3.2 Admission of Management Members. The Manager from time to time may issue to Service Providers membership interests in the Company designated as "Management LLC Units" in accordance with and subject to the terms of this Plan. The Management LLC Units are non-voting. Upon acceptance of an Award, a Participant shall, automatically and without further action on his, her or its part, be deemed to be a party to, signatory of and bound by the MIP LLC Agreement as a Participant Member.

ARTICLE IV
AWARDS

4.1 Awards Subject to Plan. The total number of Management LLC Units authorized for issuance by the Company under the Plan at any time (the "Unit Pool") shall be such number as is set by the Holdco Manager from time to time. Any Management LLC Units that are forfeited or terminated without the distribution of any amounts hereunder in respect thereto shall again be available for issuance by the Company. Any change in the number of issued Management LLC Units or the number of Management LLC Units comprising the Unit Pool may result in a proportionate increase or reduction in each Participant's share of amounts distributable to the Company by Holdco. The Management LLC Units are subject to dilution and are not subject to anti-dilution protection.

4.2 Individual Awards. Without limiting the authority of the Manager contained in Article III, the Manager may from time to time select those Service Providers who will receive Awards, determine the number and the other conditions and distribution limitations (including vesting, forfeiture and otherwise) of the Management LLC Units to be issued to each such Service Provider and determine the Distribution Threshold for each Management LLC Unit on the date of issuance of such Management LLC Unit consistent with this Plan. The Manager may impose such other non-economic terms and conditions on the issuance of any Award as the Manager deems appropriate (including restrictive covenants); provided that any such terms and conditions shall be expressly set forth in the applicable Award Agreement.

4.3 Profits Interest and Distribution Threshold. The Manager, in connection with each grant of any Management LLC Units, shall establish an initial "Distribution Threshold" for such Management LLC Units as set forth in the applicable Award Agreement. The Distribution Threshold applicable to any Management LLC Units shall be adjusted, in the reasonable discretion of the Manager, to the extent necessary in connection with any additional Holdco Capital Contribution made to Holdco or other events to cause each Management LLC Unit to maintain classification as a "profits interest" in the Company within the meaning of Revenue Procedure 93-27, 1993-2 C.B. 343, as clarified by Revenue Procedure 2001-43, 2001-2 C.B. 191. The Company and each Participant agree that it is the intention of the Participants that allocations and distributions to each holder of Management LLC Units be limited to the extent necessary so that each Management LLC Unit qualifies as a profits interest and this Agreement should be interpreted consistently therewith. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Distribution Threshold applicable to a Management LLC Unit shall be adjusted or reset, as applicable, following the grant of such Management LLC Unit as follows: (i) in the event of any redemption or repurchase of Holdco Units by Holdco, the Distribution Threshold of each Management LLC Unit outstanding at the time of such redemption or repurchase shall be reduced (but not below zero) by the amount paid by Holdco to redeem or repurchase such Holdco Units; and (ii) in the event of any Holdco Capital Contribution with respect to any Holdco Units, the Distribution Threshold of each Management LLC Unit outstanding at the time of such Holdco Capital Contribution shall be increased by the amount of such Holdco Capital Contribution.

4.4 Tax Treatment. For the avoidance of doubt, each Participant shall be treated for tax purposes as a partner in a partnership, the Company, with respect to his, her or its Management LLC

Units starting on the date of grant of such Participant's Management LLC Unit(s). All payments to the Participant in respect of his, her or its Management LLC Unit(s) shall be treated as payments in respect of a partnership interest.

ARTICLE V
PAYMENT

5.1 Amounts Distributable in Respect of Management LLC Units.

(a) Each time Holdco makes a Holdco Distribution, Holdco shall make a Plan Distribution in the Plan Distribution Amount for further distribution to the Participants as set forth herein. The Plan Distribution Amount applicable to each Plan Distribution will be distributed by the Company to the Participants in respect of their Vested Management LLC Units in accordance with this Article V. A Plan Distribution generally represents the aggregate amount of each Participant's proportionate share (in respect of such Participant's Vested Management LLC Units and allocated in accordance with Section 5.1(b)) of such available profits distributable to the Company by Holdco in respect of its Holdco Class P Units, and further available for distribution to such Participant by the Company in respect of his, her or its Vested Management LLC Units in accordance with Section 5.1(b), taking into account the Distribution Threshold applicable to such Vested Management LLC Units. In furtherance of and without limiting the authority of the Manager under Section 3.1, the Manager shall have the power, in its sole and absolute discretion, to make such adjustments to this Plan as it deems necessary, advisable or convenient, including, without limitation, in order to provide for the making of any distributions hereunder in the form of securities, property or other non-cash consideration received in a Sale of Holdco.

