified under the Partnership Audit Rules or any applicable state statute or local law), and the Company shall comply with any requirements necessary to effect such designations and appointments. In exercising its authority as Partnership Representative under the Partnership Audit rules, the Partnership Representative shall at all times be subject to the direction of the Board of Managers, provided, further that the Board of Managers may elect to terminate the Partnership Representative and appoint another Partnership Representative to the extent permitted under the Treasury Regulations that implement the Partnership Audit Rules.

(b) The Partnership Representative and the Designated Individual, if any, (collectively, the "Tax Representative") shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to apply the rules and elections under the Partnership Audit Rules in a manner that minimizes the likelihood that any Member would bear any material tax, interest or penalties as a result of any audit or proceeding that is attributable to another Member (other than a predecessor in interest). The Board of Managers and Tax Representative are hereby authorized to take any action required to cause the financial burden of any "imputed underpayment" (as determined under Section 6225 of the Code) and associated interest, adjustments to tax and penalties arising from a partnership-level adjustment that are imposed on the Company (an "Imputed Underpayment") to be borne by the Members to whom such Imputed Underpayment relates as determined by the Tax Representative after consulting with the Company's accountants or other advisers, taking into account any differences in the amount of taxes attributable to each Member because of such Member's status, nationality or other characteristics. By executing this Agreement or a counterpart hereof, each Member (i) expressly authorizes the Tax Representative and the Company to take any and all action that is reasonably necessary under applicable federal income tax law (as such law may be revised from time to time) to cause the Company to make the election set forth in Section 6226(a) of the Code if the Tax Representative decides to make such election, and (ii) expressly agrees to take any action, and furnish the Tax Representative with any information necessary, to give effect to such election. Each Member hereby severally indemnifies and holds the Company, the Board of Managers and the Tax Representative harmless for such Member's respective portion of the financial burden of an Imputed Underpayment as provided in the foregoing sentence and in furtherance thereof, each Member agrees (A) to pay such amount to the Company within fifteen (15) days following the Company's request for payment (and any failure to pay such amount shall result in interest on such amount calculated at the prime rate plus two percent (2%)) and (B) that any amounts otherwise distributable to such Member may be applied in satisfaction of such obligations. Except with the express written consent of the Board of Managers, each Member shall be jointly and severally liable with their predecessors in interest, if any, for amounts owed hereunder in respect of any predecessor in interest to such Member. No Member shall file a notice with the Internal Revenue Service under Section 6222(c)(1)(B) of the Code in connection with such Member's intention to treat an item on such Member's Federal income tax return in a manner that is inconsistent with the treatment of such item on the Company's Federal income tax return unless such Member has, not less than thirty (30) days prior to the filing of such notice, provided the Tax Representative with a copy of the notice and thereafter in a timely manner provides such other information related thereto as the Tax Representative shall reasonably request.

(c) The Tax Representative shall employ experienced tax counsel to represent the Company in connection with any audit or investigation of the Company by a taxing authority and in connection with all subsequent administrative and judicial proceedings arising out of such audit. The fees and expenses of such, and all expenses incurred by the Tax Representative in serving as such, shall be Company expenses and shall be paid by the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it shall be the responsibility of the Board of Managers and of each Member, at their expense, to employ tax counsel to represent their respective separate interests.

(d) If the Tax Representative is required by Applicable Law or regulation to incur fees and expenses in connection with tax matters not affecting each of the Members, then the Tax Representative may, in its reasonable discretion, seek reimbursement from or charge such fees and expenses to the Capital Accounts of those Members on whose behalf such fees and expenses were incurred

(e) The provisions of this Section 11.04 shall survive the termination of the Company or the termination of any Membership Interests and shall remain binding on the Members for as long a period of time as is necessary to resolve with the Internal Revenue Service any and all matters regarding the federal income taxation of the Company or the Members (relating to the operations of the Company).

