WELCOME & COMPANY INTRODUCTION

WHO WE ARE & WHAT WE DO?

WHO WE ARE

Parakeet Communities is a hands-on, fast-moving team committed to keeping our neighborhoods safe, clean, and well-maintained. We take ownership, step in where needed, and work together to solve problems—always with our residents and communities in mind.

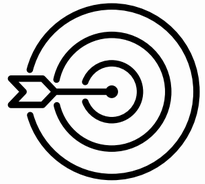
WHAT WE DO

We maintain, repair, improve, and protect our communities every day. Through consistent standards, clear processes, and teamwork, we deliver strong operations and a positive resident experience across all properties.

Mission & Vision

OUR MISSION

To provide outstanding, affordable living for our residents by operating high-quality communities with efficiency, integrity, and care, without compromising standards.



OUR VISION

To build thriving communities where residents feel safe, supported, and proud to live, and where our team members grow, collaborate, and succeed together.

Core Values

Do the Right Thing

Act with honesty, integrity, and accountability—always.

Put Customers First

Listen to residents' needs and consistently exceed expectations.

Fly as a Flock

We believe teamwork and collaboration lead to better outcomes.

Invest Time Wisely

Focus on what matters most and delivers the greatest impact.

Make Informed Decisions

Think critically, gather perspectives, and act thoughtfully.

Be Open-Minded

Embrace new ideas, learning, and continuous improvement.

Keep It Simple

Simplify processes and communicate clearly.

Have Fun

Foster a positive, supportive, and enjoyable work environment.