(b) Promptly following the Company's receipt of all or any portion of a Plan Distribution from Holdco (either directly or pursuant to Section 5.03 of the Holdco LLC Agreement), or upon such later date or dates or events as provided in this Article V or in a Participant's Award Agreement (and subject to the satisfaction of any additional terms or conditions specified in this Article V or such Award Agreement), the Company shall distribute: (i) fifty percent (50%) of the Plan Distribution Amount to the JREF Entities holding Vested Management LLC Units pro rata in proportion to the number of Vested Management LLC Units (if any) held by such JREF Entities and (ii) fifty percent (50%) of the Plan Distribution Amount to the Other Participants holding Vested Management LLC Units pro rata in proportion to the number of Vested Management LLC Units (if any) held by such Other Participants, in the case of clauses (i) and (ii), subject to Section 5.2 and subject to any and all adjustments necessary to give effect to the provisos set forth below in this Section 5.1(b) and to any and all distribution catch-ups set forth in the Award Agreements with respect to the Vested Management LLC Units; provided, however, that, if at the time of any distribution pursuant to this Section 5.1(b), none of the Other Participants hold any Vested Management LLC Units, the aggregate amount that otherwise would have been distributed to the Other Participants pursuant to clause (ii) of this Section 5.1(b) shall be re-allocated among, and distributed to, the JREF Entities holding Vested Management LLC Units in accordance with clause (i) of this Section 5.1(b); provided, further, however, no distributions shall be made in respect of a Vested Management LLC Unit under this Section 5.1(b) until there shall have been distributions under Section 5.02(a) of the Holdco LLC Agreement subsequent to the issuance of such Vested Management LLC Unit in an aggregate amount equal to the Distribution Threshold with respect to such Vested Management LLC Unit (the "Distribution Threshold Condition"); and in the event that any amount is not distributed in respect of any Vested Management LLC Unit under clause (i) or clause (ii) of this Section 5.1(b) because the Distribution Threshold Condition with respect to such Vested Management LLC Unit has not been satisfied, then the amount not so distributed shall be re-allocated among, and distributed to, the Participants who hold Vested Management LLC Units for which the Distribution Threshold Condition has been satisfied in accordance with such clause (i) or clause (ii), as applicable. For the avoidance of doubt, no distributions shall be made pursuant to this Section 5.1(b) in respect of any portion of the Plan Distribution Amount which is contingent, deferred or retained in accordance with the terms of any escrow or holdback applicable to the holders of membership interests in the Company or Holdco until such contingent, deferred, escrow or holdback amounts are paid to the Company by Holdco. All calculations and distributions made pursuant to this Plan shall be made by the Manager in good faith and shall be final and binding on all parties.

(c) Notwithstanding anything in the MIP LLC Agreement (including this Plan) to the contrary, the Company and therefore, the Participants, shall not be entitled to receive any portion of any Holdco Distribution unless and until all of the Holdco Members (other than the Company) have first received aggregate distributions pursuant to the Holdco LLC Agreement in respect of their Holdco Units in an amount equal to the aggregate amount of Holdco Capital Contributions theretofore made to Holdco with respect to such Holdco Units. In addition, with respect to the portion of a Holdco Distribution that is payable to the Company in the form of equity or other non-cash assets, if any, the Manager may, in the Manager's sole and absolute discretion, cause the Plan Distribution Amount to be paid in cash or such equity or non-cash assets or a combination thereof. For purposes of this Section 5.1, the value of any equity or non-cash assets shall be the fair market value thereof as of the date of determination, as reasonably determined by the Manager in good faith.

(d) Participants shall be entitled to receive their pro rata share, based on the amount of taxable income so allocated to each Participant, of each Tax Distribution Amount distributed by Holdco to the Company in accordance with Section 5.04 of the Holdco LLC Agreement. Any Tax Distribution Amount distributed to a Participant shall be treated as an advance against, and shall reduce, subsequent distributions to such Participant under the other provisions of this Agreement. All distributions under this Article V are subject to Section 9.9.

5.2 Distribution-Related Provisions.

(a) All distributions to Participants under this Plan are subject to the MIP LLC Agreement (including this Plan) and the vesting, forfeiture and other provisions set forth in this Plan or such Participant's Award Agreement, if any (in which event such Award Agreement shall control in all respects, unless its terms expressly provide to the contrary). For the avoidance of doubt, no distributions shall be payable with respect to any membership interest represented by any Participant's Management LLC Units that are not Vested Management LLC Units or that are forfeited or terminated pursuant to this Plan or such Participant's Award Agreement.

(b) Upon the occurrence of a Sale of Holdco, any then Unvested Management LLC Units shall, subject to the vesting provisions set forth in Section 6.1, have no value and shall automatically, without further action, notice or deed, terminate upon the consummation of such Sale of Holdco. If a Sale of Holdco is consummated which results in an amount distributed to the Holdco Members under the Holdco LLC Agreement that is less than the Distribution Threshold applicable to a Management LLC Unit (after giving effect to any Distribution Threshold Adjustments made in accordance with Section 4.3), then such Management LLC Unit shall have no value and shall automatically, without further action, notice or deed, terminate in its entirety upon the consummation of such Sale of Holdco.