ARTICLE XII

INITIAL PUBLIC OFFERING

12.01. Conversion Upon Initial Public Offering.

(a) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the Board of Managers may determine in good faith at any time, without the requirement for consent by any Member, that the Company or any of its Subsidiaries should engage in an Initial Public Offering. In the event that the Board of Managers makes any such determination, the Board of Managers and the other Members will cooperate with each other in good faith so that the Initial Public Offering, and any IPO Conversion in connection therewith, is effected in a tax-efficient manner. Subject to the immediately preceding sentence but otherwise notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in connection with any proposed Initial Public Offering approved by the Board of Managers, the Board of Managers may (i) cause this Agreement to be amended to provide for a conversion in accordance with Applicable Law to a corporation or such other business entity or capital structure as the Board of Managers may determine, (ii) cause the distribution of shares, units or other equity interests of any Subsidiary of the Company to the Members in accordance with Section 5.02, (iii) form a Subsidiary holding company and distribute its shares to the Members, (iv) move the Company to another jurisdiction to facilitate any of the foregoing and/or (v) take such other steps as it deems necessary or appropriate to create a suitable vehicle for an offering, in each such case, in accordance with the Act and Applicable Law (the resulting entity, the "IPO Corporation"), and in each case, for the express purpose of an initial offering of the securities of such IPO Corporation for sale to the public in a registered public offering pursuant to the Securities Act (an "IPO Conversion").

(b) In connection with any proposed IPO Conversion, at the option of the Board of Managers, all or any portion of the Membership Interests (the "Pre-IPO Subject Securities") may be converted into or exchanged or redeemed for shares (or other equity securities and/or options at Fair Market Value) and other rights with substantially equivalent economic, governance, priority and other rights and privileges as in effect immediately prior to such IPO Conversion (disregarding the tax treatment of such conversion, exchange or redemption) (the "Post-IPO Subject Securities"). In connection with any such conversion, exchange or redemption, the number of Post-IPO Subject Securities to be issued to the Members in respect to the Pre-IPO Subject Securities shall be determined on a consistent basis by the Board of Managers based upon (i) the Fair Market Value of the Company on the date of the IPO Conversion as determined in good faith by the Board of Managers and (ii) the resulting relative values of the Pre-IPO Subject Securities assuming the Company is dissolved and the net proceeds are distributed to the owners of Pre-IPO Subject Securities in accordance with Section 5.02. If any such conversion, exchange or redemption is effected, each Member agrees to execute and deliver all agreements, instruments and documents as may be reasonably requested or required in order to consummate such conversion, exchange or redemption. For the avoidance of doubt, it is understood that all Members owning the same Pre-IPO Subject Securities shall receive the same type and amount of Post-IPO Subject Securities on a pro rata basis based on the relative amounts of such Pre-IPO Subject Securities owned by such Members immediately prior to the IPO Conversion.

(c) Subject to Section 12.01(a) and Section 12.01(b), if the Board of Managers determines to effect an IPO Conversion, each Member shall cooperate in good faith with the Board of Managers, including taking all actions reasonably requested or required by the Board of Managers, in connection with consummating the IPO Conversion. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in connection with the consummation of the Initial Public Offering, the IPO Corporation and each Member shall enter into a stockholders agreement having substantially identical terms and conditions (taking into the account the corporate form of the IPO Corporation) as set forth in this Section 12.01, Sections 6.06, 6.07, and 6.08, Article VII and Article XIII.