Market & Communities Overview

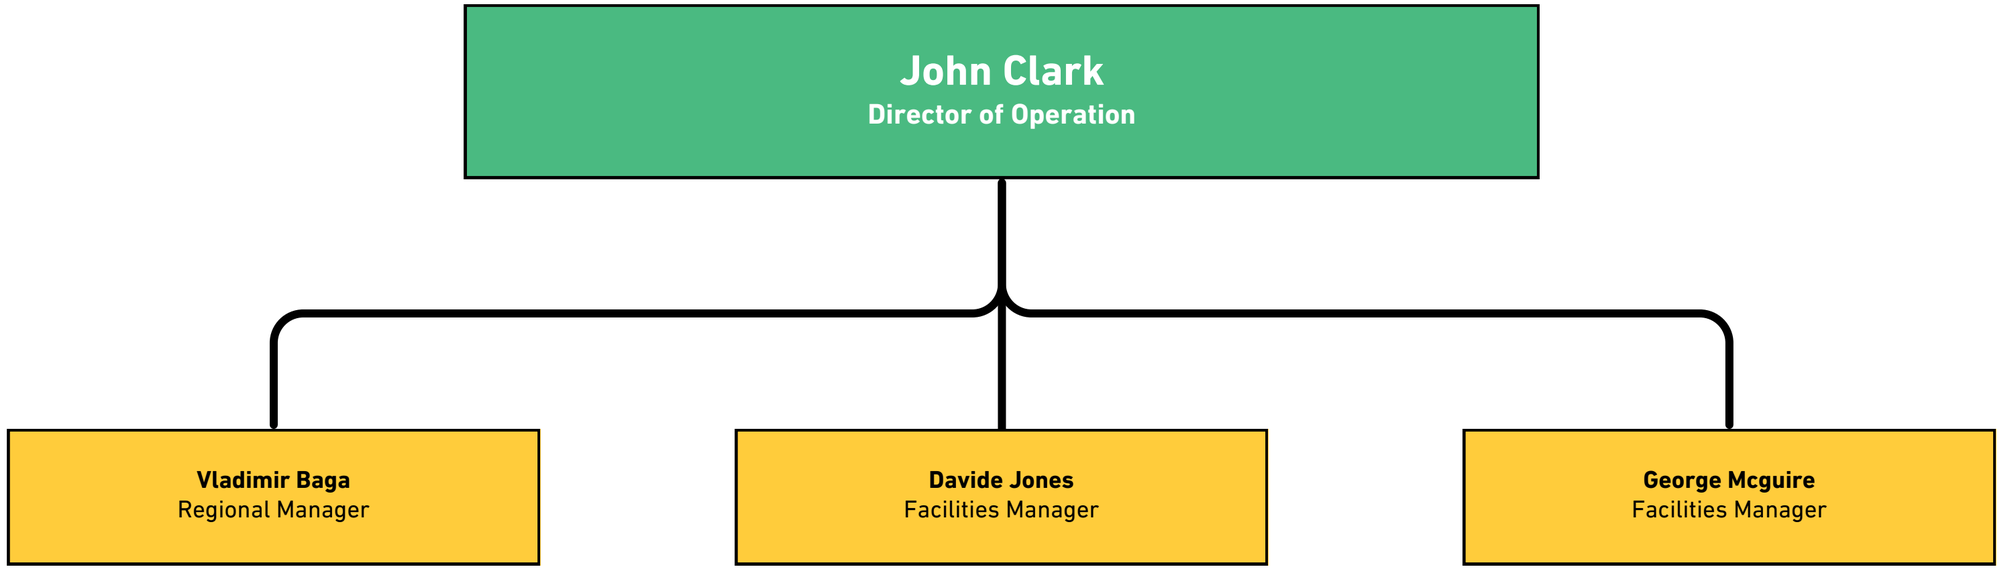