(c) Upon the consummation of a Sale of Holdco, each Active Employee who is offered employment or continuation of employment by Holdco or the acquiring company (or a Subsidiary or Affiliate of Holdco or the acquiring company) from and after the Sale of Holdco shall be entitled to a distribution with respect to the Participant's Vested Management LLC Units in an amount equal to sixty-seven percent (67%) of the aggregate amount of his or her distribution pursuant to Section 5.1; and the thirty-three percent (33%) balance shall be distributed to the Participant on the first anniversary of the consummation of the Sale of Holdco; provided that the Participant shall not be entitled to any portion of the thirty-three percent (33%) balance unless the Participant accepts the offer of employment and remains continuously employed by Holdco or the acquiring company (or a Subsidiary or Affiliate of Holdco or the acquiring company) during the twelve (12) month period following the Sale of Holdco. If, however, a Participant who is an Active Employee accepts the offer of employment and during the twelve-month period after the consummation of the Sale of Holdco the Participant's employment is terminated by the Participant's employer without Cause or by the Participant for Good Reason or the Participant's employment is terminated due to death or disability, the entire balance shall become payable upon the occurrence of that event. If upon the consummation of a Sale of Holdco an Active Employee is not offered employment or continuation of employment, he or she shall be entitled to distribution of the full amount of his or her distribution with respect to the Participant's Vested Management LLC Units as determined under Section 5.1. For purposes of this provision, a Participant shall not be considered to have been offered employment or continuation of employment unless the offer is for employment with duties of the same general nature as his or her duties prior to the Sale of Holdco and with a base salary at least as favorable as the base salary in effect for the Participant immediately prior to the Sale of Holdco.

(d) If a Participant who would otherwise be entitled to a distribution by the Company upon the Company's receipt of all or any portion of the Plan Distribution is indebted for borrowed money to the Company, Holdco or any other member of the Holdco Group and such indebtedness remains outstanding at the time that a distribution would be payable to such Participant under this Plan, then the Manager, in the Manager's sole and absolute discretion, may elect to reduce the amount of the distribution to the Company in the amount of such indebtedness (together with accrued and unpaid interest thereon, if any); in which case, the Manager shall reduce the amount of the distribution to such indebted Participant, dollar for dollar, by the amount of such indebtedness (together with accrued and unpaid interest thereon, if any) in repayment thereof and any such reduction shall be deemed to have been paid to the Participant and shall be returned to the Company, and the Company shall return such amount to Holdco, for distribution to the Holdco Members in accordance with Section 5.02(a) of the Holdco LLC Agreement.

(e) Notwithstanding anything in this Plan to the contrary, except as otherwise provided in a Participant's Separate Agreement, if a Participant has breached any of his, her or its obligations under any restrictive covenants under any Separate Agreement in any material respect to which such Participant is a party (including, without limitation, any obligations relating to non-competition, non-solicitation, non-disparagement, confidentiality, or assignment of rights), no payment or other distribution shall be made to a Participant under this Plan and his, her or its Management LLC Units (including any rights to payments or distributions not so made) shall be immediately and irrevocably forfeited (for no consideration and without further action, notice, or deed) in accordance with Section 6.2.

(f) If the consideration in connection with a transaction constituting a Sale of Holdco is not payable to Holdco (but is instead payable to the Holdco Members), pursuant to the Holdco LLC Agreement, the Manager shall take such action as may be necessary to put the Participants in the same economic position as they would have been in if the consideration in connection with the transaction had instead been paid to Holdco and were available for distribution by Holdco. Tax consequences to the Participants will not be taken into account for purposes of this Section 5.2(f).

5.3 Additional Provisions Relating to Management LLC Units Issued to Participants. Upon an Initial Public Offering, each Participant's Management LLC Units shall be converted into or exchanged for common stock or other class of securities (the "IPO Stock") of the issuer in the Initial Public Offering (the "Issuer") of the same class that is registered in the Initial Public Offering as determined by the Manager, in the Manager's sole and absolute discretion. Except as otherwise provided in a Separate Agreement between the Company and a Participant or as otherwise determined in the sole and absolute discretion of the Manager (which may be determined on a case-by-case basis with no requirement to treat all Participants the same), any shares of IPO Stock so received, whether for Unvested Management LLC Units or Vested Management LLC Units, shall be restricted shares of IPO Stock ("Restricted Stock") that shall vest on the third (3rd) anniversary of the consummation of the Initial Public Offering (provided that the recipient is employed by or in other service with the Issuer or an Affiliate thereof on such vesting date) and shall thereupon cease to be Restricted Stock. All unvested shares of Restricted Stock shall be non-transferable and, except as otherwise provided in a Separate Agreement between the Company and a Participant, shall be forfeited upon termination of the recipient's employment or other direct or indirect service with the Issuer and its Affiliates, and otherwise subject to the terms of the governing plan documents that may be adopted by the Issuer in its absolute discretion.

