Post Eviction Title Transfer

1. After the writ of possession (WOP) is posted, the Community Manager will need to send a copy to Evictions, along with the following information of the home, if found:
    - VIN/tag/decal number
        - If no VIN is found on the home, Florida Fast Title (FFT) will need to do further investigation to be able to find the VIN or work with the DMV to have a new VIN processed
    - Year
    - Make/Model
    - Length
    - Color
2. Evictions will draft together the post-eviction package, which includes:
    - Cover Sheet
    - Landlord Questionnaire
    - Writ of Possession
    - Authorization Letter
3. Evictions will send the post-eviction package via email to FFT
    - Once the package has been sent, Evictions will update this under the Eviction Workflow History/Notes tab.
4. The FFT will schedule the auction and send an email to Evictions
    - Evictions will forward the email to the Community and Regional Manager
        - Evictions will create a calendar invite for the auction and send to Community and Regional Manager
    - FFT will mail a Letter of Abandonment to all owners, granting them approximately 21 days (timing variables range) to reclaim their property
        - Certified funds (rent, late fees, legal fees, and FFT charges) are required to reclaim the property
5. Once the auction is over, Community Manager to notify Regional Manager and Evictions if a bidder was present at the auction.
    - If no one is present, FFT will proceed with obtaining title.

- If a bidder is present:
  - All them to bid individually
  - The highest bidder must:
  - Pay for the awarded bid price of the home, including all outstanding amounts (home cost, tax, tag/title fee)
  - Sign 3 Power of Attorneys (POAs), either electronically or with wet signatures
  - Provide acceptable proof of ID
- Evictions to mail complete title package to FFT to have title transferred to bidder's name

6. Once FFT obtain title, Evictions will send via email a mailing label to have title sent to MD office.
7. When title is received, Evictions will email a copy to Community and Regional Manager
   - Title will be uploaded to Assets in Rent Manager
   - Asset will checked off in Make Ready Board if applicable