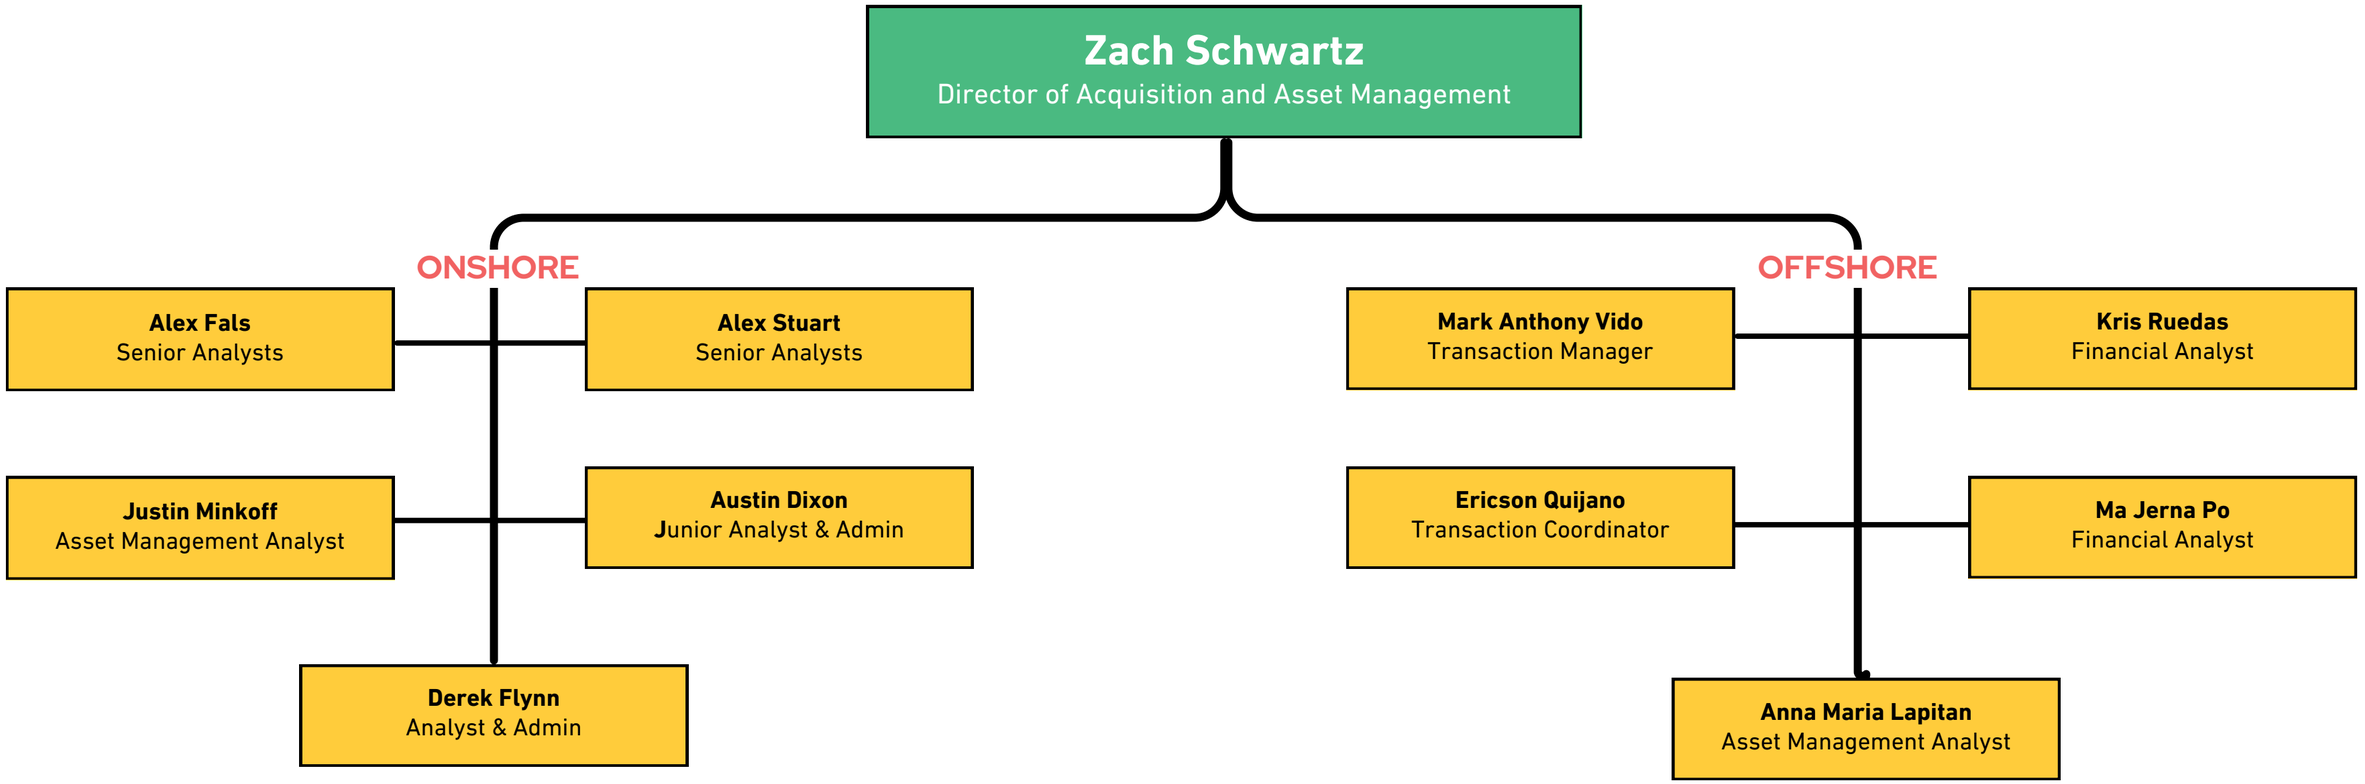
CONSTRUCTION DEPARTMENT