5.4 Withholding.

(a) Each Participant shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, indemnify and hold harmless each Person who is or who is deemed to be the responsible withholding agent for the Company for U.S. federal, state, local or non-U.S. income tax purposes against all claims, liabilities and expenses of any kind (other than any claims, liabilities and expenses in the nature of penalties and accrued interest thereon that result solely from such Person's fraud, willful misfeasance or gross negligence as determined in a final non-appealable order issued by a court of competent jurisdiction) relating to such Person's obligation to withhold and to pay over, or otherwise pay, any withholding or other taxes payable by the Company as a result of the Participant's participation or ownership of an interest in the Company.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Plan: (i) each Participant authorizes the Company to withhold and to pay over, or otherwise pay, any withholding or other taxes (including state unincorporated business taxes, taxes imposed under the Partnership Audit Rules and, in all cases, any interest, penalties, additions to tax, and expenses incurred in respect thereof) payable by the Company or any of its Affiliates with respect to such Participant or as a result of such Participant's participation in the Company; and (ii) if and to the extent that the Company shall be required to withhold or pay any such taxes (including any amounts withheld from amounts payable to the Company to the extent attributable, in the sole judgment of the Manager, to the interest of such Participant in the Company), the Participant shall be deemed for all purposes of this Plan to have received a payment from the Company as of the time such withholding or tax is required to be paid, which payment shall be deemed to be a distribution with respect to the Participant's interest in the Company to the extent that the Participant (or any successor to the Participant's interest in the Company) is then entitled to receive a distribution. To the extent that the aggregate of such payments to a Participant for any period exceeds the distributions to which the Participant is entitled for that period, the Participant shall make a prompt payment to the Company of such amount. The Manager may, in its sole and absolute discretion, satisfy any obligation of a Participant under this Section 5.4 out of future distributions to such Participant.

(c) If the Company makes a distribution in kind and such distribution is subject to withholding or other taxes payable by the Company on behalf of any Participant, the Participant shall make a prompt payment to the Company of the amount required to be withheld.

(d) A Participant's obligation to pay or indemnify for a tax (and related interest and penalties) shall survive the Participant selling or otherwise disposing of its interest in the Company and the termination, dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Company.

5.5 Release. Notwithstanding anything in this Plan to the contrary, except as otherwise provided in a Participant's Separate Agreement with the Company or any member of the Holdco Group, a Participant shall not be entitled to receive any distribution (as a Participant) in connection with a Sale of Holdco unless, prior to receipt of the distribution, he, she or it executes and delivers to the Company a full general release, in form and substance satisfactory to the Manager, under which the Participant releases and discharges the Manager, Holdco and each other member of the Holdco Group, and the Company and each of their respective Subsidiaries and Affiliates and their respective owners, partners, investors, members, officers, directors, managers, employees and agents, from any claim or cause of action of any kind, whether or not related to the Participant's employment or other service or the termination of the Participant's employment or other service, but excluding claims and causes of action relating to, (i) the Participant's right to a portion of the Plan Distribution from the Company in accordance with this Plan and the MIP LLC Agreement, (ii) the Participant's right to compensation, benefits and expenses accrued through the date of the consummation of the Sale of Holdco, (iii) the Participant's right to enforce the terms of any Separate Agreement between the Company or any member of the Holdco Group, on the one hand, and the Participant, on the other hand, that survive the Sale of Holdco (but only to the extent of the survival of such terms), (iv) the Participant's rights to directors' and officers' insurance coverage (if applicable) and (v) the Participant's rights to indemnification and exculpation under the Holdco LLC Agreement, the MIP LLC Agreement and applicable law, as applicable (a "Release").

ARTICLE VI
VESTING, FORFEITURE AND LIMITATION OF RIGHTS

6.1 Vesting. Unless otherwise approved by the Manager and provided in such Participant's Award Agreement (in which event such Award Agreement shall control in all respects),[1] each of a Participant's Management LLC Units shall become vested as follows: twenty percent (20%) of such Management LLC Units shall vest on the first (1st) anniversary of the date of issuance of such Management LLC Units, and the remaining eighty percent (80%) of such Management LLC Units shall vest in forty-eight (48) equal monthly installments over the four (4) year period following the first (1st) anniversary of the date of issuance of such Management LLC Units, in each case, if and only if, the Participant is at the applicable time, and since the date of issuance of such Management LLC Units has continuously been, an Active Employee or a Parakeet Service Provider. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) upon the consummation of a Sale of Holdco (other than an Initial Public Offering), any and all of the Unvested Management LLC Units then held by each Participant shall become vested at the effective time of such Sale of Holdco; provided that such Participant (x) is an Active Employee or a Parakeet Service Provider upon the consummation of the Sale of Holdco, and (y) complies with the cooperation covenant set forth in Section 8.2 of the MIP LLC Agreement (with such compliance determined by the Manager in its sole and absolute discretion) in all material respects; (ii) at any time prior to the consummation of a Sale of Holdco (other than an Initial Public Offering), any and all of the Unvested Management LLC Units then held by each Asset Manager Participant shall become vested upon the earlier to occur of (x) the termination of service of the Asset Manager by Holdco without Cause (unless grounds for Cause exist at the time of termination, in which case, such termination shall be treated as for Cause retroactively upon the discovery thereof by any member of the Holdco Group) or (y) the termination of service of the Asset Manager by the Asset Manager for Good Reason; and (iii) the Management LLC Units of the JREF Entities shall be fully vested as of issuance in accordance with their Award Agreements.

6.2 Forfeiture of Management LLC Units. Except as otherwise provided in a Participant's Award Agreement (or other Separate Agreement with the Company or any member of the Holdco Group), if a Participant's employment or other direct or indirect service with Holdco or any other member of the Holdco Group (a) terminates (other than pursuant to a deemed termination in accordance with Section 6.4 as a result of the termination of service of the Asset Manager) (i) by any member of the

[1] Note to Draft: Award Agreements for the JREF Entities will provide that their Management LLC Units will vest in full on date of grant.