Each Member hereby agrees that, during such period (which period shall in no event exceed one hundred eighty (180) days or such longer period required to comply with applicable Financial Industry Regulatory Authority regulatory requirements, subject to any customary "booster shot" extensions) following the effective date of a registration statement filed with the SEC in connection with the Initial Public Offering of the Company, as the Board of Managers (or its designee) agrees to with the underwriter or underwriters of such offering (such period, the "Lock-Up Period"), it shall not, to the extent requested by the Company and/or any underwriter, directly or indirectly, sell, pledge, hypothecate, make any short sale of, loan, grant any option or right to purchase of, enter into any hedging agreement or derivative transaction (cash settled or otherwise), establish any "put equivalent position" within the meaning of Rule 16(a)-1(h) of the Exchange Act or otherwise dispose of or Transfer (other than to donees who agree to be similarly bound) any Pre-IPO Subject Securities or Post-IPO Subject Securities owned by it at any time during such period, except any Post-IPO Subject Securities included in such registration. Each Member agrees that it shall deliver to the underwriter or underwriters of the Initial Public Offering to such Member a customary agreement reflecting its agreement set forth in this Section 12.02. The foregoing provisions of this Section 12.02 shall only be applicable to the Members if all officers, members of the Board of Managers and holders of greater than one percent (1%) of the Company's equity enter into similar agreements; provided, further that if any of the obligations described in this Section 12.02 are waived or terminated with respect to any securities of any other Member, officer of the Company, Manager or holder of greater than one percent (1%) of the Company's equity (in any such case, the "Released Securities"), the foregoing provisions shall be waived or terminated, to the same extent and with respect to the same percentage of securities of each Member as the percentage that the Released Securities represent with respect to the securities held by the applicable Member, officer, Board of Managers member or holder of greater than one percent (1%) of the Company's equity.

ARTICLE XIII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

13.01. Notices.

Except as otherwise explicitly set forth herein with respect to notice under certain specified circumstances, all notices, consents, waivers, requests, or other instruments or communications given pursuant to this Agreement shall be in writing, shall be signed by the party giving the same, and shall be: (i) delivered by hand; (ii) sent by registered or certified United States mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid; (iii) sent by a recognized overnight delivery service; or (iv) sent by electronic mail with confirmation by electronic mail acknowledgement by the receiving party and followed by delivery of such notice by a recognized overnight delivery service. Such notices, instruments, or communications shall be addressed, in the case of the Company, to the Company at its principal place of business, and in the case of any Member, to the address set forth in the Company's books and records; except that any Member may, by notice to the Company and each other Member, specify any other address for the receipt of such notices, instruments, or communications. Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, any notice, instrument, or other communication shall be deemed properly given when sent in the manner prescribed in this Section 13.01. In computing the period of time for the giving of any notice, the day on which the notice is given shall be excluded and the day on which the matter noticed is to occur shall be included. If notice is given by personal delivery, then it shall be deemed given on the date personally delivered to such person. If notice is given by mail, it shall be deemed given when deposited in the mail addressed to the person to whom it is directed at the last address of the person as it appears on the records of the Company, with prepaid postage thereon. If notice is given by nationally recognized overnight courier delivery service, then it shall be deemed given on the first (1st) Business Day after the date delivered to such nationally recognized overnight courier delivery service. If notice is given by electronic mail (with confirmation by electronic mail acknowledgement by the receiving party and followed by a recognized overnight delivery service in accordance with this Section 13.01), then it shall be deemed given on the day delivered by electronic mail. If notice is given in any other manner authorized herein or by Applicable Law, it shall be deemed given when actually delivered, unless otherwise specified herein or by Applicable Law.

13.02. Interpretation.

(a) Article, Section, and Subsection headings are not to be considered part of this Agreement, are included solely for convenience of reference and are not intended to be full or accurate descriptions of the contents thereof.

(b) Use of the terms "herein," "hereunder," "hereof," and like terms shall be deemed to refer to this entire Agreement and not merely to the particular provision in which the term is contained, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

(c) Use of the word "including" or a like term shall be construed to mean "including, but not limited to."

(d) Exhibits and schedules to this Agreement are an integral part of this Agreement.

(e) Words importing a particular gender shall include every other gender, and words importing the singular shall include the plural and vice-versa, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

(f) Any reference to a provision of the Code, Regulations, or the Act shall be construed to be a reference to any successor provision thereof.

13.03. Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Venue; Waiver of Jury Trial.