ACQUISITION & ASSET MANAGEMENT DEPARTMENT



COMMUNITY STANDARDS & EXPECTATIONS

Your Role as a Community Manager

You are the first line of care for our residents, homes, and assets. Your daily actions directly impact:

Community appearance and condition

You ensure the community is clean, well-maintained, and addressed promptly so it remains a place residents are proud to call home.

Safety and functionality

You help identify and resolve issues early, ensuring homes, amenities, and common areas are safe and fully operational.

Resident satisfaction

Your communication, follow-through, and professionalism shape the resident experience and build trust within the community.

Occupancy and home sales

Well-managed communities attract and retain residents, directly supporting occupancy levels and home sales success.

Expense control and asset protection

Your attention to detail, timely reporting, and preventive action help control costs and protect the company’s assets.

Community Code of Conduct – "DO's"

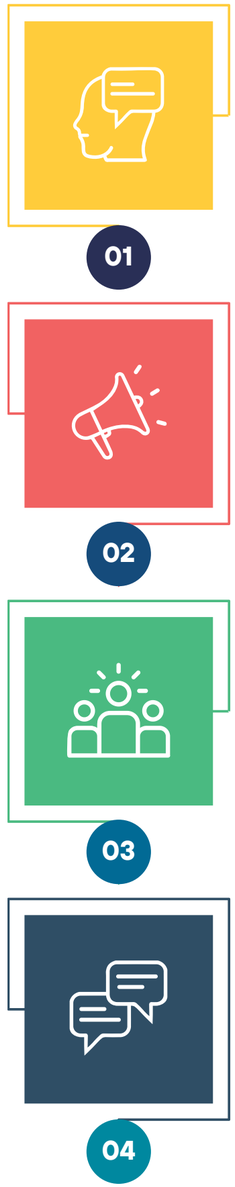
- Treat all residents with respect, dignity, and kindness.
- Listen actively to residents' concerns and address them promptly and professionally
- Maintain clear and open communication with residents, providing them with necessary information and updates.
- Respect residents' privacy and confidentiality at all times.
- Respond to residents' needs and requests in a timely and courteous manner.
- Foster a welcoming and inclusive environment where residents feel valued and supported.
- Follow established protocols and procedures for interacting with residents, including those related to safety and security.
- Offer assistance and support to residents as needed, while respecting their independence and autonomy.
- Be mindful of cultural differences and individual preferences when interacting with residents.
- Seek feedback from residents to continually improve service delivery and resident satisfaction.

Community Code of Conduct – "DONT"

- Engage in discriminatory behavior or language towards residents based on their race, ethnicity, gender, religion, age, or any other characteristic.
- Ignore or dismiss residents' concerns or complaints. Invade residents' personal space or boundaries without their consent.
- Share residents' personal information or medical history with others without proper authorization.
- Make inappropriate or offensive jokes.
- Display favoritism towards certain residents or treat them differently based on personal biases.
- Use intimidating or aggressive behavior towards residents, including raising your voice or making threats.
- Violate residents' rights or dignity, including their right to make choices and decisions about their own lives.
- Engage in gossip or spreading rumors about residents or their families.
- Neglect or disregard residents' needs or requests, causing them to feel ignored or undervalued.

Chain of Command – Your First Point of Contact

Your Regional Manager is ALWAYS your first stop for operational matters.



Have routine questions

Routine questions are a normal part of day-to-day operations and should always be directed to your Regional Manager first. This ensures you receive consistent guidance that aligns with company standards. Asking early helps prevent small questions from turning into larger issues.

Encounter issues in the field

When issues arise in the field, your Regional Manager should be your first point of contact. They can help assess the situation, provide direction, and guide next steps. This keeps responses aligned and avoids conflicting instructions.

Need help deciding the next step

If you are unsure what action to take, reach out to your Regional Manager before moving forward. They are there to help you think through the situation and confirm the best course of action. This prevents missteps and ensures decisions are made with the full context in mind.

Are unsure whether something should be escalated

If you are questioning whether an issue needs escalation, it likely does. Your Regional Manager can help determine the level of urgency and who else should be involved, if anyone. Escalating early helps protect both you and the company.

Community Managers Responsibility

Community/District managers are responsible for the day-to-day execution of operations at the property level. You are the closest to your residents, site conditions, and daily activities of your communities.

- Execute day-to-day property operations

  Execute day-to-day property operations to ensure the community runs smoothly and efficiently.

- Maintain safety, compliance, and community standards

  Maintain safety, compliance, and community standards across all areas of the property.

- Manage documentation, work orders, and reporting

  Manage documentation, work orders, and reporting accurately and on time.

- Support financial performance and rent collection

  Support financial performance through rent collection, expense monitoring, and proper documentation.

- Serve as the primary resident contact

  Serve as the primary point of contact for residents and address concerns professionally and promptly.