Holdco Group or the Asset Manager, as applicable, without Cause (unless grounds for Cause exist at the time of termination, in which case, such termination shall be treated as for Cause retroactively upon the discovery thereof by any member of the Holdco Group or the Asset Manager, as applicable), (ii) by the Participant with Good Reason, or (iii) as a result of his or her death or disability, the Participant, for no consideration and without further action, notice or deed, will immediately forfeit all of such Participant's then outstanding Unvested Management LLC Units and none of such Participant's Management LLC Units shall vest any further from and after such termination; or (b) terminates (including, for the avoidance of doubt, pursuant to a deemed termination in accordance with Section 6.4 as a result of termination of service of the Asset Manager) by any member of the Holdco Group or the Asset Manager, as applicable, for Cause or by the Participant without Good Reason, the Participant, for no consideration and without further action, notice or deed, will immediately forfeit all of such Participant's then outstanding Vested Management LLC Units and Unvested Management LLC Units. Without limitation of the foregoing, unless otherwise provided in a Participant's Award Agreement (or other Separate Agreement with the Company or any member of the Holdco Group), if a Participant breaches any Restrictive Covenant or a restrictive covenant under any Separate Agreement to which such Participant is a party (including, without limitation, any obligations relating to non-competition, non-solicitation, non-disparagement, confidentiality, or assignment of rights), all of such Participant's Management LLC Units, whether or not such Management LLC Units are then Vested Management LLC Units, shall be forfeited, for no consideration and without further action, notice, or deed, and such Participant shall thereupon have no further rights with respect to such Management LLC Units, and in the event of a breach of a Restrictive Covenant by a Participant, or upon a recharacterization as a for Cause termination as described above, upon demand by the Company, such Participant shall promptly repay to the Company any amounts already received under this Plan or an Award Agreement with respect to such forfeited Management LLC Units.

6.3 Repurchase Option; Repurchase Obligation.

(a) (i) In the event that a Participant's employment or other direct or indirect service with any member of the Holdco Group terminates (other than pursuant to deemed termination of service in accordance with Section 6.4 as a result of the termination of service of the Asset Manager), (i) by any member of the Holdco Group or the Asset Manager, as applicable, without Cause, (ii) by Participant with Good Reason, or (iii) as a result of his or her death or disability (except as otherwise provided with respect to a Participant in such Participant's Separate Agreement with the Company or any member of the Holdco Group, if any, in which event, such Separate Agreement shall control), the Company will have the right (but not the obligation) (the "Repurchase Option") to purchase all or any portion of such Participant's Vested Management LLC Units (the "Optional Subject Units") in accordance with this Section 6.3 for an amount equal to their fair market value, as determined by the Manager, in its sole and absolute discretion, as of (x) the time of such termination of such Participant's employment or engagement or (y) the date of the redemption notice referenced in the following sentence, whichever is less. The Repurchase Option will be exercisable, in the Manager's sole and absolute discretion, by written notice to the Participant or the Participant's estate or representative, as the case may be, within three hundred sixty-five (365) days after the effective date of such termination of the Participant's employment or other direct or indirect service. Such notice shall specify the number of Subject Units being repurchased by the Company and the closing date for the repurchase (either a specific date or within a number of days after a specified date or event).

(ii) (A) In the event the Asset Manager's service with any member of the Holdco Group terminates (1) by any member of the Holdco Group without Cause or (2) by the Asset Manager with Good Reason, the Company shall purchase, in accordance with this Section 6.3 (the "Repurchase Obligation"), all, but not less than all, of the Vested Management LLC Units then held by each of the Asset Manager Participants (the "Mandatory Subject Units") for the amount that would have been received by such Asset Manager Participant in respect of such Mandatory Subject Units if Holdco were dissolved and its assets liquidated in accordance with Article IX of the Holdco LLC Agreement on the last day of the month in which such termination occurred, for a gross amount equal to the Fair Market Value on such last day of the month, with the Fair Market Value determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.3(a)(ii)(B), and the amount that would have been received by such Asset Manager Participant based on such Fair Market Value determined by the Manager in its sole and absolute discretion. The closing of the repurchase of the Mandatory Subject Units pursuant to this Section 6.3(a)(ii) shall take place at such time as determined by the Manager, in its sole and absolute discretion, but in no event more than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the date the Repurchase Obligation is triggered pursuant to Section 6.3(a)(ii)(A).

(B) Within ten (10) Business Days of the date the Repurchase Obligation is triggered pursuant to Section 6.3(a)(ii)(A), the Manager shall select and engage two (2) Appraisers, on such terms and conditions mutually determined by the Manager and the Asset Manager, to each render a determination of the Fair Market Value within ninety (90) days of its engagement. The midpoint between the determination of Fair Market Value by each Appraiser will be deemed the Fair Market Value and will be final and binding upon the parties. The cost of the engagement of each Appraiser shall be borne by Holdco.