(a) This Agreement and all matters arising herefrom or with respect hereto, including tort claims (the "Covered Matters") shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the internal laws of the State of Delaware, without reference to the choice of law principles thereof. Each of the parties hereto irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the federal and state courts located in the State of Delaware for the purpose of any suit, action, proceeding or judgment relating to or arising out of the Covered Matters. Service of process in connection with any such suit, action or proceeding may be served on each party hereto anywhere in the world by the same methods as are specified for the giving of notices under this Agreement. Each of the parties hereto irrevocably consents to the jurisdiction of any such court in any such suit, action or proceeding and to the laying of venue in such court. Each party hereto irrevocably waives any objection to the laying of venue of any such suit, action, or proceeding brought in such courts and irrevocably waives any claim that any such suit, action, or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

(b) TO THE EXTENT NOT PROHIBITED BY APPLICABLE LAW THAT CANNOT BE WAIVED, EACH PARTY HEREBY WAIVES, AND COVENANTS THAT IT WILL NOT ASSERT (WHETHER AS PLAINTIFF, DEFENDANT OR OTHERWISE), ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY FORUM IN RESPECT OF ANY ISSUE, CLAIM, DEMAND, ACTION OR CAUSE OF ACTION ARISING IN WHOLE OR IN PART UNDER, RELATED TO, BASED ON OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT OR THE SUBJECT MATTER HEREOF, WHETHER NOW EXISTING OR HEREAFTER ARISING AND WHETHER SOUNDING IN TORT OR CONTRACT OR OTHERWISE. ANY PARTY HERETO MAY FILE AN ORIGINAL COUNTERPART OR A COPY OF THIS SECTION 13.03(b) WITH ANY COURT AS WRITTEN EVIDENCE OF THE CONSENT OF EACH SUCH PARTY TO THE WAIVER OF ITS RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY.

13.04. Binding Agreement.

This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Members and their respective Permitted Transferees, heirs, executors, administrators, personal representatives, successors and permitted assigns.

13.05. Severability.

Each item and provision of this Agreement is intended to be severable. Except to the extent otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, if any term or provision of this Agreement is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable for any reason whatsoever, that term or provision shall be modified only to the extent necessary to be enforced, such term or provision shall be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by Applicable Law, and the validity of the remainder of this Agreement shall not be adversely affected thereby.

13.06. Entire Agreement.

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the Members and their respective Affiliates with respect to the subject matters hereof and thereof and supersede any and all other understandings and agreements, either oral or in writing, between the Members with respect to the subject matters hereof.

13.07. Further Action.

(a) Each Member shall execute and deliver all papers, documents, and instruments and perform all acts that are necessary or appropriate to implement the terms of this Agreement and the intent of the Members, as and when requested by the Board of Managers.

(b) If Jonathan Wyss has not executed and delivered to the Company the Wyss Offer Letter and associated Restrictive Covenants Agreement, each in the form attached hereto as Attachment I and Attachment II, respectively, no later than March 15, 2022, then the Board of Managers may, in its sole and absolute discretion, take one or more of the following actions (i) remove Jonathan Wyss as a Manager; and (ii) cause the Company to redeem all or any of the Units in which he directly or indirectly has a beneficial, pecuniary or legal interest, in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 7.11, where he shall be deemed a Specified Employee whose employment was terminated upon such Board election (even if not then actually employed by the Company or a subsidiary thereof) solely for such purpose and the Redemption Price shall be equal to the dollar amount paid to the Company for such Units.