> If it's not in Rent Manager, it didn't happen.

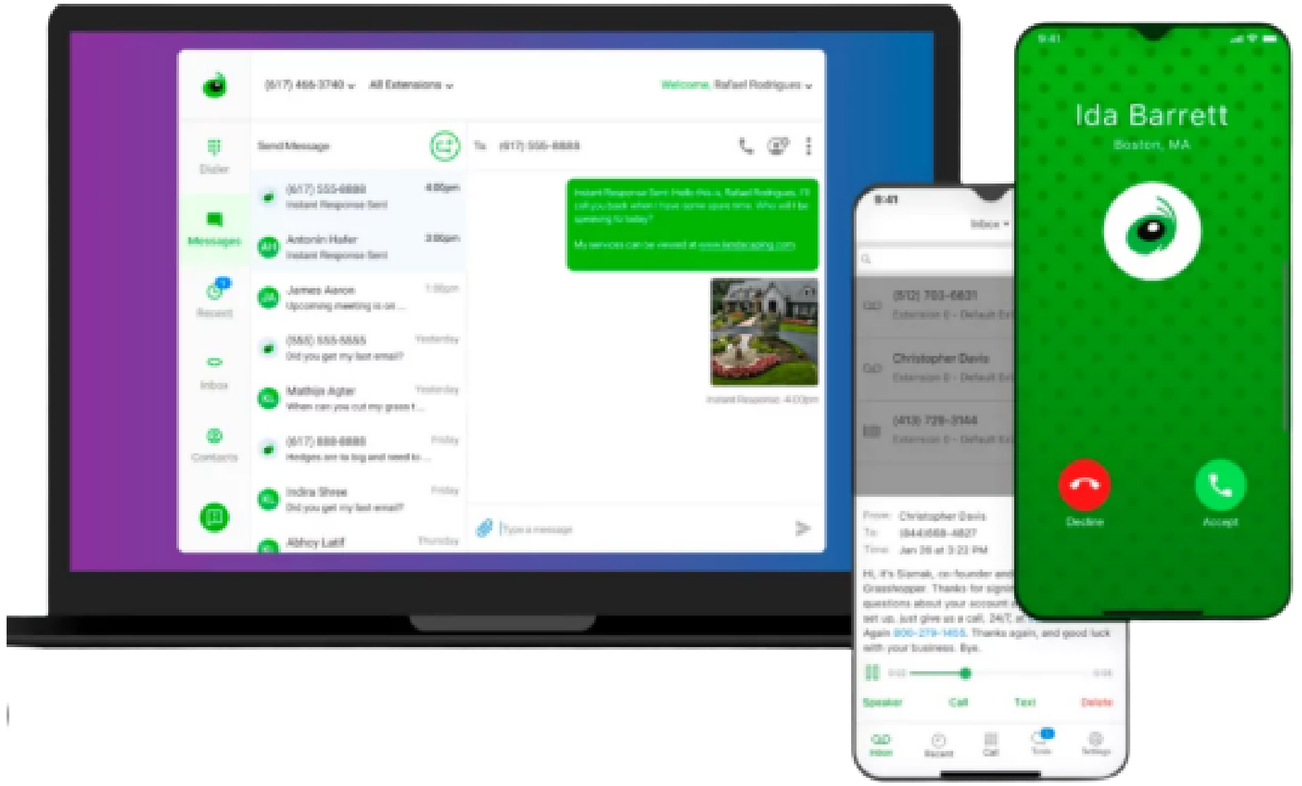
Grasshopper

Grasshopper is the company's official business phone system used for all resident, vendor, and internal calls.