(b) The purchase price for each of the Optional Subject Units and the Mandatory Subject Units (each, the "Subject Units") shall be paid by the Company, in the Manager's election, (i) in cash at closing, (ii) by set-off of any amounts then owed by the Participant to the Company or any member of the Holdco Group, (iii) by delivery of an unsecured promissory note subordinated and junior in right of payment to all other indebtedness of the Company, with customary terms and conditions, which shall be payable (A) with respect to the Optional Subject Units, in no more than five (5) equal annual installments (with interest on outstanding amounts compounded annually at the then "applicable federal rate" or successor thereto), with the first (1st) installment due on the first (1st) anniversary of the closing and the subsequent annual installments due on the successive anniversary dates of the closing, or (B) with respect to the Mandatory Subject Units, on or before the second (2nd) anniversary of the closing (with interest on outstanding amounts compounded annually at the then "applicable federal rate" or successor thereto), or (iv) in any combination of the foregoing. The consummation of the repurchase of the Subject Units, and Participant's receipt of payment of the purchase price for such Subject Units, shall be subject to and conditioned upon (x) the Participant's execution and delivery to the Company of (1) a Release and (2) a power of attorney enabling the Manager to act on the Participant's behalf and in the Participant's stead with respect to the Subject Units, and (y) the Participant taking all steps appropriate and necessary to ensure that the Subject Units are delivered free and clear of all liens or encumbrances, including without limitation, permitting the Company (as determined by the Manager) to set off and satisfy any liens out of amounts otherwise payable as all or part of the purchase price of the Subject Units. The repurchase of the Subject Units shall be consummated upon the Company depositing the applicable purchase price into its attorneys' trust account or into an escrow account for the benefit of the Participant and no further notice, action or deed on behalf of the Company shall be required. Notwithstanding anything in this Plan to the contrary, in no event shall the purchase price of the Subject Units be payable by the Company hereunder unless and until the Release becomes valid and effective. The Company shall have the right to assign its repurchase rights hereunder to any third party as it so designates.

(c) If the Participant fails, for any reason, to tender the instruments required for the purchase and sale of the Subject Units at the time and place specified by the Company, the Participant shall be deemed to have assigned all of its right, title and interest in and to the Subject Units to the Company and the Participant shall cease to have any rights with respect to the Subject Units except only to receive the purchase price therefor as computed pursuant to this Section 6.3 and such Subject Units shall be deemed cancelled on the Company's books and shall no longer be outstanding. Upon the consummation of any repurchase hereunder, regardless of whether the Participant shall have received all or any portion of the purchase price, automatically and without further notice, action or deed, the subject Participant's membership interest in the Company in respect of the repurchased Subject Units shall be terminated.

(d) If the Repurchase Option with respect to any Participant was exercised following a termination of such Participant by any member of the Holdco Group or the Asset Manager without Cause in accordance with Section 6.3(a)(i) or the Repurchase Obligation was triggered by a termination of the Asset Manager by any member of the Holdco Group without Cause in accordance with Section 6.3(a)(ii), in each case, at a time when grounds for Cause existed, or if at any time any Participant breaches any Restrictive Covenant or a restrictive covenant under any Separate Agreement to which such Participant is a party (including, without limitation, any obligations relating to non-competition, non-solicitation, non-disparagement, confidentiality, or assignment of rights) (each, a "Breaching Participant"), then, upon demand by the Company, each Participant from whom the Company repurchased Subject Units in connection with such Repurchase Option or Repurchase Obligation or the Breaching Participant, as applicable, shall promptly repay to the Company the purchase price received for the Subject Units (and any promissory note issued therefor shall automatically be deemed, without further action, notice or deed, cancelled and void ab initio) as well as any amounts already received under this Plan or an Award Agreement with respect to the Subject Units, and such Participant shall thereupon be deemed, without further action, notice or deed, to have forfeited such Subject Units for no consideration.

6.4 Limitation of Rights. None of the Participants shall have any right to be retained in the employ or engagement of any member of the Holdco Group or the Asset Manager (except as may be provided in such Participant's Separate Agreement, in which event, such Separate Agreement shall control in all respects), and nothing in the MIP LLC Agreement shall interfere in any way with the right of the employer or service recipient of any Participant to terminate such Participant's employment or other services at any time for any reason (or no reason) (except, in each case, as may be provided in such Participant's Separate Agreement, in which event, such Separate Agreement shall control in all respects). No employee or other person shall have any claim or right to be granted an Award under this Plan. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, except as otherwise expressly set forth in this Plan, including Section 6.2 and Section 6.3, if at any time the Asset Manager's services with Holdco or any other member of the Holdco Group terminate for any or no reason, the indirect services of each Asset Manager Participant will automatically, without further action, notice or deed, be deemed to be terminated on the same basis.