13.08. Amendment or Modification.

This Agreement (including the exhibits hereto) may be amended or modified from time to time by the Board of Managers (subject to Section 6.03); provided, however, that this Agreement may not be amended so as to materially and adversely affect the rights of MIP LLC or the Parakeet Member, respectively, under this Agreement in a manner disproportionate from all similarly situated Members (in each case, as opposed to an amendment that affects all Members equally or which affects all Common Members equally, in the case of the Parakeet Member), as determined in good faith by the Board of Managers, without the written consent of MIP LLC or the Parakeet Member, respectively; provided, further, that (i) an amendment or other modification by the Board of Managers to this Agreement (including Exhibit A) to reflect a change in the ownership of the Company, or that is provided for or otherwise permitted by this Agreement (including, but not limited to, Sections 3.01(b), 3.04(b), and 3.05(b)), the admission of a new Member, issuance of additional Membership Interests, and certain Transfers of Units by an existing Member) shall not be deemed an amendment or modification to this Agreement, (ii) in determining whether an amendment materially and adversely affects the rights of MIP LLC or the Parakeet Member, respectively, under this Agreement in a manner disproportionate from all similarly situated Members, only MIP LLC's interests or the Parakeet Member's interests, respectively, in his, her or its capacity as a holder of Units under this Agreement shall be considered, and any other relationship(s), other commercial arrangements, or other circumstances MIP LLC or the Parakeet Member, respectively, may have with or involving the Company, any of its direct or indirect subsidiaries or the other Members, shall not be considered and no other characteristics of MIP LLC or the Parakeet Member, respectively, shall be considered, and (iii) the percentage allocation to the Class P Units relative to the Common Units in Sections 5.02(a)(iii), (iv), (v) and (vi) (i.e., 20%, 25%, 30% and 40%), shall not be amended without the Parakeet Member's prior written consent.

13.09. Representations.

Each of the parties hereto hereby represents and warrants to each of the other parties that, on the Effective Date (and in respect of Persons who become a party to this Agreement after the Effective Date, such party hereby represents and warrants to each of the other parties on the date of its execution of this Agreement) as follows:

(a) Such party (if not a natural person) is duly organized or incorporated, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its organization or incorporation and has all requisite power and authority to conduct its business as it is now being conducted and is proposed to be conducted.

(b) Such party (if not a natural person) has the requisite limited partnership, corporate, limited liability company or other organizational power, authority and legal capacity, as the case may be, to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated herein. Such party (if a natural person) has the legal capacity to enter into this Agreement and perform such party's obligations hereunder. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated herein have been duly authorized by all necessary action, corporate or otherwise, of such party. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by such party and constitutes his, her or its legal, valid and binding obligation, enforceable against him, her or it in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency and similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and the availability of equitable remedies.

(c) The execution and delivery by such party of this Agreement, the performance by such party of his, her or its obligations hereunder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated herein by such party does not and will not violate (i) in the case of parties who are not individuals, any provision of its by-laws, charter, articles of association, partnership agreement, operating agreement, trust instrument or other similar document, (ii) any provision of any material agreement to which he, she or it is a party or by which he, she or it is bound or (iii) any law, rule, regulation, judgment, order or decree to which he, she or it is subject.

(d) Such party is not in breach of any agreement requiring it to preserve the confidentiality of any information, client/investor lists, trade secrets, or other confidential information, or any agreement not to compete, solicit clients/investors or employees of, or interfere with, any prior employer, and that neither the execution of this Agreement nor the performance by such party of its obligations hereunder will conflict with, result in a breach of, or constitute a default under, any agreement or policy to which such party is a party or may be subject.

(e) No consent, waiver, approval, authorization, exemption, registration, license or declaration is required to be made or obtained by such party in connection with the execution, delivery or enforceability of this Agreement or the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated herein.

(f) Such party is not currently in violation of any law, rule, regulation, judgment, order or decree, which violation could reasonably be expected at any time to have a material adverse effect upon such party's ability to enter into this Agreement or to perform his, her or its obligations hereunder.

(g) There is no pending legal action, suit or proceeding that would materially and adversely affect the ability of such party to enter into this Agreement or to perform his, her or its obligations hereunder.

(h) Such party is an "accredited investor," as defined in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D promulgated under the Securities Act, has acquired his, her or its interest in the Company for such Member's own account, for investment only, and not with a view to the sale or distribution of that interest or any portion of that interest. Such party recognizes that an investment in the Company is speculative and involves certain risks and that the Member could lose his, her or its entire investment in the Company.

(i) Such party understands that the Securities have not been registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred except: (1) pursuant to an exemption from registration under the Securities Act (and, if requested by the Company, based upon an opinion of counsel acceptable to the Company) or pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act and (2) in accordance with all applicable securities laws of the states of the United States and other jurisdictions.