Community Managers use Grasshopper to:

- Receive and return business calls and texts
- Maintain professional communication with residents and vendors
- Ensure calls are answered, returned, or documented
- Separate business communication from personal phone numbers

Expectations:

- Grasshopper must be installed and active on your mobile device
- Calls and messages are handled promptly and professionally
- Missed calls and voicemails are returned within required timelines

All business calls must go through Grasshopper.

parakeet

Microsoft Teams

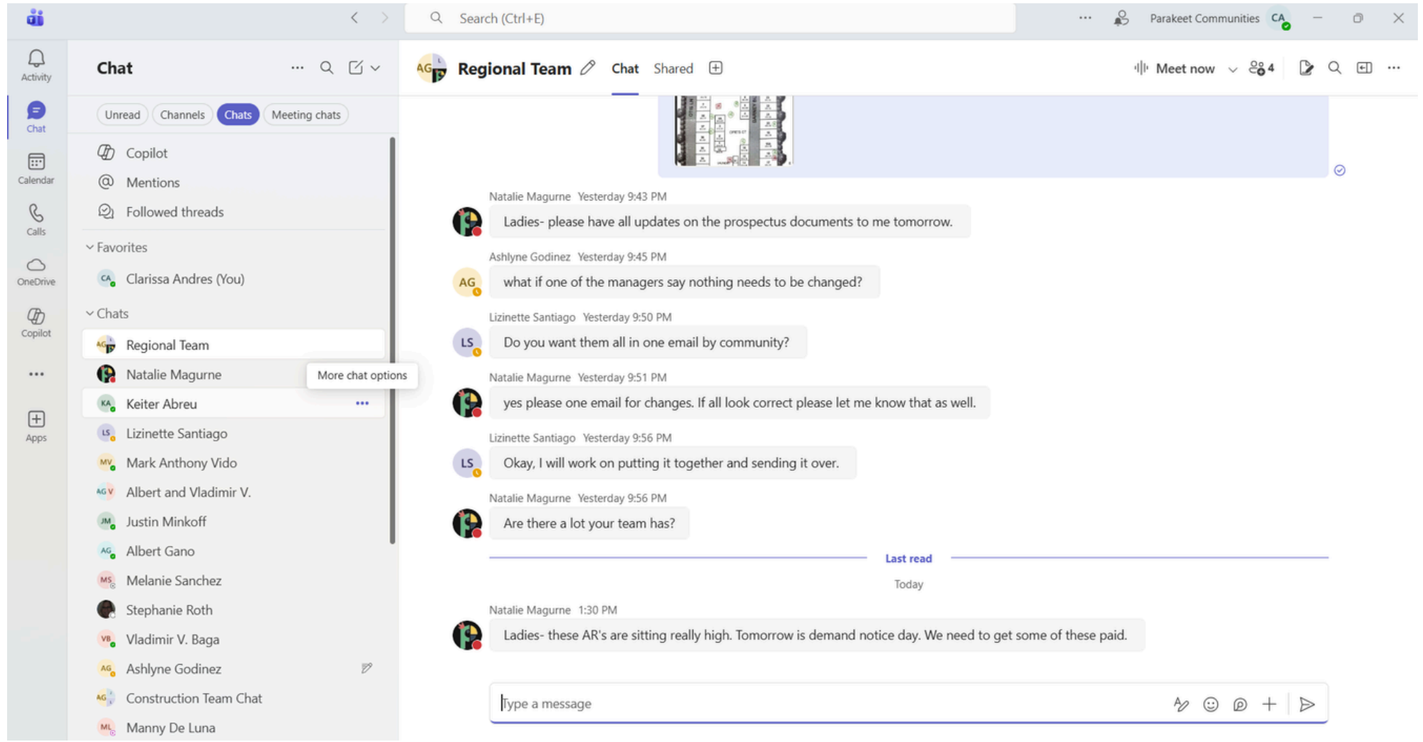
Microsoft Teams is the company's primary platform for internal communication, collaboration, and meetings.