ARTICLE VII
RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS

7.1 Confidentiality; Non-Competition; Non-Solicitation. By accepting an Award, each Participant acknowledges that by virtue of his, her or its employment or other direct or indirect service with Holdco or any other member of the Holdco Group, he, she or it from time to time may obtain confidential and proprietary information concerning Holdco or one or more other members of the Holdco Group, and each of their respective businesses that is not readily available to the public, that Holdco and the other members of the Holdco Group are entitled to protection against wrongful use of any of that information and that the Company would not issue to the Participant a membership interest in the Company but for the covenants contained in this Section 7.1 (the "Restrictive Covenants"), which are made by each Participant for the benefit of the Company, Holdco and the other members of the Holdco Group and their respective equity holders. Accordingly, each Participant agrees that (except that to the extent of any conflict between this Section 7.1 on the one hand, and any Separate Agreement to which a Participant is a party, on the other hand, in which case, unless the terms of such Separate Agreement expressly provide to the contrary, the provisions which are more expansive or otherwise more favorable to the Holdco Group, including, without limitation, with respect to scope and duration, shall apply):

(a) While a Participant and at all times thereafter, the Participant shall maintain in strictest confidence (and shall use solely for the benefit of Holdco and the other members of the Holdco Group) all confidential information relating to each of the Business, the Company, Holdco, and the other members of the Holdco Group, including, without limitation, trade secrets, know-how, financial statements and data, contracts (whether oral or written), pricing policies, marketing plans and strategies, information regarding projects contemplated or under development, and business acquisition plans (collectively, the "Confidential Information"), and shall not, except in connection with the business affairs of Holdco and the other members of the Holdco Group disclose any Confidential Information to any person, other than with the express prior written consent of the Manager or the Participant's employer or as required by law or legal process. All memoranda, notes, lists, records and other documents (and all copies thereof) constituting or containing Confidential Information previously or hereafter made or compiled by the Participant or made available to the Participant concerning the Business shall be the property of Holdco or the applicable member of the Holdco Group, as the case may be, shall be kept confidential in accordance with the provisions of this Section 7.1, and shall be delivered to Holdco or the applicable member of the Holdco Group promptly upon termination of the Participant's employment or other direct or indirect service or at any earlier or later time upon the request of the Manager. Notwithstanding anything in the preceding sentence to the contrary, any Participant may disclose such Confidential Information (a) if required to do so by a court order, subpoena, or other legal process, (b) if required to fulfill legal and regulatory obligations, or (c) to such person's attorneys, accountants, or other advisors who agree to be bound by this Section 7.1, provided that, in the cases of clauses (a) and (b) above, the Participant gives adequate notice to the Manager or the Participant's employer of the pending disclosure and cooperates with any efforts of Holdco to obtain a protective order or other reliable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded the Confidential Information, and, in the case of all disclosures permitted hereunder, the disclosure is limited to only those portions of such information that are necessary or required hereunder. The Participant acknowledges receipt of the following notice under the Defend Trade Secrets Act: (i) an individual will not be held criminally or civilly liable under any federal or state trade secret law for the disclosure of a trade secret if: (i) such individual makes such disclosure in confidence to a Federal, State, or local government official, either directly or indirectly, or to an attorney and such disclosure is made solely for the purpose of reporting or investigating a suspected violation of law; or (ii) such individual makes such disclosure in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding if such filing is made under seal.

(b) During the Restricted Period, the Participant covenants and agrees not to, directly or indirectly (including, without limitation, as an owner, officer, director, employee, consultant, contractor, investor, lender, advisor or agent), conduct, manage, operate, consult for, engage in or have an ownership interest in any business or enterprise (other than the Company or the other parties described in Section 7.1 above for whom these Restrictive Covenants are expressly intended to benefit or the Asset Manager, as applicable) engaged in, (i) the Business, or (ii) any activities that are otherwise competitive, in any geographic location in which any member of the Holdco Group currently conducts the Business or has proposed to conduct the Business, with a material portion of the service provider businesses of Holdco or any member of the Holdco Group, as then conducted, or which Holdco or any member of the Holdco Group has taken material steps toward conducting; provided, however, that the Participant may own, directly or indirectly, solely as a passive investment, securities of any publicly traded Person if the Participant is not a controlling person of, or a member of a group that controls, such Person, and does not, directly or indirectly, own two percent (2%) or more of any class of securities of such Person.

(c) During the Restricted Period, the Participant shall not, directly or indirectly, (i) solicit or encourage any employee, officer, director, consultant or other service provider of Holdco or any member of the Holdco Group to leave the employment or engagement thereby; or (ii) hire any employee or former employee or any officer or director of Holdco or any member of the Holdco Group.

(d) During the Restricted Period, the Participant shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit or encourage any Person who works with, or is in a dialogue with, or is a supplier, customer, client, distributor, or advertiser of, Holdco or any member of the Holdco Group to discontinue or diminish such Person's business relationship with Holdco or any member of the Holdco Group, as the case may be.

(e) The Participant agrees that, during the Participant's employment or other direct or indirect service with Holdco or any other member of the Holdco Group and thereafter (including following the Participant's termination of employment or direct or indirect service for any reason), the Participant will not make statements or representations, or otherwise communicate, directly or indirectly, in writing, orally, or otherwise, or take any action which may, directly or indirectly, disparage or negatively affect any member of the Holdco Group or their respective owners, partners, investors, members, officers, directors, employees, advisors, agents, businesses or reputations.

(f) In the event that the Participant's employment or other direct or indirect service with Holdco or any other member of the Holdco Group terminates, the Participant shall return to the Participant's employer (or the entity that has otherwise engaged the Participant) any and all property, documents and/or information of the employer/engaging entity and any other member of the Holdco Group (including but not limited to information or materials prepared or made by the Participant) which may be in the Participant's possession, including but not limited to materials, computers, laptops, hard drives, hardware, software, data storage devices, memoranda, notes, records, reports, designs, sketches, plans, programs, printouts, or other documents as well as all copies thereof and files related thereto.