(j) Such party has such knowledge, sophistication and experience in business and financial matters so as to be capable of evaluating the merits and risks of the prospective investment in the Securities, having been represented by counsel, and has so evaluated the merits and risks of such investment and is able to bear the economic risk of such investment and, at the present time, is able to afford a complete loss of such investment.

(k) Such party or its representatives have been afforded: (i) the opportunity to ask such questions as it has deemed necessary of, and to receive answers from, representatives of the Company concerning the terms and conditions of the offering of the Securities and the merits and risks of investing in the Securities; and (ii) access to information about the Company and the Company's financial condition, results of operations, business, properties, management and prospects sufficient to enable it to evaluate its investment in the Securities.

(l) Such party understands and acknowledges that: (i) the Securities are offered and sold without registration under the Securities Act in a private placement that is exempt from the registration provisions of the Securities Act and (ii) the availability of such exemption depends in part on, and that the Company and its counsel will rely upon, the accuracy and truthfulness of the foregoing representations and such party hereby consents to such reliance.

13.10. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in original or by facsimile or other electronic communication (including PDF) in several counterparts and, as so executed, shall constitute one agreement, binding on all of the parties hereto, notwithstanding that all of the parties are not signatory to the original or to the same counterpart.

13.11. Representation; Conflict Waiver.

(a) This Agreement was prepared and/or negotiated by Lowenstein Sandler LLP in its capacity as legal counsel to the Company and Investor Member. In connection with its preparation and negotiation of this Agreement, each of the Members acknowledges that Lowenstein Sandler LLP has advised each Member that (1) the individual interests of such Member may be different than the interests of the Company and Investor Member; and (2) it would be in the best interest of each Member to retain its, his or her own counsel for the purpose of advising such Member how this Agreement affects each of their personal interests. Each of the Members hereby (i) agrees to waive any conflict of interest that may arise out of Lowenstein Sandler LLP's simultaneous representation of the Company and Investor Member; and (ii) acknowledges that such Member has been advised to consult with its own counsel regarding such waiver and has done so to the extent it considers necessary. Each of the Members hereby further acknowledges that such Member has, to the extent such Member considers necessary, retained and consulted with such Member's own counsel for the purpose of advising such Member with respect to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) Each of the Members agrees that Lowenstein Sandler LLP may serve or continue to serve as counsel to each of the Company and Investor Member and any of their respective Affiliates, in connection with any matters related or unrelated to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby (collectively, the "Transactions"), including any litigation, claim or obligation arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the Transactions, notwithstanding any representation by Lowenstein Sandler LLP prior to the Effective Date of the Company or Investor Member. The Members and the Company hereby (1) waive any claim they have or may have that Lowenstein Sandler LLP has a conflict of interest or is otherwise prohibited from engaging in such representation, (2) agree that, in the event that a dispute arises after the Effective Date between the Company, on the one hand, and the Investor Members or any of their Affiliates, on the other hand, Lowenstein Sandler LLP may represent the Investor Members and any of their Affiliates, in such dispute even though the interests of such Person(s) may be directly adverse to the Company and even though Lowenstein Sandler LLP may have represented the Company in a matter substantially related to such dispute, and (3) agree that in the event that a dispute arises after the Effective Date among the Company or the Investor Members and any of their Affiliates, on the one hand, and the Members or any of their Affiliates, on the other hand, Lowenstein Sandler LLP may represent the Company or the Investor Members and any of its Affiliates, in such dispute.