Community Managers use Microsoft Teams to:

- Communicate with supervisors, regional managers, and support teams
- Participate in meetings, huddles, and training sessions
- Share updates, questions, and files in assigned channels
- Collaborate in real time without relying on text or personal messaging apps

Expectations:

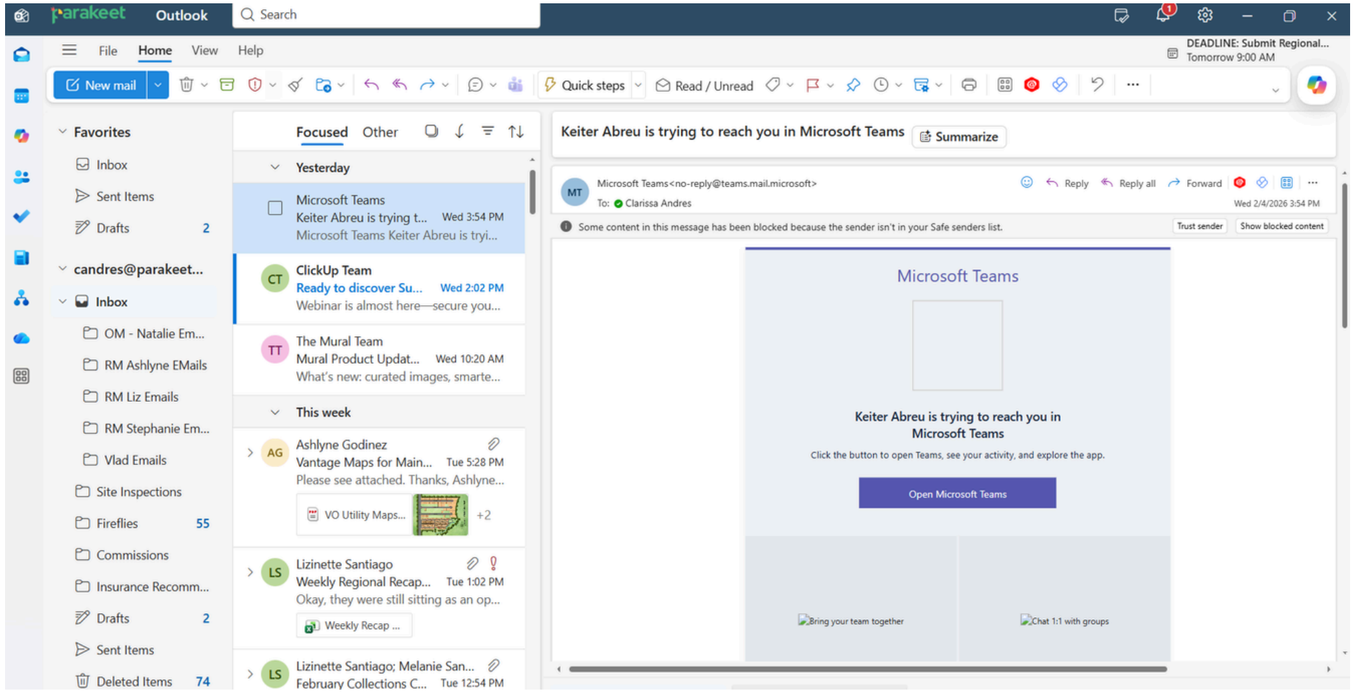
- Teams must be checked regularly throughout the workday
- Messages are responded to promptly and professionally
- Meetings are joined on time and prepared



Teams is the official internal communication tool—personal messaging apps are not used for work.

Outlook – Email & Calendar Management

Microsoft Outlook is the company's official platform for email communication and calendar scheduling.



Community Managers use Outlook to:

- Send and receive professional business emails
- Manage meetings, inspections, deadlines, and follow-ups
- Track tasks, reminders, and scheduled commitment
- Coordinate availability with internal teams and vendors

Expectations:

- Outlook is monitored daily during business hours
- Emails are responded to within required response times
- Calendars are kept accurate and up to date

All business communication and scheduling must be done through Outlook.

SharePoint / OneDrive – File Storage & Documentation

Microsoft SharePoint and Microsoft OneDrive are the company's official platforms for file storage, document sharing, and collaboration.

Community Managers use SharePoint / OneDrive to:

- Access SOPs, forms, reports, and templates
- Store and retrieve community and operational documents
- Share files securely with internal teams

Expectations:

- Files are saved in the correct folder and community location
- Documents are kept organized, accurate, and current
- Personal storage or external drives are not used for company files

> If it's not saved in SharePoint or OneDrive, it's not officially stored..