(g) The provisions of this Section 7.1 may be assigned by the Company or Holdco to the purchaser or other acquirer in connection with any transaction that results in a Sale of Holdco (in which event the provisions of this Section 7.1 shall continue to be binding upon the Participant and shall be enforceable by the purchaser or other acquirer).

(h) Each Participant acknowledges that: (a) the Participant has had an opportunity to seek advice of counsel in connection with all of the provisions of this Plan (as well as the balance of the MIP LLC Agreement and the Participant's Award Agreement) including, without limitation, the Restrictive Covenants contained herein; (b) the Restrictive Covenants are reasonable in scope and in all other respects; (c) any violation of the Restrictive Covenants will result in irreparable injury to the Company, Holdco or any other member of the Holdco Group, as applicable; (d) money damages would not be an adequate remedy to the Company, Holdco or the member(s) of the Holdco Group, as applicable, in the event of a breach or threatened breach of any of the Restrictive Covenants by the Participant; and (e) specific performance in the form of injunctive relief would be an appropriate remedy in such case for the Company, Holdco or the member(s) of the Holdco Group, as applicable. If a Participant breaches or threatens to breach a Restrictive Covenant, the Company or Holdco or any other member(s) of the Holdco Group, as applicable, shall be entitled, in addition to all other remedies, to an injunction restraining any such breach, without any bond or other security being required and without the necessity of showing actual damages. In the event of an alleged breach or violation by a Participant of this Section 7.1, the Restricted Period will be tolled (and added thereto) until such alleged breach or violation is finally resolved.

(i) To the extent that any part of this Section 7.1 may be invalid, illegal or unenforceable for any reason, it is intended that such part will be enforceable to the extent that a court of competent jurisdiction will determine that such part, if more limited in scope, would have been enforceable, such part will be deemed to have been so written and the remaining parts will be effective as written and enforceable in all events and the Participant agrees to request that such court enforce this Section 7.1 as if so written. Without limiting the foregoing, if any provision of this Section 7.1 is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect under any applicable law or rule in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other jurisdiction.

ARTICLE VIII
ENTIRE AGREEMENT; AMENDMENT

8.1 Entire Agreement; Amendment. The MIP LLC Agreement (including this Plan), together with each Participant's Award Agreement, Separate Agreement (solely as to that Participant), if any, the Asset Management Agreement and the Holdco LLC Agreement contain a complete statement of the arrangements among the Participants and the Manager with respect to the Company and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings among them with respect to the Company. This Plan may be amended, modified or supplemented and any provision herein may be waived, in each case, by the Manager, in its sole and absolute discretion, at any time and from time to time, and in any manner (including, without limitation, to change the number of Management LLC Units that may be issued by the Company or to resign and/or appoint a successor Manager); provided, however, that no amendment, modification, supplement or waiver that materially and adversely affects a Participant (other than any amendment, modification, supplement or waiver that affects all Participants in a proportional manner or that are made to reflect changes in the capital structure of Holdco or that are made in connection with any merger, consolidation or other business combination) may be made without the written approval of the Participant who would be disproportionately affected thereby; provided, further, however, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Manager may change the aggregate number of Management LLC Units even if such change would dilute then existing Participants. All amendments, modification, supplements or waivers to this Plan approved pursuant to this Section 8.1 shall be binding on all Participants (whether or not such Participant consented to such amendment, modification, supplement or waiver). Notwithstanding anything in this Plan to the contrary, each of the Company and Holdco and any other member of the Holdco Group (as applicable), shall have general authority to enter into one or more Separate Agreements with a Participant and neither the Company nor Holdco nor any other member of the Holdco Group (as applicable) shall be prohibited or precluded by this Plan from entering into any such Separate Agreement on terms that deviate from the terms of this Plan, and to the extent of any conflict between this Plan and such Separate Agreement, such Separate Agreement shall control unless the terms of such Separate Agreement expressly provide to the contrary.

ARTICLE IX
MISCELLANEOUS

9.1 No Effect Upon Benefits. By acceptance of any Award under this Plan, each Participant agrees that neither the Award nor any amount paid under this Plan or an Award Agreement will affect the benefits under any benefit plan of any member of the Holdco Group or except as otherwise set forth in a Separate Agreement between such Participant and the Asset Manager, the Asset Manager, nor shall the Award or any amount paid under this Plan or an Award Agreement be considered compensation for purposes of any other benefit plan or program of any member of the Holdco Group or except as otherwise set forth in a Separate Agreement between such Participant and the Asset Manager, the Asset Manager.

9.2 Non-transferability. Except as otherwise provided in the MIP LLC Agreement or a Participant's Separate Agreement with the Company or any member of the Holdco Group, no Participant

None of the Participants shall have any rights as Participant Members except as specifically provided in the MIP LLC Agreement, the Holdco LLC Agreement, or as provided by any such Participant's Separate Agreement with the Company or any member of the Holdco Group.