13.12. Broker's Indemnity; Company Accountant; Certain Expenses.

(a) The Common Members represent and warrant, each to the other, that no investment bankers, brokers, finders, advisors or consultants were involved in the negotiation and/or consummation of this transaction. In the event that any investment banker, broker, finder or similar person claims any commission or similar compensation in connection with this Agreement or the formation of the Company, the Member through whom the investment banker, broker, finder or similar person makes its claim shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the other Member, its Representatives, agents and the Company from and against any and all liabilities, losses, claims, costs, damages and expenses (including, but not limited to, any judgment, award or settlement and reasonable attorneys' costs, expenses and fees, costs and expenses of investigation, and other costs or expenses incurred in connection with the defense of any actual or threatened action, proceeding or claim) which any of them may suffer or incur by reason of any such claim. The provisions of this Section 13.12(a) shall survive the termination of this Agreement, the liquidation of the Company, the dissolution of the Company, the withdrawal, resignation or retirement of a Member from the Company, the transfer of a Member's interest in the Company and the liquidation of a Member's interest in the Company.

(b) The Company shall retain as its accountant for the Company ("Company Accountant") any nationally-recognized accounting firm proposed and approved by Board of Managers. The fees and expenses of the Company Accountant shall be a Company expense.

(c) The Company shall bear the expenses of the Investor Members and the Parakeet Members in connection with the negotiation, documentation, and entry into this Agreement and the other agreements contemplated hereby (including the Offer Letters); provided, that, to the extent any material acquisition of assets by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries occurs after the Effective Date, the Investor Members and Parakeet Member's reasonable and documented third-party fees and expenses incurred in connection with the negotiation and consummation of such acquisition will be reimbursed by the Company from the collective Capital Contributions of the Members.

13.13. Third Party Loans.

(a) If the Company or any of its Subsidiaries obtains a Third Party Loan and the Third Party Lender thereunder demands or requires that one or more Third Party Loan Guaranties be delivered in connection therewith, then the following shall apply:

(i) The Company and/or the Key Personnel shall execute and deliver any reasonable (A) guaranty of so-called "recourse carveout" provisions (including, without limitation, fraud, misrepresentation, misappropriation or misapplication of funds, misapplication of rents after default, waste, gross negligence and willful misconduct) (any such guaranty, a "Recourse Guaranty"), (B) any guaranty of completion and/or budget (any such guaranty, a "Completion Guaranty"), (C) guaranty of any liability resulting from any bankruptcy event (any such guaranty, a "Bankruptcy Guaranty"), and (D) any environmental indemnity (any such indemnity, an "Environmental Indemnity"), in each case to the extent required by such Third Party Lender. For the avoidance of doubt, if any of the foregoing Third Party Loan Guaranties are not on reasonable terms, then neither the Company nor the Key Personnel will be required under the terms of this Agreement to execute and delivery such Third Party Loan Guaranty.

(ii) In no event shall the Investor Members or any Affiliate thereof (other than the Company) have any obligation to execute and deliver a Third Party Loan Guaranty, except as is otherwise determined by Investor in its sole and absolute discretion.

(iii) In the event that any Key Personnel makes or is required to make a payment under any Third Party Loan Guaranty (a "Guaranty Payment"), such Guaranty Payments shall be allocated as follows: (A) if such Guaranty Payment has been caused by the negligent, willful or knowingly wrongful acts or omissions of any Key Personnel or without the consent of or other approval by the Company (by Majority Board Vote of the Board of Managers), including by the commission of any event constituting "Cause" by any Key Personnel, then the applicable Key Personnel shall bear such cost, (B) otherwise, the Company and its Subsidiaries shall be responsible therefor and shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the applicable Key Personnel from and against any and all liabilities, losses, claims, costs, damages and expenses (including, but not limited to, any judgment, award or settlement and reasonable attorneys' costs, expenses and fees, costs and expenses of investigation, and other costs or expenses incurred in connection with the defense of any actual or threatened action, proceeding or claim) which any of them may suffer or incur by reason of any such Guaranty Payment. The Company shall be subrogated in respect of any indemnity payment made in respect of a Guaranty Payment pursuant to Section 13.13(a)(iii)(B).

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, each of the Key Personnel agree that they shall not take any actions (or omit to take any actions) that would prejudice the right of the Company and its Subsidiaries to contest and/or defend a Third Party Lender's claim for any Guaranty Payment.
